WINSLOW GENEALOGY

THIS IS BEING DONATED TO THE GENEALOGY CENTER OF AUBURN, INDIANA, IN MEMORY OF HENRY A. & CYNTHIA MARY (THOMAS) WINSLOW BY THEIR GREAT GRANDDAUGHTER IRENE JANICE (KELLICUT) OLNEY 2004

Lionel D. Kellicut & Harriet Cynthia Winslow-wedding picture
Married December 25, 1924 at the home her parents, Justus & Nellie Winslow, Co. Road 35, Auburn, Indiana, by Rev. Joe Ferguson.

I wish to dedicate this book to my beloved parents
Harriet Cynthia (Winslow) Kellicut 1901-1988
Lionel D. Kellicut 1905-1991 who had saved many of the items & pictures that are in this book.

6-26-2004-Irene Janice (Kellicut) Olney

I wish to thank my husband, Dwight Lee Olney, for the monies, he has supplied me with, over the past 13 years for searching trips, phone calls and supplies that I have needed to prepare the following on the HENRY A. WINSLOW genealogy.

My two sisters Nellie (Kellicut) Cronk and Leona (Kellicut) Happy who have spent many hours on our trips to library's going through history books and micro-films etc.

All the information from references Frank C. Young,
Nickie(Livergood) Lehman, Edith (Warstler) Winslow,
Connie (Miller) Happy, Diane K. Stringfellow, Lucy

The Typographical Error

The typographical error is a slippery thing and sly.
You can hunt 'till you are dizzy but it somehow will get by.
"Till the forms are off the presses it is strange how still it keeps,
It shrinks down in the corner and it never stirs or peeps.
The typographical error is too small for human eyes,
"Till the ink is on the paper when it grows immense in size.
The writer stares in horror then he grabs his hair and groans,
The copy writer drops her head upon her hands and moans.
The remainder of the issue may be clean as clean can be,
But that typographical error is the only thing you sea!

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Eliza Kerstetter, wife of Jacob Kerstetter, departed this life August 30, 1894, aged 68 yrs. 10 mos. and 8 days. She was born in Pennsborough Tp., Cumberland Co., Pa., in the year 1825 and came to Stark Co., Ohio, with her parents when she was nine years of age, and has lived in or near Louisville ever since.

She was married to Jacob J. Kerstetter, June 13th, 1847, at the age of 22 years. With him she shared the vicissitudes of life for a period of forty six years as a true and loving wife and companion. To them were born thirteen children, nine of whom are still living. Mrs. Kerstetter was a devout mother caring most tenderly and lovingly for her children. For them she exercised many of the joys and comforts of true motherhood. She was baptized in her infancy and early taught by her pious parents that she belonged to her Saviour. In early youth she was confirmed a member of the church by Rev. E. E. Henrick at Paris. When the Reformed church was organized at Louisville some thirty years ago she transferred her membership. Here and has been a consistent and devoted member of the church, doing all in her power to advance Christs kingdom among men.

Her funeral was largely attended on last Saturday from the Reformed church. Rev. J. J. Leberman, D. D., conducted the services, assisted by Rev. J. L. Kimmel, of the Progressive church. The words of comfort were taken from the 90th verse of Matthew, 25th chapter of the book of Job.

The community has lost in the death of Mrs. Kerstetter a pure woman, the family a loving mother, the husband a true helpmeet, the church a devoted member. What is our loss in her eternal gain. Let us emulate her virtues and keep her memory green in our hearts.

lowed agricultural pursuits in Richland Township till the spring of 1875, when he went to Waterloo and engaged with his father and brother in the notions business, retiring from the firm in the fall of 1877, when he came to Auburn and became established in his present business. He was married Nov. 9, 1865, to Miss E. J., daughter of L. D. Britton, of Corunna. They have three children—Marion B., Lewis H. and Nettie B. Politically he is a Republican. He and his wife and daughter are members of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Henry A. Winslow, a native of Stark County, Ohio, was born Aug. 10, 1847. In 1852 he came with his mother to De Kalb County, Ind., and settled in Richland Township, living with her about one year. He was then taken and reared by his Uncle, Urias Thomas, with whom he lived till he was twenty-one years of age. He received a common-school education, attending the Auburn and Waterloo high schools. He began teaching in 1867, and taught about twelve years during the winter season, but worked on the farm in the summer. He was an efficient and successful teacher, and always popular with his pupils. Abandoning teaching, he turned his attention wholly to agricultural pursuits, at which he has been very successful. His farm contains sixty acres of choice land. Aug. 20, 1868, he was married to Cynthia M. Thomas, the sixth daughter of John and Anna Thomas, early settlers of De Kalb County, settling in Union Township in 1843. To Mr. and Mrs. Winslow has been born one son—Justus A.

George Wolfe was born in Stark County, Ohio, Sept. 9, 1821, a son of John and Elizabeth (Zahner) Wolfe, his father a native of Maryland and his mother of Pennsylvania. They were among the first settlers of Columbiana County, Ohio, where they were married. They subsequently moved to Stark County, and there spent the remainder of their lives. Nine children were born to them; all lived till maturity. George Wolfe was reared and educated in his native county, and was there married March 16, 1843, to Eliza Fisk, a native of New York. In 1847 they moved to De Kalb County, Ind., where Mrs. Wolfe died in August, 1855. Two of their five children are living. He was again married Jan. 18, 1857, to Sarah Lutz, a native of Stark County, Ohio. One of their two children is living. Mr. Wolfe was a prosperous man, and accumulated a fine farm of 100 acres, valued at $75 an acre. He was a promi-

Philip married Frances Mellon, 14 October 1945 in West Lafayette, Indiana. Mr. Phillips attended Purdue University and served four years in the U.S. Air Force during WW II. He was a chemical engineer for Lauhoff Grain Company, Danville, Illinois, for thirty-eight years and retired in 1984.

Mr. Phillips had one sister: Zelma May Eckman Johnson Reid Smart, born 1902, died 1980.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips are the parents of four children: Cathy Stewart of Muncie/Anderson, Indiana, married Dan and she has two children Erin, and John; George Phillips of Norwich, New York, married Paulette and has two children, Jenny and Jeffrey; Margaret Peggy Titus of Shelby/Waldron, Indiana, married Don and had two daughters, Emily and Anne; and John Phillips of Ypsilanti/Anne Arbor, Michigan, where he resides with his wife Susan. George and Peggy are twins.

Phil and Fran Phillips currently reside in Danville, Illinois.

Cyrus Phillips Family

CYRUS MILTON/MELTON PHILLIPS, born 27 January 1832 in Whitehall, New York to Reuben Phillips and Lydia Cole.

Sarah Elizabeth Welch, born 24 June 1835 in Ravenna, Ohio, daughter of Irad Welch and Martha Cynthia Judd. Her paternal grandparents were Vine Welch and Esther Cogswell of Euclid, Ohio. Her maternal grandparents were Nathaniel Judd and Martha Bierce.

Cyrus and Sarah, married 24 September 1855 in Ravenna, Ohio. Mr. Phillips, it is said, lost his mother when he was seven and grew up among friends and relatives, mostly near Erie, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Phillips was reared in Ravenna. She became a nurse, receiving whatever training that calling required at the time.

In 1849, Mr. Phillips taught school in Mishawaka, Indiana. However, in 1850, he went east to Ohio where he eventually met and married Sarah Welch. They lived in Kent, Ohio, the Salem Center, finally settling in Waterloo, Indiana where they lived out their lives. Mr. Phillips studied law and in 1873 or 1875 he was admitted to the DeKalb County Bar. He was an active community member, as well as active member of the Christian Church in Waterloo.

Mr. Phillips served in the Civil War as a private in Company D, 13 Indiana Infantry. He was 32 years and 8 months of age at the time of his enlistment, 21 October 1864; his occupation was listed as mechanic. He was mustered out 19 June 1865 from McDougal Hospital, New York Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips had nine children: Wilmaettie Ettie Phillips; Mary Jane Phillips; Adam Warren Phillips, died young; Georgianne Phillips; Adliza Lida Phillips; Ella Phillips; John Melvin Phillips; Alice Bell Phillips; and Clayton Melton Phillips.

Cyrus Phillips died, 21 August 1915 in Waterloo, Indiana, aged 83 years. Sarah Phillips died in Waterloo, 10 December 1933, aged 98. Both Cyrus and Sarah are buried in Waterloo, Cemetery.

JOHN THOMAS, born in 1745 probably in York County, Pennsylvania. His wife died in 1803 in Adams County, Pennsylvania. In 1804 John sold all of his extensive holdings and immigrated to Columbiana County, Ohio, the part of which later became Stark County, where he entered sections 27-28-29. Land records show he owned over 1900 acres of land.

He came to Ohio with grown sons: John Jr.; Michael; Samuel and Peter, twins. Henry and daughter, Mary, who later married John Niswander. When the Thomas family came to Columbiana County, Ohio in 1804 it was still primarily a wilderness. John Thomas opened up the first road into the area and it was officially names Thomas Road. This road is still in use and is now a main thoroughfare.

In 1806, his son, Samuel, built the first school house in Knox Township. It was on section 28 of John's property, John Thomas later was a teacher there.

The first saw mill in Knox Township was built by John Thomas in 1806 and he operated it until 1815 when he was severely injured in an accident. He made his home with his son, John Jr. and daughter-in-law, Mary, where they cared for him until his death in 1818.

His will signed 15 June 1815 first commands my soul to Almighty God who gave it and my body to the earth. Then directs executors Joseph Springer and Jacob Crumlarker to sell the fifty acres with the mill on it, plus all his other real estate and movable property to best advantage, the proceeds to be divided equally, share and share alike between his children Michael, Samuel, Peter, Henry and Mary Niswander. To son John $50.00 as he already had been given the original homestead for taking care of his father, John Jr. left it to his son, Thomas, whose descendants still, in 1986, own the land.

John Sr. died in 1818 in Stark County, Ohio and is interred at the Old Burial Ground in Butler Township east of North Georgetown, Ohio.

John Thomas Family

JOHN THOMAS, born in 1775 in York County, Pennsylvania, son of John Sr. and Margaret Thomas, married Mary Reinicker, daughter of George Reinicker and Catherina Sponseller in York County, Pennsylvania ca 1793. They had children: Elizabeth; John, born 1801 in Adams County, Pennsylvania; Mary and Catherine before migrating to Columbiana County, Ohio in 1804 with his father, John Sr. and brothers Michael, Samuel, Peter and Henry and sister Mary.

The land he settled in Columbiana County later became part of Stark County. Three more children were born to John and Mary after they settled in Ohio: Susan, Sarah and Thomas.

In his will dated 15 January 1839, he leaves the plantation that he lived on to son, Thomas; to "my dear wife Mary" I leave 1/3 of my personal property and two rooms on the north side of the house to live in plus use of the kitchen, annually son Thomas must deliver to her eighteen bushels of wheat, two hundred pounds of pork, ten pounds of coffee, two pounds of tea, five bushels of potatoes, and as much wood chopped and laid in a convenient place as she may need. I also leave her one cow and four sheep to be maintained by son Thomas free of charge. She is the have to mantle clock for her use. Should she become sick Thomas is to give her good care. Son John receives 50 acres of land on section 28, daughter Susan 35 acres adjoining John's, daughters Elizabeth, Mary Catherine, and Sally (Sarah) $500.00 and the residue of my personal property. The executors John Dillinbaugh and David King are charged with seeing that the terms of the will are met. John Thomas, Jr. died 21 February 1840 in Stark County, Ohio and is interred at St. Michaels' Cemetery, Butler Township. His widow, Mary, died 25 December 1841 and is buried beside her husband in Butler Township.

JOHN A. THOMAS, born in 1801 in Adams County, Pennsylvania. The son of John Thomas and Mary Reinicker. At the age of about three years he made the long trek presumably by covered wagon from Adams County, Pennsylvania to Columbiana County, Ohio with his parents, grandfather, aunts, uncles and other family members. They settled in the part of Columbiana County that would later be Stark County.

On 11 June 1829, he was married to Elizabeth Mathias. She was born in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania in 1804 and came with her parents, Jacob and Magdalena Mathias to Stark County ca 1806.

John and Elizabeth were the parents of eight children all born in Stark County: Levi, 1830; Urias, 1831; Mary Ann, 1836; Elizabeth, 1838; Jacob, 1841; Catherine, 1843; Isaiah, 1847; and John 1848.

In ca 1852 John and Elizabeth with their family moved to DeKalb County, Indiana. In Levi's obituary it mentions that he drove a team of oxen from Stark County, Ohio to DeKalb County, Indiana when they made the move. Somewhere between 1850 and 1860 their two children Urias and John disappeared from the records and no trace had been found of them.

The Thomas family settled in Richland Township, DeKalb County and about 1856 Mary Ann married Peter Pifer and Elizabeth married John Pifer. The Pifer family may have traveled with the Thomas family from Ohio as there were Pifers living near them in Ohio. Both John Thomas and his son Levi were farmers.

In ca 1865 John and all of his children including married children again packed up and moved to Elkhart County, Indiana; settling there in Cleveland Township where John and Levi bought farms. Peter and Mary Pifer took a farm in Cass County, Michigan near Edwardsburg, Michigan. In Elkhart County Catharine married David H. Stewart, Jacob married Phiann Lockwood and Isaiah married Cynthia Manning.

John and Elizabeth Thomas farmed until ca

1878 at which time they sold their farm to son-in-law John Pifer and retired to live with daughter Mary Pifer in Michigan. Both died after 1880 but no date of death can be found and a long search for grave sites has produced no results.

FAY THOMAS, born 7 February 1921, in Cheboygan County, Michigan, the daughter of Justie Thomas and Laura Currie. Her paternal grandparents were Isaiah Thomas and Cynthia Manning, both of Indiana. Her maternal grandparents were Lachlan Currie and Margaret Neil, of Canada. She has three sisters and one brother, living, also one sister and two brothers deceased. Fay graduated from the Hebron #1 School in 1936.

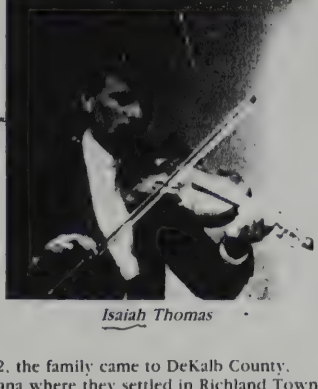
Fay Thomas married Mell Wesley Stilwell, 14 August 1937 in Cheboygan, Michigan. Mell is the son of Neal Stilwell and Nellie Goudy, residents of Mackinaw City, Michigan area.

Mell employed by Rittenhouse Furniture Company for seven years, after which they removed to Bay City, Michigan, where he took the trade of automobile technician. This was his chosen career until his retirement. Fay entered the dry cleaning business becoming a silk and linen presser, she retired in 1982.

Fay and Mell are the parents of four children: Melvin Faye, born 24 March 1938, married Leona Mae Hewitt. Children of this marriage; Joe Thomas, married Mary Manmual, children; Sara Elizabeth, Amy Jo and Stacey Ann; Deborah Lynn married Hugh Dixon, children, Krystal Lee, Jessica Lynn and Adam Hugh; Holly Lee, single and living in Denver, Colorado. Melvin married the second time to Patricia Louise Bridges, No children of this marriage; Roger Wesley, born 28 September 1940, married Sharon Leske. Children; Marci Marie, Roger John R.J., Roger Wesley, married for the second time to Mary L. Smith. Children: Justie Thomas and Melvin Lee; Donna Leora, born 24 January 1953, married Hugh H. Ritter, one child; Eric Nicholas Ritter; Jack Jay, born 3 August 1959, single, lives and works in Marquette, Michigan.

Their descendants also include seven grandchildren and six great grandchildren, Jessica Lynn Dixon, who was stillborn, on 27 December, 1984, the daughter of Hugh and Deborah (Stilwell) Dixon.

Fay and Melvin are chartered members of the Church of God in Bay City, Michigan.



Isaiah Thomas

ISAIAH THOMAS, born 5 July 1847 in Stark County, Ohio, son of John A. Thomas and Elizabeth Mathias both born in Pennsylvania, ca 1852, the family came to DeKalb County, Indiana where they settled in Richland Township. The journey was made by covered wagon drawn by oxen.

Isaiah attended public school and assisted his father on the farm. Isaiah had seven brothers and sisters: Levi; Urias; Mary Ann; Elizabeth; Jacob; Catherine; and John. Between 1850 and 1860, Urias and John disappeared from the records and their fate is unknown. In DeKalb County ca 1856, Mary Ann married Peter Pifer and Elizabeth married John Pifer.

About 1865, the family once again packed up and removed to Elkhart County, Indiana where John and Levi bought farms in Cleveland Township.

Isaiah married Cynthia Manning daughter of Samuel Manning and Elizabeth Inbody of Edwardsburg, Michigan, 17 December 1872. They had four children: Harley and Lura, born 1873; Justie, born 1875; and Archie, born ca 1880. Harley died as a result of injuries sustained in the Spanish American War, in 1910, and is interred at Fort Vancouver, Washington. Lura married George Smith, Justie married Laura Currie, Archie married Lilly Lamberg.

Isaiah worked for the Lakeshore Railroad and lived in Elkhart, Indiana. He was transferred for a few years to Chicago but returned to Elkhart to finish his working years. He worked as a switchman in a tall tower overlooking the Railroad yards. Grandson, Walter Smith, still remembers going down there with his grandpa and "helping" as a small boy to work the levers to change the tracks.

When Isaiah retired from the Railroad they had a small farm near Edwardsburg, Michigan. Isaiah died there in 1916. Cynthia died, 1926 at Mishawaka, Indiana. Both are interred at Sugar Grove Cemetery in Elkhart County, Indiana.

Nelson D. Thomas.

Build thee more stately mansions,
O my soul
As the swift seasons roll;
Leave the low vaulted past;
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free, Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea.

Nelson D. Thomas, born Mar. 12, 1854, and was one of three children born to John and Catherine Thomas and is the last of the family to answer the call of death.

He was born in Ashland county, Ohio, but came to Indiana in early manhood and has made his home in this vicinity since that time.

He was married to Margaret J. Herrick on Dec. 7, 1876. To this union four children were born, all excepting one son, Charles, of Camden, Mich., dying in infancy. This son and one granddaughter, with the faithful companion, are the only immediate relatives surviving; there are three half-brothers living in and near Auburn.

A number of years ago he united with the church at this place, but, like many others, he forsook his vows and his lord. However in his last days he often spoke of the church and expressed the determination to renew his vows. He approabbed his death unafraid, and seemed confident to trust his soul to the mercy of the Father of Souls.

He has been a member of the K. of P. lodge of this place for years and was faithful to it and its teachings.

Resolutions of Respect--N. D. Thomas

Whereas, Death has removed from our midst a highly respected citizen, and from our lodge a faithful member in the passing away of N. D. Thomas; therefore, be it Resolved, That we, the members of the K. of P. lodge deplore the death of N. D. Thomas, but bow our heads to the expression of Divine will.

Resolved, That we extend to the family of our deceased brother our heartfelt sympathy, not in any empty phrase, but in the full meaning of the term.

Resolved, That the charter of our lodge be draped in mourning for a period of 30 days out of regard for the memory of our departed brother; that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the lodge, that they be printed in the St. Joe News and copies sent to the members of the family of Brother Thomas.

Wm. Hamm.

Whereas, Our Brother, N. D. Thomas, was stricken with paralysis in October, and never after enjoyed health; and on Dec. 14th, 1921, passed to the great beyond; be it Resolved, That we, the members of Azalew Temple No. 152 express our regret at the loss of this brother from our ranks, and express our feeling of sympathy with the widow and son in their bereavement. Our loss is his gain.

Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for a period of of 30 days out of regard for the memory of our departed brother, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the temple; that they be printed in the St. Joe News and copies sent to the members of the family of Brother Thomas.

AARON V. THOMAS
(B) 28 Sept. 1855(D) 1 Feb. 1917

LIFE HISTORY OF LATE AARON V. THOMAS

Aaron V. Thomas was born in DeKalb county, near Mooresville, September 28, 1855. He departed this life at his home on Midway street, Thursday, February 1, 1917, aged 61 years, 4 months and 3 days.

He moved from St. Joe, where he had lived for about thirty years, to Auburn in 1911, and here he had lived in peaceful retirement which he had justly earned.

He was married three times. His last marriage was to Sarah T. Lott, who survives him. His former wives preceded him in death.

He was the father of two children, one by his first wife, Mrs. Charles Werner of Chicago, and one by his second wife, Mrs. Neff Culler of St. Joe.

One full brother, Nelson Thomas of St. Joe, survives and two half brothers, Henry Winslow of Auburn and Livergood Winslow.

He united with the Lutheran church at St. Joe eight years ago and still held his membership there at the time of his death.

The funeral was held at the late home, Sunday, and interment was made in the cemetery at Edgerton, Ohio. Jan 31-1917 Parker

The obit reads two half brothers survive Henry Winslow & Livergood Winslow; I think it should read three half brothers survive-Henry A. Winslow-Joe & John Livergood.

JOHN LIVERGOOD CANCER SUFFERER FOR MANY YEARS

Succumbs at Age of 73 Years

Services for the late John D. Livergood of 314 Covell street, Garrett, were held at the Auburn Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. Howard Eicher, officiated and burial was made in Mount Pleasant cemetery, nine miles east of Auburn.

The death of Mr. Livergood took place at his home at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. He had been afflicted with cancer nineteen years and was bedfast most of the time for the last three years. He was born July 3, 1865, in Wilmington township. He formerly resided in Auburn, but lived in Garrett many years. He was formerly employed in the maintenance of way departments of the Baltimore & Ohio and the Indiana Service Corporation railroads.

The marriage of Mr. Livergood and Clara Rollins occurred Jan. 5, 1888. She survives, with six children, Wm. Livergood of Kendallville; Mrs. Geo. Miller of Coldwater, Mich.; Mrs. Lyman Aldrich of two miles north of Auburn; Mrs. Ray Antrup of 627 Douglass street, Auburn; Mrs. Kenneth Kahler of Sprott street, Auburn; and Richard, at home. There are fourteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Mr. Livergood was a member of the Auburn lodge of the Modern Woodmen.

The body was prepared at the Geo. W. Iler funeral home.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR AN AUBURN WOMAN SATURDAY

Final rites will be held Saturday at 1 p.m. in the Auburn Church of Christ for Mrs. Clara Abbie Livergood, 79, who died Wednesday at 2:50 p.m. of complications at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Holland Matheny of 110 East Thirteenth street, Auburn, where she had resided the past four and a half years.

Mrs. Livergood had been ill for the past year and bedfast since last July. The body is at the McKee funeral home in Garrett, where it will remain until noon Saturday when it will be taken to the church to lie in state until the final rites. Arthur Garrigus, pastor of the church, will officiate and burial will follow in Mt. Pleasant cemetery, nine miles east of Auburn.

Mrs. Livergood was born June 27, 1873, at Parkersburg, W. Va. She and John Livergood were married Jan. 5, 1888, in a church northeast of Auburn. He died several years ago. Mrs. Livergood resided at 314 East Covell street, Garrett, and in East Garrett before moving to her daughter's home.

Surviving are one son, Richard Livergood of St. Johns, southeast of Garrett, four daughters, Mrs. Lyman Aldrich of Pioneer, O., Mrs. Kenneth Kahler of Marion, Ind., Mrs. David Gould of Jackson, Mich., and Mrs. Matheny; 17 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren; and one sister, Mrs. Addie Dove of the state of Washington.

Family Group Sheet From Ped Pag Punched

1843 to Elizabeth Smith, a native of Akron, Ohio. They had a family of six children, but two of whom are living—Frances, wife of James A. Matson, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Florence E., wife of Jasper Waterman, of Waterloo. Mrs. Taylor died Feb. 2, 1882. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and a most estimable woman.

John Thomas was born in Brown Township, Columbiana Co., Ohio, Nov. 4, 1806. Of a family of eight children, comprising five sons and three daughters, he was the third from the eldest. His father died when he was but sixteen years old, and consequently it became his duty to take charge of the family, which he did for a number of years. In 1832 he became acquainted with Miss Anna Hoover, to whom he was married November 4, 1832, she being the fourth daughter of the late Judge John Hoover, of Stark County, Ohio. From Stark County he and his estimable wife moved to Carroll County, where they resided till September, 1843, when they made their final removal, to De Kalb County, Ind., arriving here the 3d of October. The country then was nearly an unbroken forest, but with hard labor and a firm determination, large fields were put under cultivation from which ample harvests were gathered. They lived together in peace and harmony till 1861, when his amiable partner was called away to the immortalities of the spirit world from which no traveler returns. Dec. 13, 1863, he was married to Mrs. Rebecca Fisher, the second daughter of John Hoover, living with her till his death, Feb. 28, 1883, aged seventy-six years, three months and twenty-four days. He left a widow and six children. He was a kind father and a provident husband. Never at variance, but always at peace with his neighbors, his enemies were few, but his friends were many. In his early years he belonged to the Baptist church, but later joined the Dunkard church. The funeral services were held in Auburn in the Baptist church, and were conducted by Rev. Barden and Elder Ward.

"Time did not pause in its onward flight,
Welcome the day or welcome the night.
Take the eye's vision, as well as its hue,
Wrinkles for dimples more plentifully strew.
Take from the cheek the last of its bloom,
Only the faded belong to the tomb.
Withered and sere like the autumn leaf,
Ripe, full of grain, like the harvest sheaf.

MATILDA HOUSER, DeKALB PIONEER, DIES IN ALTONA

Was Born North of Auburn in 1846

Mrs. Matilda Houser, a pioneer resident of DeKalb county, died Tuesday night at 10:30 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ted Leeson, in Altona. Death was due to senility and a blood clot on the heart. Although ailing for the past year, Mrs. Houser did not become bedfast until last Saturday.

Mrs. Houser was born two and a half miles north of Auburn on June 22, 1846, and was therefore in her eightieth year.

She lived with her parents until she was united in marriage to Henry Houser. Mrs. Houser and her husband then moved to Paulding County, O., where they lived for fifteen years, returning to DeKalb county in about 1881. Mr. Houser died thirty-two years ago and since then Mrs. Houser had made her home with her son, Thomas C. Houser, in Altona.

Surviving are three sons, Thomas, Theodore and Samuel of Altona, a daughter, Mrs. Ted Leeson of Altona, and two sisters, Mrs. John Dunn and Mrs. Henry Winslow of north of Auburn.

Funeral services will be held at the home of Ted Leeson Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made at Embrey cemetery, southwest of Garrett. Six grandchildren, Thomas, Joseph, Donald, Frank and Sam Leeson and D. L. Kooken, will act as pallbearers. Heart Clipper Aug. 13 1925

DIED AT MIDNIGHT

Mrs. Perry Blodgett Passed Away at Home in This City.

At 12:30 o'clock Monday night, at her home, 108 East Second street in this city, occurred the death of Mrs. Nancy J. Blodgett, wife of Perry Blodgett, death being due to inflammation of the lungs, stomach and bowels. While she had been ill previously, her last sickness only came on Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Blodgett was nearly 71 years of age. She would have been that old if she had lived until the 21st day of January. She was born in Stark county, O., and came to this county when a child four years old with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, and has resided here since. Forty-seven years ago she was married to Mr. Blodgett.

The husband survives and also two children—James Blodgett and Miss Anna Blodgett. There is a surviving brother, John Thomas, and three sisters—Mrs. Sarah Dunn, Mrs. Cynthia Winslow and Mrs. Matilda Houser, all of this county.

The funeral will be held Wednesday at 10 a. m. from the residence, Rev. S. E. Slater officiating, burial being at Evergreen.

Perry & Nancy Blodgett went for years & didn't speak, if she wanted money, she wrote him a note. Per Edith Winslow-1997

EMMETT BROWN DIES VERY SUDDENLY

HIS VITALITY WAS VERY LOW

And When His Father Left Him Little Did He Expect Death to Enter the Home So Soon—The Funeral

The sudden death Saturday morning of Emmet Brown in his home in the first ward, although not unexpected, as he was in precarious health, was nevertheless a shock to the community, as he had been at his place as clerk in Mr. J. C. Day's hardware store, and was even preparing to spend the day in his duties.

He will be missed from the community for he had been a familiar character in the business of the street for many years. A man of rare conscientious scruples, serving with fidelity in every trust imposed upon him. As a member of the Town Board of Trustees during years of responsible action he proved his honest, manly nature by doing what he believed to be right, realizing that his election was not entirely due to the votes of his own party, he rose above partisan associations in discharging every duty for the public rather than for party good. Although himself handicapped with a frail constitution, his zealous care of his mother and his loving devotion during the long years of her invalid life are not forgotten.

He was generous, kind hearted and no one could speak ill of his life's work so far as he was able to perform it. His example might well be followed by young men even of much stronger constitution.

Mr. Brown's death was very sudden, and after being at Day's hardware store on Friday he returned home and retired for the night. In the morning he arose and said he did not care for breakfast. His father volunteered to go to the store and start the fire and sweep out and said he would return later for his son to take him to the store. His father went to the barn and after hitching the horse started for town and before going very far discovered that he had forgotten the key. Returning to the house he went in to get the key and found his son sitting in the same chair where he left him, but life was extinct.

Mrs. Malinda McCosh, who has been their housekeeper, was in the room doing up the morning work, but had not noticed the entrance of the Death Angel. She never heard a struggle and had only thought that Emmett was resting his head on his arm as he had done many times before.

Perhaps no father and son were ever more devoted than was Joseph Brown and his son Emmett. For years since Emmett had been in declining health and still did duty at Day's hardware store, his father drove him to the store in the morning, and after him at noon and evening, to take him to his meals, as regular as clock work. It was noticeable how devoted they were, and it showed the parental love of the father who has been so kind to his son. In return, the kindness was always appreciated by the son, and it leaves a happy memory to the bereft father.

Emmett Brown

Emmett Brown was born three miles south of Waterloo in DeKalb county, Ind., July 23, 1868, and died at his home in the first ward, March 6, 1909, aged 40 years, 7 months and 13 days.

The deceased was the son of Joseph and Hannah Brown. With his parents he came to Waterloo when a young lad, and lived practically all his life in Uniontown, being the first ward of Waterloo.

His mother died in 1890 and his only sister, who was married to Harley Baker, died several years ago. The father and one brother, Bert Brown, are the only survivors. The subject of this sketch was a member of I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 221, of Waterloo, and was always held in favor among his lodge brothers.

Mr. Brown was an employ in Day's hardware store for over twenty years, and it is doubtful if a single patron of that store during this time would say that any other but courteous treatment was received at his hand.

The funeral was held from the late home on Monday afternoon, the Rev. S. E. Slater, of Auburn Lutheran church officiating, with the Odd Fellows in charge. The interment took place in the Waterloo cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to all who so kindly assisted us during our late bereavement in the death and burial of son and brother, and especially to the friends who sent such liberal floral tributes that helped to add to our comforts. Also to the members of the I. O. O. F. who so faithfully aided us.

Obituary.

At 8:30 P. M., April 10, 1885, [illegible] the earthly career of Rebecca [illegible] second daughter of the late [illegible] John Hoover. The deceased was born December 13, 1806, in Columbiana county, Ohio, and lived with her parents until eighteen years of age, when she was married to Jacob [illegible] lived together in Stark, [illegible] Marion counties, Ohio, until 184[illegible] they moved to this county and settled on a farm one mile south of the center of Wilmington township, where they erected a cabin in the woods, and endured the toils and privations of pioneers life. Here they lived until 185[illegible] when her companion was called from labor to reward, and she was left alone to care for her large family as best she could. Circumstances compelling her removal, she went to live with her daughter. In 1863 she was again married to John Thomas, with whom she lived until February, 1883, when she was again left a widow. The last two years have been quietly passed with her children. The last month she has been with her daughter, Mrs. R. G. Bailey, in Butler, from whence death called her. She goes to her rest at the age of 78 years, 3 months and 17 days. She leaves behind nine children, five having preceded her. The deceased was a faithful companion, a true and kind mother and a devoted Christian for forty-one years. Her mission in life is over, her labors of love are done, and she goes to reap the reward of the faithful.

This sixty acre choice farm land was located in Union Twp., DeKalb County, 2½ miles northeast of Auburn, In. on County Road 35, back a lane. John and Anna (Hover) Thomas, early settlers of DeKalb County, settled here in 1843. Cynthia Mary Thomas (sixth daughter of John & Anna) was born here April 14, 1849, shortly after the Thomas farm had been entered from the U.S. Government. Cynthia married Henry A. Winslow August 20, 1868. To Cynthia and Henry was born one son Justus Adonis, September 28, 1870, on the old Triplett farm north of this farm. Cynthia and Henry moved to this farm when Justus was a small child. Justus married Nellie Venzuela Shoemaker on April 27, 1899 and they made their home here with his parents Henry and Cynthia Winslow. Pictured here left to right are Justus Adonis, Henry A., Cynthia Mary (Thomas) and Nellie Venzuela (Shoemaker) Winslow. The dogs name I don't know, we have chairs yet like the one on porch in 1996. I believe this was taken around 1900. Justus and Nellie had a family of three which were all born here. Elmer H. on January 27, 1900, Harriet Cynthia on December 25, 1901 and Lester Justus on June 3, 1904. This home burned on March 25, 1920, caused by a chimney fire. A new home was built. These people in picture are grandparents and parents of Harriet Cynthia (Winslow) Kellicut, whom she always spoke very highly of. Notice the dinner bell on the windmill post and the log building behind the house.

Cynthia M. Thomas, daughter of John + Mary Thomas was born in Dekalb County, Indiana April 14- 1849

On August 20- 1868 she was united in marriage to Henry A. Winslow of Dekalb County. With the exception of one year, she and her husband lived on the same farm on which she was born and raised, their entire married life until his death, which occurred May 6+ 1925. To this union one child was born, Junius A. Winslow who resides on the old home place and for whom home Grandma (Cynthia M.) received her last care, until the end came Tuesday evening June 30th 6 o clock, 1931. She leaves to mourn their loss, one son, two grandchildren, Lester at home and Mrs L. Kellicut of Quincy, Michigan, one great grand daughter, many other relatives, neighbors + friends, who will miss her because of the Rose of her quiet, helpful, peaceable life as a true neighbor, a loyal friend in the time of need. It would be impossible in so short a time and space to include in this life history the many virtues of one who lived so long and well. The old home is without a tenant. Tenderly do we bare it away to its last resting place, yet the real grandma as we all knew her lives on. She has gone to join her husband, the choice of her youth, to make for themselves a home in that better land, where sorrow is unknown

READ all this, two grandchildren were Lester Winslow at home; Harriet (Winslow) Kellicut and one great grand child which was Leona (Kellicut) Happy.This was the 2nd page of the write up. Very interesting. This is a copy of the original. The original was found in the Cynthia's & Henry's bible.

THE EVENING STAR

LIFE OF HENRY WINSLOW WHO DIED AT AGE OF 77 YEARS

Henry A. Winslow was born in Stark county, Ohio, August 10, 1847 and died May 6, 1925, aged 77 years, 9 months and 26 days.

He came to DeKalb county in 1852 and resided in Richland township where he lived with his uncle. Urias Thomas, until he was 21 years old. He received a common school education and attended the Auburn and Waterloo high schools. He began teaching and taught about twelve years.

On August 20, 1868, he was married to Cynthia Mary Thomas. To Mr. and Mrs. Winslow one child was born, a son, Justus A. Winslow.

The deceased was generous and kind hearted and no one could speak ill of his life's work so far as he was able to perform. His example might well be followed by young men even of much stronger constitution. He will be missed from the community as he has been a familiar character all his life. He was a man of rare conscientious scruples, serving with fidelity in every trust imposed upon him. He leaves to mour their loss, his wife who for fifty-seven years has been his companion, their son, Justus, who has always resided on the old home farm; two grand children, Lester, at home and Mrs. Lionel Kelicut of Quincy, Mich., two half brothers, John and Joseph Livergood of Auburn. All neighbors and friends who knew him so long will mourn with the bereaved family.

Funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. J. W. Ferguson. Burial was made in Woodlawn cemetery in Auburn.

WELL KNOWN FARMER DIES AT AGE OF 77

Henry A. Winslow Lived South of Town in Union Township for Over Seventy Years

Henry A. Winslow, a resident of Union township for over seventy years, died at his home south of Waterloo on Wednesday morning of last week, after an affliction of kidney and heart trouble of two years duration.

The funeral was held from the late home Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, in charge of Rev. J. W. Ferguson, a neighbor of the deceased. Interment took place in the Woodlawn cemetery at Auburn.

Mr. Winslow came to DeKalb county with his parents when he was five years of age from Starke county, Ohio, where he was born August 10, 1847. Besides his occupation, that of farming, the deceased was deeply interested in the affairs of his township, serving with credit as township assessor for 16 years. In his earlier life he taught school.

August 20,1868, he was united in marriage to Cynthia Thomas of DeKalb county and to them a son, Justus Winslow, was born who resides on the parental farm. Surviving besides the widow and this son are two half brothers, John Livergood of Douglas street, Auburn, and Joe Livergood living at the DeKalb county infirmary. Two grandchildren also survive, Lester, at home and Mrs. Lionell Kellicut of Quincy, Mich.

The deceased was a member of the United Brethren church near Pyle's school house east of Auburn.

MRS. CYNTHIA WINSLOW DIES AT AGE OF 83 YEARS

Passes Away at Home of Son Northeast of Auburn After Long Illness

The death of Mrs. Cynthia Winslow, an aged resident of DeKalb county, took place at the Winslow home two and a half miles northeast of Auburn Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock.

Death resulted from complications after seven weeks of sickness following a hard attack of influenza last winter. She was 83 years of age.

Mrs. Winslow died on the farm on which she was born and had always lived. Her birth occurred April 15, 1848, shortly after the Winslow farm had been entered from the U. S. government.

The deceased is survived by her son, Justice Winslow with whom she made her home and by a sister, Mrs. John Dunn, residing north of Auburn.

Mrs. Winslow was a member of the Baptist church of Auburn.

The funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, daylight saving time, Rev. Joseph Ferguson of near Auburn, officiating and burial will be made in Woodlawn cemetery.

AUBURN, Dec. 26.—Mrs. Nellie V. Winslow, 66, died at her home two miles east of Auburn late Christmas night. Her death was due to dropsy, from which she had been suffering for several months. Surviving are the husband, Justus; two children, Lester Winslow, at home, and Mrs. Harriett Kellicut, Quincy, Mich.; a brother, Frank Shoemaker of near Auburn; a sister Mrs. Goldie Stringsellow of Goshen and five grandchildren. The body was removed to the Dilgard funeral home in Auburn. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Tuesday at the home. Rev. Joseph Ferguson of near Auburn will officiate and burial will be in Woodlawn cemetery.

OBITUARY.

Elmer H. Winslow, infant son Justus and Nellie Winslow, was b Jan. 27, 1900, and died May 27, 19 aged 4 months.

Elmer was a promisi child, and had not death cut h down, would doubtless have dev oped into bright manhood. Like o fondest hopes often perishing befo any realizations.

This lovely child, thus early torn
From our fond breasts away;
With silent grief is gently borne
To its lonely bed of clay.

I take these little lambs, said He,
And lay them on my breast;
Protection they shall find in Me,
In Me be ever blest.

Nellie V. Shoemaker lived in Waterloo & Auburn, Ind. She lived across from Edith Winslow's grandparents in Auburn and Edith remembers seeing Justus Winslow ride his bike to Auburn to see Nellie & he courted her on his bicycle. She would be at her grandparents house.

FUNERAL FOR JUSTUS WINSLOW SATURDAY

Influenza Claimed the Life of Well Known Farmer, Age 74, who Resided Short Distance Northeast of Auburn

Funeral services for the late Justus A. Winslow, a well known farmer living two and a half miles northeast of Auburn, will be held at the late home Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Winslow passed away at 7:40 o'clock Tuesday evening. Rev. J. W. Ferguson of near Auburn will officiate and burial will be made in Woodlawn cemetery in Auburn.

Mr. Winslow, age 74, contracted a cold six weeks ago and influenza developed, resulting in death. He was bedfast for two weeks. He was born on Sept. 28, 1870, on the old Triplett farm just north of the farm on which he resided at the time of his death. He moved to the present home when he was a child and had lived there all his life.

Mr. Winslow and Nellie Shoemaker were married on April 27, 1899, and she died three years ago on Christmas night.

The survivors include two children, one son, Lester, at home, and one daugher, Mrs. Harriet Kellicut of Quincy, Mich., and seven grandchildren.

The body was taken to the Dilgard funeral home and returned to the late residence Wednesday afternoon.

Chrysler Alone Gives Chrysler Results

The Sedan

How highly the public prizes Chrysler performance, Chrysler riding qualities, Chrysler economy and Chrysler appearance is abundantly indicated by the car's constantly increasing popularity. The simple fact is that the Chrysler Six—and only the Chrysler—delivers results the public is eager to enjoy.

This is perfectly understandable when you really know the car, what it is like and what it does. It is unlike all other cars. With a touring car weight, ready for the road, of 2875 pounds, the Chrysler Six can be driven in comfort at 60 miles and upwards over rutted roads and cobbled streets.

Two advanced features contribute materially to the greater satisfaction enjoyed by Chrysler owners: a new type of spring mounting with rear springs close to the hubs and parallel to the wheels and the Chrysler-Lockheed hydraulic self-equalizing four-wheel brakes.

Owners will tell you what these typical Chrysler features mean in finer riding qualities and greater security of control. But no accurate conception is really possible unless you ride in the car. We are always eager to give you that opportunity.

We are pleased to extend the convenience of time-payments. Ask about Chrysler's attractive plan. Chrysler dealers and superior Chrysler service everywhere.

The above handmade train has been placed on loan at the Garrett Historical Museum for three years by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ware of Auburn.

The train was made in 1888 from memory by Mrs. Ware's grandfather, Justus Adonis Winslow. He used a pocketknife and small tools. Mr. Winslow was born Sept. 26, 1870 in DeKalb County and lived 2½ miles east of Auburn on County Road 35. He was a farmer and machinist. On April 27, 1899, he married Nellie Shoemaker. They had two children, Harriet Winslow Kellicut, Quincy, Mich., and Lester Winslow, deceased. The grandchildren all live in the Tri-State area.

Mr. Winslow also made another train modeled after an engine of the New York Central. Jack Olinger of Auburn was the owner, but it is believed this was sold and may be in the Columbia City area.

Deaths

The following paper clippings were all glued in a 1922 Seed Catalog by Harriet Winslow. This was probably her scrap book as she probably didn't have the money to buy one and this was her way of keeping the paper clippings. Years in the late 1900 teens and 1920's I believe.

Clarence Shoemaker of Chicago, Ill., a brother of George Shoemaker of this city and a former resident of this city, died April 10th in the Englewood hospital in Chicago from cancer of the stomach, according to word just received in Auburn. He was a Spanish War veteran and well known here prior to his removal to Chicago.

He was born in Iowa May 21, 1881, and came to Auburn in 1883 with his parents and resided here for a number of years. He had been married four times and is survived by a wife; a son, Clayton; brother, George, of this city; and sister, Mrs. Lulu Deirsteen of Racine, Wis. The remains were buried in the Oakwood cemetery at Chicago, Ill.

Burial was made in the cemetery at Ossian, the former home of Mrs. Wagner. Mr. Wagner who has been seriously sick with lagrippe was somewhat improved Wednesday although not entirely out of danger.

Miss Anna Blodgett, 51 Years of Age, Passed Away at Garrett Hospital Friday Night

DEATH CAME AS A RELIEF

Deceased was Seriously Burned on Morning of April 11 when She Overturned Lamp in Some Manner

As the result of severe burns sustained on April 11 when the lamp she was carrying overturned in some manner and burned off all of her clothing above the waist, Miss Anna Blodgett of Auburn, died at the Sacred Heart hospital at Garrett at midnight Friday night. Miss Blodgett had prayed for death since she was burned.

During the past four weeks she suffered untold agonies. She was conscious from the time she was found by Ora Winebrenner and wife who lived in the other side of the house in which she resided on North Jackson street.

The accident which ended fatally, took place about 5 o'clock in the morning. She had arisen and was preparing to go to her work at the Murray restaurant. Whether she had one of the epileptic fits to which she was subject or whether she just accidentally dropped the lamp, will never be known, for she did not remember.

Hearing her groans the morning of the accident, Mr. Winebrenner ran to her apartments and found her on her way upstairs with another lamp. Help was summoned and tender care was given her but she was badly burned about the chest, arms, shoulders and neck. Some of this flesh came off while at the hospital.

A small amount of money she had left in trust was used for her care at the hospital and will pay for her burial. She has no immediate relatives. Miss Blodgett was 51 years of age.

The funeral will be held from the Lutheran church Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Rev. S. E. Slater officiating. The remains will be buried in Evergreen cemetery.

Anna Blodgett was daughter of Nancy Blodgett. Nancy was a sister to Cynthia Winslow.

FORMER AUBURN LAD IS A VICTIM OF DIPHTHERIA

Ralph Lee, 18-Year-Old Son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lee of Fort Wayne, Passes Away After a Few Days Illness

Ralph Lee, the eighteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lee of 1336 East Washington boulevard, Fort Wayne, a former resident of this city, died at his home Friday afternoon at 3:30 after a few days' illness from diphtheria.

He was taken sick Tuesday. Wednesday he was unable to be at work and the physician who was summoned diagnosed the case as diphtheria. His condition rapidly became serious and Thursday anti-toxin was administered but he passed away Friday afternoon.

His father, W. R. Lee, moved to Fort Wayne recently and is employed in a shoe repair shop there. Ralph had been working at Lansing, Mich., but a short time ago was laid off and since that time had been employed in Fort Wayne.

The remains were brought to Auburn Saturday afternoon in the W. H. Loy hearse and buried immediately at Woodlawn cemetery, because of the contagious nature of the disease. Short services were held at the home in Fort Wayne at 1 o'clock.

Surviving besides the bereaved parents are two sisters and one brother, Mrs. A. M. Shoop of Fort Wayne, and Helen and Robert Lee at home.

TWO WEDDINGS IN FAMILY OF MR. AND MRS. CHAS WITT

Miss Lazeal Witt Weds Lester Boger of Near Auburn, and Roy Witt Marries Miss Rena Richardson of Chicago

Two weddings in the same family within a few days is a rather uncommon occurrence. However, when Miss Lazeal Witt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Witt of south of Auburn, became the bride of Lester Boger, Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock it made the second wedding in the Witt family since last Wednesday.

Last Wednesday Roy Witt was married in Chicago, Ill., to Miss Rena Richardson and is now at home with his bride.

Rev. J. W. Ferguson married Mr. Boger and Miss Witt at his home on East Ninth street. They were unattended. Later a supper was served to a number of relatives and friends at the home of the groom.

Mr. Boger is the son of William Boger of south of Auburn. He is a young farmer and they will live on a farm near his parents' home, south of Auburn. Miss Witt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Witt and has been at home.

The wedding of Roy Witt to Miss Richardson was the culmination of a romance started while he was in camp, near Chicago, Ill.

Sunday a reception was held at the Witt home for the bride and groom and the prospective bride and groom. Those present were Wilbur Witt and wife, Lester Renecker and wife, Mrs. Mary Witt, Brooks Trenary, Lester Boger, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Witt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Witt and Miss Lazeal Witt.

EMPLOYES AT GARMENT FACTORY ENJOY A PARTY

Elaborate Supper Served Wednesday Evening Followed by Exchange of Christmas Presents

To mark the close of a successful year's work of the Globe Superior corporation in this city, thirty employes of the local factory held a Christmas party and pot luck supper Wednesday evening at the building on the corner of Cedar and Seventh streets.

A long table was erected on which was served an elaborate supper and following a social half hour in which the Yuletide spirit prevailed, the Christmas exchange was held. Miss Mayme Williams, supervisor of the Auburn factory, was presented with a spot light for her automobile.

The Globe Superior corporation of Auburn, is one of seven factories of the concern, located in the states of Indiana, Illinois and California. The Auburn factory employs between fifty and sixty women who operate power machines in the manufacture of children's play suits.

The factory will be closed during the holidays at which time additional machinery will be installed to enable the company to take care of its increasing business.

Those who enjoyed the party last evening were: Mrs. Dave Matheny, Mrs. Don Lawrence, Mrs. Cora Lawson, Mrs. Cora Smith, Mrs. Bessie Reynolds, Mrs. Edith Walter, Mrs. Martha Williams, Mrs. Bertha Plum, Alma Kessler, Gladys Bungard, Alside Ridge, Helen Snively, Gladys Burns, Ella Mitchell, Erma Cole, Helena Ball, Harriet Winslow, Adelia Deckman, Woneta Hook, Edna Hook, Virginia Lawson, Mrs. Gertrude Staggers, Leona Diederick, Alitha Diederick, Minnie Bartles, Carl Smith, Garth Silbery, Kenneth Walter, Mrs. Carl Smith and Miss Neva Beaty.

Between 1922 & 1923

The following were entertained at the home of J. A. Winslow, east of Auburn, during the holidays: Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Young of Chicago, Lionel Kellicut of Quincy, Michigan, Mrs. Fred Hipp, son, Raymond, daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stallbaum and brother, Walter Stallbaum of Toledo, and Joe Livergood of St. Joe. The home was made merry New Year's eve by the young folks who had a watch party.

JOLLY TWENTY PEDRO CLUB

The Jolly Twenty Pedro Club resumed its series of winter meetings Saturday evening ot the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitney. Five tables were at play. High prizes were won by Mrs. Mary Knirk and Herma Straley, with low prizes going to Mrs. Margaret Dorris and Lionel Kellicut.

A short business session was held after the games, followed by a co-operative lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Herma Straley will entertain the club in two weeks.

ENTERTAIN PEDRO CLUB

Allen, Jan. 2—The West Allen pedro club met Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Kellicut. This was the Christmas and birthday party. Gifts were exchanged and a supper served. The evening was spent with cards, Mrs. Floyd Ackley and Guy Luce winning high score.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Young and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stock, of Chicago, spent Sunday night and Monday with their cousin, Mrs. Lionel Kellicut, and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Kellicut visited at the home of Elwyne Strang Sunday.

Christmas Day Also Is Birthday for Quadruplets

A BIG day is Dec. 25 in the Mahaney home in St. John, Canada, for it is not only Christmas Day but also the sixth birthday of four members of the household, Lyda, John, Edna, and Edith Mahaney, Canada's only quadruplets and perhaps the only set of four children ever born on Christmas Day in this era. All of the children, as their picture shows, are in good health and attend school daily.

This is a clipping Harriet(Winslow) Kellicut ha saved. Probably in the 1920's

Christmas

There was no room at the inn!
There was room for the rich and proud,
For the jeweled and laughing crowd,
For her with the paint of sin,
For him with the drunken grin—
But to Mary the keeper said:
"In the stable make your bed."

In the stable Christ was born,
His cradle a manger grim;
'Twas all they would spare for Him
On that first glad Christmas morn.
And we read the tale in scorn,
As we think of that crowded inn,
Where they would not let Him in.

But where does He dwell today
In that crowded heart of yours?
Have you shut Him out of doors,
In a stable room to stay,
In that old inn-keeper's way?
Does He not still hear the shout
Of the throng which keeps Him out?

Does He stay in the stable still,
Out there in cold and gloom,
Or have you made Him a room?
Have you welcomed Him with a will
A place in your life to fill?
Is your heart such a crowded inn
That you will not let Him in?

—Edgar A. Guest.

Spring begins March 20 followed by an early Easter

ANN ARBOR, Mich.— Spring begins this year at 6:34 PM March 20.

"The spring season is said to begin when the sun reaches the vernal equinox, its crossing the equator on its way north," University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh says.

"On this day, the sun will rise and set almost exactly at the east and west point, and the day and night will be said to be of equal lengths."

However, because of atmospheric refraction which bends the sun's rays, the equal day and night come three days before the vernal equinox, Prof. Losh explains.

The full moon on March 24 will be of "special significance, for this is the one that sets Easter," the U-M astronomer notes.

"The date for this important religious festival was set by the Council at Nicaea in 325 AD as the first Sunday after the first full moon that follows the vernal equinox.

"Consequently, the full moon of March 24 puts Easter on March 26, which as we know is an early date."

The earliest date that Easter can come is March 22-- the last time it happened was in 1818 and will not happen again until 2285. The latest possible Easter date is April 25-- it occurred in 1943 and will again in 2038.

Prof. Losh notes that "the full moon of March 24 will go into total lunar eclipse, but, unfortunately, this will not be visible from this part of the world."

During March, she says, two new spring constellations will be coming into view. "The first to look for is Bootes, the giant Bear Driver. This figure is easily recognized by its kitelike outline and the bright orange star Arcturus in the tail of the kite.

"It represents the figure of a mighty man in a running position. In one hand he holds a staff or spear, and in the other which is uplifted he holds the leash of his Hunting Dogs, Canes Venatici, identified by a bright star below the handle of the Big Dipper.

"Arcturus is one of the bright gems in the heavens during the spring and summer evenings. It shines brilliantly above the northeastern horizon, being the first of the stars to break through the twilight."

The other new spring constallation, rising at about the same time as Bootes but farther toward the south, is Virgo, The Virgin. "It is a long constellation, its stars roughly outlining a human figure," Prof. Losh said, "Its brightest star in Spica, easily located by continuing the sweep of the Big Dipper handle through Arcturus on to this star, the only bright one in the area."

As for planets, Prof. Losh says Venus is emerging as an evening planet in the west, Jupiter is riding high in the sky near the meridian at sunset, followed by Mars 30 degrees away. The gibbous moon will pass Jupiter on March 16, Mars on March 19, and Saturn on March 21.

For centuries, when Chinese boys or girls acquired leg or arm weakness, they were fed, powdered "dragon bones" brought in from the Gobi

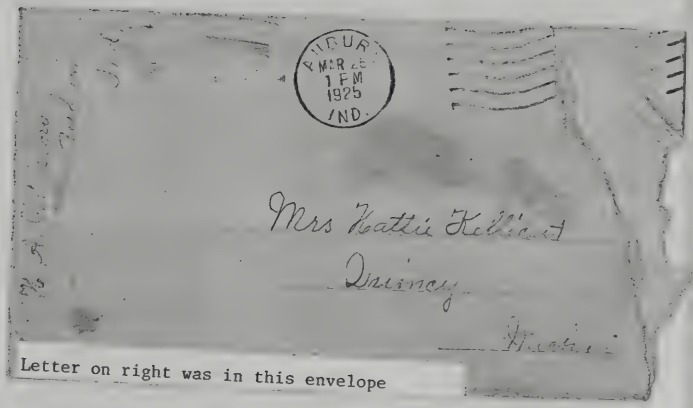
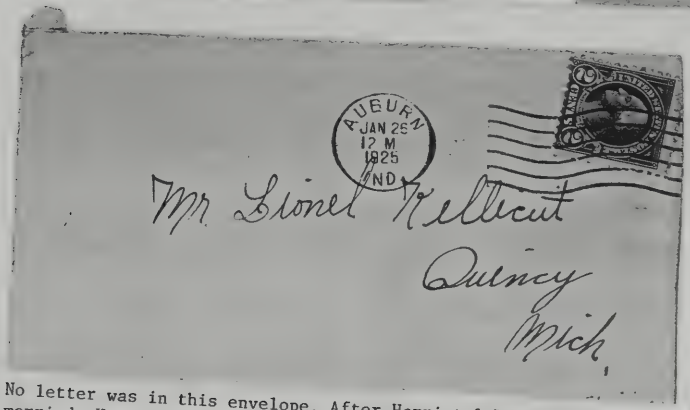
Harriet Winslow-around 1919

This hair was found in one of Lionel Kellicut's old billfolds, we wondered if it was some of his wifes hair (Harriet [Winslow] Kellicut) as she had long hair at one time.

Believe this was written by Henry A. Winslow to his granddaughter Harriet or Hattie (Winslow) Kellicut



Letter on right was in this envelope



No letter was in this envelope. After Harriet & Lionel Kellicut was married, Harriet would go back home and stay to see her parents & she and Lionel would write.

Lionel D. Kellicut-father-Floyd Lester Kellicut (baby) 3 days old-Feb. 2, 1929-in cradle that Delle Kellicut made

STORY ON THIS CRADLE

It is believed that the frame was purchased like it is, by Delle E. Kellicut. He then made the rest of it to be a cradle for his grandchildren. Notice the fasteners on each end in the middle. It was not to be a buggy-but a cradle. He made it for his son and daughter-in-law, Lionel D. & Harriet Kellicut & it was used for their four children, Floyd L. 1929; Leona E. 1930; Nellie A. 1934; & Irene J. 1937. Made in 1928. Information given by Ruth (Kellicut) DuBois 1993. This is being donated by the three daughters. The son passed away at three days old. The cradle will be donated to Sand Creek Museum, Litchfield, Mi. when there is room to place it.

Don't know which baby, probably Floyd 1929 or Leona 1930, don't know which Mildred.

We want to be among your first friends to welcome your arrival in this new and wonderful world and wish you a lifetime of health and happiness.

We have no doubt but that you will have some mighty interesting experiences in the next several years, and we feel sure that your mother will want to make a record of these experiences so you can have them in later years. We have just the thing she will want for that purpose—a record book for your particular requirements, a copy of which we have reserved for you, and which we will be glad to present to your mother if she will call at our studio. We hope she will bring you with her so we can make your personal acquaintance.

Right now we also invite you to come in on your first birthday and we will have something for you.

In Memoriam

Dec. 25, 1941
Nellie Winslow
died

On The Angel of Death entered the portals of the Union Township Home Bureau and called to the Home on ~~High~~ our esteemed member Nellie Winslow.

The Community has lost a good citizen and the neighborhood one of its truest friends and the Club a faithful member.

Whereas - The intimate relation and her faithfulness held to the club, makes it befitting the we record our appreciation of her, Therefore

Be it resolved - That the sudden removal of such a life from our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be realized by all the members.

Resolved - That with sympathy to the husband children, grandchildren and other relatives of the deceased we express our hope that soon to greet us there so we all may meet for ever and ever through Him who doeth "all things well."

Resolved also that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased a copy be spread upon the records of the Club

Weep not that her toils are over,
Weep not that her race is run:
God grant we may rest as calmly,
When our work, like hers is done
And rejoice in the sweet assurance,
He giveth His loved ones sleep.

This letter was written Jan. 1942 by Justus A. Winslow to his daughter Harriet (Winslow) Kellicut, if you read it he said to notice the writing on the address of the envelope, that Harriet's mother (Nellie V. Winslow) had started to write Harriet a letter and she put it under the stand cloth and went and laid down and she never got up again. See previous sheet with envelope and a memoriam of Nellie V. Winslow who passed away Dec. 25, 1941.

So we will get along ok right Edith said she can help to wash dishes if she got it ready so let her try it she did last year and was all right I don't intend to [illegible] the first day I went for me and the boys and me and Bruce can help one of it and see that she gets the meat to fry we have every thing [illegible] every thing is washed and cleaned in good order

Dear Ones. Portuguese Life writing Just got a card from you Sat. a.m. Sorry you all are not so good. try this on your cough- rub peppermint oil on throat & put hot wash cloth on & put extra on- nothing else could I do for me. Ate supper at noon- I may be down one day this week- we are all sleepy I was in hopes you could spend Sun. but that won't do now- glad you are getting better & work down there-

I believe Harriet wrote this card to her mother in 1941 and must be her mother died before she got it mailed. Her mother and her always sent each other a post card everyday.

Cousin Irene and all:-

My promise to write you a nice long letter will have to be deferred till later as too many things have arisen, Lilly at this writing has a bad cold and caugh, I too have gone thru a couple weeks of it, and I have just finished a six weeks course with the Chi. University in "Labor Conditions" with all of that we are living in the most cramped and dirty quarters but housing conditions are out of the picture as there is no such a place.

We have had a most miserable wint winter and are looking for a new place to live this summer, we will not go back to the Lake till things slow down as work is on the boom just now, so if I can get in about three more years and if things get slow we will be the better financially to cope with the conditions there.

Thanks for the stamps you inclose and have you any more stamped and addressed envelopes

You will receive a booklet from N. E. C. New York City some time in the future.

Love to all

U. S. National Society of Honor Students

"DEDICATED TO THE RECOGNITION OF OUTSTANDING STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT"

SUITE 100, BARR BUILDING

WASHINGTON 6, D. C.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Dear Parents:

Your high school principal has informed me that your child is an honor student worthy of recognition in the National Directory of Honor Students in U.S. High Schools.

As parents, you may be justifiably proud of this honor in which you too share since, as our experience has proved, honor students almost invariably are from homes in which parents show real interest in and appreciation of the achievements of their children.

With the increasing emphasis on non-scholastic pursuits in high school education today, a tendency has been developing to overlook the achievements of children attaining honor student standing; and they are seldom given the full recognition which they have earned. Providing such recognition to outstanding students like your child - in the form of an authoritative, permanent and public record - is one of the most important functions of our National Directory.

Since the entire nation-wide Directory is very expensive and really unnecessary for parents whose interest is confined to a single section of the volume, we are preparing a limited number of an attractively bound special section of the Directory for your area in which honor recognition will be accorded your child.

You, personally, I am sure will receive much satisfaction from having this record of achievement and - perhaps even more as time passes and your child matures - it will be one of your valued rememberances and possessions. Even more important, of course, is the well known fact that:

It is recognition of outstanding student achievement which develops the incentive for even further achievement.

We all know only too well how easy it is to "put off action until tomorrow." May I urge that you not delay and find later that the special section of the Directory for your area is no longer available.

Your best assurance of receiving the Directory section honoring your child is to act now....By return mail....Simply fill in the blank spaces on the return envelope....Enclose $1.00.....Attach stamp....And mail to us at once. (If check or money order is used, please make payable to: U.S. National Society of Honor Students.)

Your child has done his or her part in becoming an honor student. Show your pride, appreciation and recognition by bringing the authoritative record of that achievement into your home.

Congratulations to Irene

Very truly yours,

John G. Adams

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Kellicut:

An examination of your 1956 income tax return shows that you failed to compute self-employment tax on your self-employment net earnings of $1,177.96.

The tax rate on the self-employed person for 1956 was 3% and for tax years 1957 through 1959 is 3 3/8% of net earnings of $400.00 or more.

Therefore, the enclosed statement in the amount of $35.34 is in order.

Very truly yours,

To Whom It May Concern

You people who work for the Internal Revenue sure are a wonderful bunch of bookkeepers. You make more mistakes than the people you try to accuse. I have a bill here from the Internal Revenue for thirty five dollars and thirty four cents ($35.34). I have already paid this bill on June 5, 1957, by check. I have the cancelled check which was cashed on June 7, 1957 for the amount of thirty five dollars and eighty one cents ($35.81) which you demanded paid in ten days. So according to your own figures you owe me forty seven cents. Why don't you pay what you owe me. Please take care of this bill at once.

DEAREST AUNT HATTIE AND UNCLE LIONEL,

SATURDAY I RECEIVED A LETTER FROM MOTHER – SHE WROTE THAT UNCLE L. HAD SAID HE WISHED HE COULD AFFORD A COUPLE OF MONTHS IN A WARMER CLIMATE TO SEE IF HE FELT BETTER. NOW SUNNY SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA IS NOT PHOENIX – WHICH IS PROBABLY WHERE HE OUGHT TO BE – BUT I DO HAVE A HUMBLE ABODE WHERE YOU ARE MORE THAN WELCOME IF YOU THINK YOU CAN STAND MY LIVING HABITS.

THIS INVITATION IS NOT MOTHER'S IDEA SHE WAS MERELY SAYING THAT SHE AND UNCLE L. HAD DONE A LOT OF VISITING WHILE ALL OF YOU WERE IN THE UPPER PEN. AND THIS IS ONE OF THE THINGS HE HAD MENTIONED TO HER.

I WOULD REALLY LOVE TO HAVE YOU AND FRITZ AND BEAUBETTE WOULD LOVE TO HAVE YOU TOO.

TRUE I AM BUSY AS I AM AT THE OFFICE EVERY MORNING AT EIGHT THIRTY AND CURRENTLY I AM TRYING TO BE AT THE OFFICE AT SEVEN THIRTY AS I AM PLANNING ON TAKING A DAY OR TWO AT CHRISTMAS TIME TO GO SOMEWHERE – WHERE I DO NOT YET KNOW. THE DAYS I WORK AT THE RESTAURANT I DO NOT GET HOME UNTIL ELEVEN OR TWELVE AT NIGHT. TUESDAY AND THURSDAY NIGHTS ARE FREE NIGHTS FROM THE RESTAURANT SO ON TUESDAY NIGHT I GO GO SCHOOL IN BURBANK – THIS SEMESTER. I HAVE NO IDEA WHAT THE SCHEDULE WILL BE NEXT SEMESTER. THURSDAY NIGHT I USUALLY SAVE FOR STUDY BUT HAVE FOUND IT IS NOT A GOOD NIGHT TO STUDY SO I AM TRYING TO DO THE NECESSARY HOUSEWORK FOR THE WEEK UPON THE THEORY THAT THERE ARE THINGS I CAN DO AT NIGHT TO LEAVE MY DAY TIME HOURS MORE FREE AND ALSO THAT IT IS EASIER TO STUDY IN THE MORNINGS ON SATURDAY AND SUNDAY WHEN I AM FRESH RATHER THAN TRY TO DO IT AT NIGHT AFTER A DAY OF WORK. SATURDAY AND SUNDAY I DO NOT WORK AT THE OFFICE BUT I HAVE A STANDING APPOINTMENT AT THE HAIR DRESSER EVERY SATURDAY AT EIGHT SO I LEAVE THE HOUSE AT SEVEN FIFTEEN AND USUALLY TRY TO DO ANY ERRANDS I CAN'T GET DONE THROUGH THE WEEK ON MY LUNCH HOURS AND EXTRA SHOPPING THEN IT IS HOME TO STUDY, CLEAN HOUSE OR WHATEVER IS MOST IMPORTANT IN THE ORDER OF THE DAY. SUNDAY I SAVE AS LAZY DAY PREFERRING TO WORK IN THE YARD A LITTLE, READ THE SUNDAY PAPER ETC. AND THEN OFF TO THE RESTAURANT AT THREE IN THE AFTEROON.

NOW YOU HAVE THE PICTURE AND I REPEAT IF YOU THINK YOU CAN STAND IT – COME ON OUT AND TRY THE WEATHER IN SUNNY SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA – AGAIN, WE'D LOVE TO HAVE YOU AND REGARDLESS OF HOW HUMBLE MY PLACE IS I AM SURE IT IS NOT TOO UNCOMFORTABLE.

LET ME HEAR FROM YOU SOON.

AS FOR MEALS, I NEVER EAT AT HOME EXCEPT SOMETIMES IN THE MORNING (I ALWAYS HAVE COFFEE) SO YOU WOULD BE ON YOUR OWN FOR COOKING BUT THE REFRIG. IS LARGE AND ONCE A WEEK TO THE GROCERY STORE IS USUALLY ENOUGH AND THE MARKETS ARE NOT FAR AWAY.

I SAVE THE LAUNDRY FOR ONCE A WEEK AT A 'DO-IT-YOURSELF LAUNDRY' NOT FAR AWAY – EVERYTHING IS VERY CONVENIENT.

Our Tippie-Kellicut Christmas Dec. 25, 1970

AN OVERFLOW crowd of officials, their wives, husbands and other guests turned out at Mack's Airport Inn here Thursday evening for the annual dinner of the Branch County Township Officers association. It was necessary to use two rooms to accommodate the larger number of those assembling for the dinner and to hear a program featuring a talk by State Rep. Harry A. DeMuso, of Battle Creek, who discussed "What Lies Ahead For The Townships."

LIONEL D. KELLICUT _ HARRIET CYNTHIA WINSLOW KELLICUT

19 YEARS OLD 23 YEARS OLD

The folks met at the Hillsdale County Fair, Hillsdale, Michigan, in 1921. Luther Tracy and Elma Trenary introduced them. Luther is a cousin of daddys' and Elma was a girl friend of mothers'. Mother lived on a farm near Auburn, Indiana. Elma had moved to Quincy, Michigan, from the Auburn area and mom come on the train to visit Elma. Luther and Elma were going together and took mom along with them to the fair and that is how it all got started.

Dads transportation was horse and buggy so you didn't travel so far in those days.

September of 1922, daddy sent mom a letter and rode to Auburn, Indiana with Luther and Elma, to see mom. Luther had a Model T that they went in. This was their first date.

Daddy tells of some of the trips he made to Auburn which is fifty two miles. One trip that stands out in his mind, he had three flat tires at one time, one way and it took three hours to drive it one way. Main street in Quincy was paved and Angola, Indiana had a brick street through town, all the rest of the way was dirt roads.

U. S. 12 was graded in 1919, but he is not sure when it was paved. The work was all done by convicts and the supplies were hauled in by train when it was paved.

They were married on December 25, 1924, at the home of the bride, near Auburn, Indiana. Moms' parents were Justice Adonis and Nellie Venzuela Shoemaker Winslow. The Winslows were English and the Shoemakers were German. Daddy's parents were Dell Eugene and Nettie Marie Buckelew Kellicut. The Kellicuts were Irish and English and the Buckelews were French and German. They were married by Rev. Joe Ferguson. Lester Winslow, brother of mom, and Mabel Sacket, friend of Lesters' were their attendants. The only people there were both sets of parents, Lillie and Frank Young, cousins of mom and mom's grandparents, Henry A. & Cynthia Winslow Daddy's parents gave them five $10.00 gold pieces, mom's parents gave them a rocking chair, which they still have, and $100.00. Lillie and Frank gave them a sugar and creamer set out of cut glass which they still have. Daddy didn't have a car but his parents had a 1917 Ford so they drove to Auburn in that and it took three hours.

They were married in the evening and they were going to go to a dance after they got married and the car wouldn't start so they all stayed home and talked and went to bed. (It was 20° below 0° no wonder the car wouldn't start). They went to their home the next day at 662 Squires Road, Butler Township, Branch County, Quincy, Michigan and started housekeeping. They lived with daddy's parents.

They have always had mail delivery, at one time it was out of Allen.

Daddy was milking eight cows when they got married.

Daddy's parents moved to Quincy, Michigan in March 1925 and daddy rented the farm.

March 1925 they bought their first car, a Model T Ford with side curtains and paid $200.00 for it. It took them along time to pay for it, they borrowed money from the bank to get it. They got their first Chevrolet in 1926 and it was a 1924. They purchased their first tractor in 1926 and it was a Ford.

January 30, 1929 brought their first child, a son, Floyd Lester. Sorrow struck them three days later when he passed away. He is buried in Auburn, Indiana.

In January of 1930 the folks bought their farm from daddy's parents for $3200.00 which was 80 acres.

January 17, 1930, daddy's mom, Nettie Buckelew Kellicut passed away.

Their first daughter arrived on August 6, 1930 and she was named Leona Eunice.

Daddy's father, Dell Eugene passed away April 23, 1932.

Daddy started hauling milk on May 13, 1934 for the farmers. The price of milk was $1.05 a hundred. He hauled to Homer, Michigan for five years. In 1939 he started hauling to Hillsdale, Michigan and in 1954 he hauled to Coldwater, Michigan as the plant closed in Hillsdale. His first truck was an open box and some days the milk would freeze in the winter.

October 22, 1934 brought another joy to them, a daughter, Nellie Arlene. Daddy had to go to town for a load of coal so she wouldn't freeze. He says it was worth it.

Daddy recalls the winter of 1935 when a bad blizzard hit on Christmas Day. They had 30 days that it was below zero. The winter of 1936 the first thaw was February 20th. The men would shovel the road out and it would blow back in. Shoveling was the only way out. The winters were bad to haul milk as some days in bad places the men would shovel the length of the truck and move it and shovel again. The spring mud wasn't too much fun either.

The lights were turned on in 1936. This was our first electricity we had. Daddy got his first milking machine in 1937, one you pulled along behind the cows. In 1938 he got his first DeLaValve and had that for 18 years then started using Surge and they still use Surge. They put the pipeline in, in 1984.

November 2, 1937, brought another joy, Irene Janice. Guess that was enough joy, we have never heard of anymore.

In 1937 daddy got his F-12 tractor, we kids remember that one. Had to crank it and wheels were steel with lugs.

1939 they made their first deer hunting trip. Uncle Lester and the folks went to Atlanta. They would hear the cyotes howl at night. They had many fine hunting trips to Atlanta thru 1948. In 1949 they went to St. Ignace. Some of their hunting buddies were Uncle Frank Shoemaker, Uncle Lester Winslow, Guy Myers, Luther and Ross Tracy, Chuck Fetch, Darwin Buckhold, Uncle Elwyn and Aunt Jo Strang, Claude Cronk, C. J. Cronk, Leona and Charles Happy and Charles Lionel and Dale went too.

In the fall of 1949 the folks and Claude and Loa Cronk purchased 40 acres in the upper peninsula and built the "Twin Cabins" in 1950, then they went there to hunt thru 1958 when daddy had a heart attack, the summer of 1959 and that ended the deer hunting trips.

Some of the deer stories they do tell, Guy would always get lost. Mom always had to do the cooking, Aunt Jo was along sometimes too when she wasn't baby sitting with us three kids, and she would help cook. For all that gang they would have a huge pot of coffee on all day. Daddy always tells he took left over pan cakes from breakfast for his dinner so he wouldn't miss that buck that would go through if he went in to eat. Sometimes they had hot dog roasts outside and they would have to wear their gloves to keep their hands clean to eat the black burned dogs. That story goes along when the Robert Hoffs' and J. B. and Alice Iles went hunting too. Mom tells about Hap keeping fire at cabin during hunting season. Charles Lionel was just a wee little lad and Hap would have wood piled up beside the stove and it would get so hot they had to open windows. Aunt Jo would bring sand in cabin for Charles L. to play in on the floor, then she would have to clean it up.

The folks got their first refrigerator and electric stove and put in the bathroom in early 1940's. That was quit a step in progress.

Leona would go visit her Grandma and Grandpa Winslow and Grandma would tell her to help her feed the chickens or something and she would tell Grandma, "I am on vacation" that would tickle Grandma, Leona was only four or so.
Mom's mother, Nellie Venzuela, passed away on December 25, 1941.

We can remember the Sundays we used to go see Grandma and Grandpa and play with the train that Grandpa had built and get in his shop and sit high on his stools and get all his tools out of wack for him.

Moms father, Justice Adonis passed away on December 19, 1944.

Mom always had hired men to cook and wash for over all these years plus her family and oh-h-h those hungry men at thrashing time. Carl Kochendorfer and Carleton Strang were two of the men who had the thrashing machines and would come every year. That was a big day, we kids would have to get the wash tubs out in the yard and fill half full of water and have bars of soap all around them plus lots of towels. This is where all the men would wash before eating dinner. Wedidn't have a hose to fill them with either.

All the big washings mother would do, especially in the summer we would have more it seemed, sometimes we would have two bushel baskets full of dampened rolled clothes to iron.

Mom used to take Leona to Coldwater for guitar lessons and Nellie would go to Allen for piano lessons and when Irene got older she had an Alto horn in band.

We used to go to the Cronk School house for Community meetings and suppers and would have halloween parties too, oh what fun. We would park down the road and walk up so people wouldn't see us in the car, that was spookie too. Mom had a halloween party at home one time and we had an old iron kettle over an imitation fire and Norma Smith was stirring up fortunes for every one. We had corn stalks in the house too and we put wax on a string and would pull it through a small hole in a tin can and make weird noises.

Then there was the big church suppers mom tells about standing there cooking over the old cook stove, (cook stove with wood in it) and hot it would get. The basement of the South Litchfield Baptist Church was all one room at that time. Well a wall seperated the kitchen from the rest of the basement. Today it is class rooms and a nice remodeledkitchen which was done in 1984.

The Christmas Programs at country school and church and the picnics on the last day of school are all fond memories which we shall always have merely because our parents made it possible for us.

We had the old cook stove at home too with the reservoir in it. That was where we got our hot water. When we had home made ice cream (never had any store boughten) we would get behind the cook stove or the stove in the dinning room to eat it. Had to get behind the stove to keep warm. Usually Ring, our Collie dog would be with us. Ice cream was made in the winter months because we had the ice from the tank to use.

Oh, those Saturday night baths, when we would have our weekly bath in the kitchen in the bath tubs, the round ones had more room in them. After we got power, we had an electric heater we would heat the water in the tub with.

We used to raise alot of potatoes too. Enough to last us forever it seemed like, when we kids had to pick them up. We had a special potato bin in the basement for the taters. Daddy would load them on the stone boat in the wooden bushel crates and the horse would pull them to the house and then we had special wooden shoot with holes in to dump the potatoes in, to go into the basement. The holes in base of shoot was to let the dirt thru so we wouldn't have so much dirt in the bin. Once in a while we took turns riding the horse, we were driving you see. I wonder how many bushels of potatoes mom has pared.

For years it seemed, our lawn mower was sheep and we had to help mom go all over the yard and clean up after the sheep. We can't forget all our pets, we had some of the best pets. Some of the horses were named Prince, Toppsie, and Bess. Bill was our pet sheep, the dogs killed her when stray dogs were running the country. Pet cows were Loann, Sketter, Diamond, Blossom and Sadie. We had a cat named Happy. Our dogs have been Dustie, Ring, Tricksie and two Tippies. Daddy always talks about King, he was before our time.

Daddy was always hauling milk everyday, so that met he was never home on Sunday morning to attend church and Sunday School with us, but he would go to the programs at night. Christmas Day was always long or anyway the forenoon was, we always had to wait for daddy to come home from the route before we could have our Christmas. We had dolls under the tree every year and our Christmas trees always come from up north. The folks would always stop at Bill and Beatrice Brown near Vanderbilt and get a tree on their way home from hunting.

Mom was a 4-H leader in her spare time too, that met all the neighborhood kids coming in to learn to sew, this was from around 1944 to 1955 at which time she decided to give it up. I guess all of us kids run the sewing machine needle through a finger whild learning to sew. Our poor parents. All those fun fair weeks when we took our sheep and cattle and hogs. Mom prepaired fried chicken for our picnic dinners at the fair.

Mom always had a big garden so there was lots of canning to do and strawberries to pick. The folks would tell about when they would go after huckleberries in swamps and fall in big holes and spill their berries. Even might see a snake or two in the bushes.

1947 the folks took us kids to Yellowstone National Park. A trip we still talk about.

1947 was the last year to thrash and daddy bought his first combine in 1948 which was a Case pull type. This year they bought the 80 acres across the road, from Tom Hill for $7500.00

Daddy purchased his first bailer in 1948 so that ended all the loose hay making and finding those snakes on the wagons that would come up the hay loader with the hay. Daddy also got his first rubber tired tractor in 1948, his International H and his first corn picker.

Leona graduated from Quincy High School in 1948 and that fall she went on to Michigan State College to a Short Course and that is where she met her future husband, Charles Raymond Happy.

1949 the folks took us all to California, we went up across northern Michigan and took highway US 2 clear across the U S to the west coast and down the coast thru the Red Woods, and came home the southern route through New Mexico. We recall staying in Gallop, New Mexico as we heard the drums all night from the Indians. We visited Aunt Myrta Benedict, daddys aunt, and Elsie and Philip Little, a neice and husband of dads. We also visited with a sister of Alice Iles, Olive. This year another modern convenience was added to our home, a furnace. That got rid of the heating stove in the dinning room, but we still had the coal bin in the basement. The folks celebrated their 25th Wedding Anniversary, December 25, 1949 and us kids got them a set of sterling silver silverware.

Leona Eunice was married to Charles Raymond Happy on December 25, 1950, at the South Litchfield Baptist Church and the reception was at our home. The folks bought them a new electric stove. Uncle Lester brought the old dinner bell in the kitchen and rang it and about broke everyones ear drums.

On January 22, 1952, the folks first grandchild was born, Charles Lionel Happy.

Nellie graduated from Quincy High School in 1952 and worked at the high school principals office starting the fall of 1952, and worked there for three and ½ years.

A lot of years are passing, milking more cows, making hay, planting more corn. Farming has really changed. Daddy has a rubber tired rake now, even a drill with rubber tires on, a new drag and a disk.

The second grandchild, Dale Eugene was born March 21, 1955.

Irene graduated from Quincy High School in 1955 and she went on to South Bend College of Commerce for a year. September 1956 she went to work at Federal Mogul in Coldwater as a steno-clerk and worked through May 1969.

Most of the folks vacations are spent up to the Twin Cabins now. They would try and make it up for bass season which usually opened in June and a couple times during the summer and back up in the fall for patrich season and deer season. Always had to get the corn done before deer hunting.

Their third grandson was born July 19, 1957, Gale Eric Happy.

Nellie married C. J. Cronk on June 15, 1958, at the South Litchfield Baptist Church and had a lawn reception at home. Mom made their cake but she didn't decorate it. The folks gave them a refrigerator and three gilts for their wedding gift.

January, 1959, Irene took the folks to Florida. That was their first trip to Florida in the winter time and they went many times after.

1959 Daddy had a heart attack and was sick all summer. Doc. Kline was his doctor. Uncle Lester come up alot on week-ends and helped. We had our troubles getting the crops in, plowing done and someone to do the milking all the time. Hap was always there to help in the hay and work too.

In March, 1960, C. J. took over the farming operation.

The grandchildren are growing and coming up for visits with the folks and going to the cabin with them.

July 7, 1960, brought the fourth grand child, Keith Alan Happy.

March 26, 1961, Irene married Dwight Lee Olney at the South Litchfield Baptist Church and the reception was held at the church. The folks gave them a new refrigerator.

Dennis Dean Happy, the fifth and last grandchild was born on April 13, 1962.

The folks belonged to a pedro club for years and had card parties every two weeks on Saturday night at each others homes during the winters. They lost some of the members in the 1960's and the parties ceased.

1968, Squires Road was paved, the folks say so often, if our folks ever knew this they just wouldn't believe it, plus all the other modern conveniences.

February 28, 1970, the folks had a trip of their life when they left out of Detroit by air, flew into New York City, then to Copenhagen, Denmark, over the Swiss Alps to Geneva, Switzerland, then into Rome, Italy. Some of the sights they viewed in Rome was St. Peter's Square, St. Peter's Basilica, the Mose, The Cloister, St. Paul's Basilica, The Colosseum, The Capitol, Alter of Nations, Arc of Costantine, People's Square, old wall that had been pitted with bullets and the Pope's summer home outside of Rome.

Then into Israel and saw Old Jerusalem, Kennedy Memorial, farm houses, city of Hebro, olive trees on terraces, place of Mary's mothers birth (a church in Bethlehem), Church of Nativity (where Christ was born), entrance to the manager, the exterior and interior of where Christ was buried, Garden Tomb, herds of Camels, goats and sheep; they stayed in the town of Ber Sheba, visted the Dead Sea, Damascus Gate in Old Jerusalem, saw in Old Jerusalem the east gate where Christ first entered on burro, the mountain where Pike was lost, a flour mill, Jordon River & Sea of Galilee. Then on to Athens Greece, saw ruins near the Medeterian Sea, on to Beirut and they could hear the guns up in the mountains where they were having fighting. They were in Lebanon and back to Switzerland and home on March 14, 1970.

1973 Irene and Dwight took the folks to Texas, Mexico and Florida.

1974 their second grandchild graduated from high school, Dale Eugene Happy.

1974 Irene and Dwight and the folks went to Hawaii on a two week tour. This year also brought their 50th anniversary and we had a party for them in the Community Room of the First National Bank, Quincy. Mom baked their anniversary cake and decorated it.

1975 Irene and Dwight and the folks went on a two week tour to Mexico City and Acapulco. This was really different to see how poor the people are so close to home.

1975 their third grandson graduated from high school, Gale Eric Happy.

1975 their first grandson was married on September 12, to Janine L. Wonders.

December 25, 1975, Leona and Hap celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary and mom made the cakes for the wedding and the anniversary party.

March, 1977, Irene and Dwight and the folks went to Calif. and visited Lake Havasu, Ariz.; Donilda Stallbaum in Covina, Calif.; Elsie Little in Culver City, Calif.; Hoover Dam; Grand Canyon and home.

May 1, 1977, their first great-grandchild, Matthew Charles Happy was born to Charles L. and Janine Happy.

Daddy and C. J. got their first corn sheller and put up bins to store the corn in, 1978.

Keith Alan Happy, the fourth grandson, graduated from high school in 1978.

Nov. 14, 1978, Kristina Lynn, the second great-grandchild was born to Charles L. and Janine Happy.

December 21, 1978, daddy had an artificial hip joint put in at Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota.

The third great-grandchild was born May 11, 1981, Nathan Clyde, to Charles and Janine Happy.

The fifth grandchild graduated from high school in 1981, Dennis Dean Happy.

The fourth grandchild was married July 17, 1981, Keith Alan to Becky (Eby) and mom baked all the wedding cake and her and Nellie decorated it. It served 500 people.

Mom was 80 years old on December 25, 1981 and we had a family surprise birthday dinner for her and her brothers three children were all there and their families. Leona and Hap had flowers sent to them from Hawaii for their anniversary and moms birthday.

The second grandchild was married August 28, 1982, Dale Eugene Happy to Connie Miller.

1983 brought Nellie and C. J.'s 25th wedding anniversary and we had a party for them and mom baked all of their anniversary cake and Nellie and mom decorated it.

1983 the Mackinaw Bridge was 25 years old and the folks crossed it many times that summer.

March 18, 1984 their fourth great-grandchild Elizabeth Emma was born to Charles and Janine Happy.

March 23, 1984 their fifth great-grandchild was born, Jennifer Lynn to Dale and Connie Happy.

The folks have had 24 Chevrolet cars and six Oldsmobils. They paid $200.00 for their first car in 1925 and paid $10,100.00 for their last and present car in 1982.

Here we are up to 1984. How progress has made history in 60 years. The folks have said many times "if our parents could only see this". They have gotten electricity, been through depressions when the banks all closed and two World Wars, been up in our great airplanes we have today and have been across the USA on our new modern highways and freeways. They have seen cook stoves change to new modern electric stoves, kitchen utensils change from the butter bowl, the copper kettles, butter churns, and the cream seperators for the milk. Our new space age we have, who ever thought of walking on the moon 60 years ago.

They have requested no party, which is very much against our wishes, but 60 years for our lovely parents, we love you both!

"MERRY CHRISTMAS 1985 TO ALL"

GREETINGS from our house to your house whether it be near or far.

I will try and make this a most interesting letter, we get so many nice letters which we enjoy so much.

Just a year ago I (mattie) wasn't feeling up to par and the Dr. diagnosed my illness as heart trouble, so I spent most of three months going to the Dr. and trying to get regulated on my medicine, with his help I am most improved. Dad has been pretty good, so we both try to keep going.

We had a very early spring so dad was in the field doing most of the plowing. The girls and I got our garden in and I took care of all my produce. I did some of the picking, but they usually picked it then I cut beans and cut their beans too, podded peas and did all my canning. The girls kept the garden tilled. Didn't raise any pop corn though. Even got sauerkraut made. Dad likes it so well. I manage to get our meals on the table and keep cookies in the cookie jar and do baking and keep the house in order. I also made apple and pear butter this fall and jams and jellies with fruit when it was in season.

Dad and Irene went up to cabin mushrooming in May and only got 87 I guess it was. They were a little early for them. We had such an early spring, they thought maybe it would be up there but it wasn't. I didn't go with them, I get very tired and they were only staying one day. We did go to our cabin in July for a week and again in September. Dad tried to catch a walleye keeper but still got the short ones. The kids got a couple keepers so we had some walleye from our lake. Dad caught some nice bass keepers though.

Dad keeps the yard done and operates the combine during grain season and the sheller during corn harvest. Got so much rain this fall the corn still isn't done. Not much left though.

We are together with most of our family at different times of the year. Nellie and C. J. had Easter, Irene and Dwight had Mothers Day, Nell's had Father's Day, Leona and Hap had Thanksgiving and I am having Christmas. Seems someone always has to work or something so always someone missing. Dad was 60 the 13th of November and Irene and Dwight had a birthday dinner for him, 30 of us there, we were all there but one grandson who had to work. His three sisters and one brother-in-law were there too.

We will celebrate our 61st wedding anniversary this Christmas Day and our oldest daughter and husbands 35th wedding anniversary and my birthday too. So we have alot to be thankful for. We have six great grandchildren now, four girls and two boys. The youngest was just baptized and we attended her dinner, was too early to attend the services so far away.

I have been making craft items out of plastic canvas, got tired of crocheting so much.

Oh yes, dad's birthday card from Nell & C. J. was a big sign in front that read "TOOT YOUR HORN" L. D.'S 80th BIRTHDAY.

Hope this finds all of you well and you have been blessed with many good things this past year. Do write us a note in your card and be sure and stop in if you are near.

CARD OF THANKS...

Words cannot express our thanks to our friends, neighbors and relatives, for the phone calls, prayers, visits, flowers and cards. The food brought to our homes, and the most appreciated dinner at the South Litchfield Baptist Church. A thank you to the nursing staff and doctors of Albion Community Hospital, George White Funeral Home for their services, the pallbearers, and Pastor Victor Kaleta for his prayers and visits.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters
He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Harriet Kellicut was a resident of this area for 63 years. She was a 4-H Leader for the "Sturdy Stitches Club" from 1944 to 1955, a member of the Friendly Farmer's Farm Bureau, and a former member of the Hillsdale County Extension Club. She was a member of the South Litchfield Baptist Church. On December 25, 1924, she married Lionel D. Kellicut, and he survives. She is also survived by 3 daughters and sons-in-law, Charles & Leona Happy of Maybee, C.J. & Nellie Cronk of Litchfield and Dwight & Irene Olney of Quincy; 5 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

Everyone is invited to join the family at the South Litchfield Baptist Church following the committal service at the cemetery.

CARD OF APPRECIATION

The family of L.D. Kellicut wish to acknowledge all the wonderful people who so graciously showed their heartfelt sympathy and kind thoughts to us by sending a card, a floral offering, a monetary gift, a library book, a prayer, a telephone call, attending visitation and the services, a gift of stamps and the many dishes of food brought to our homes.

We also wish to mention Pastor Vic Kaleta and wife Carol for the visits to our home, for the arrangement of the family dinner after the committal service and all who helped serve the dinner and furnish the food; the beautiful service Pastor prepared for the funeral services; also to our pallbearers and those who served as honorary pallbearers.

As our broken hearts find lasting peace among the many memories we cherish and hope within the promise of tomorrow, we say "THANK YOU".

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Kellicut:

I have learned that December twenty-fifth is a special day in your lives beyond the meaning of Christmas.

Please accept my personal congratulations as you celebrate not only your fifty-seventh wedding anniversary, but also your eightieth birthday, Mrs. Kellicut, both on Christmas Day. To share the same date observed world-wide must give the holiday season a very special significance to you.

Birthdays and anniversaries have special, personal meanings for each of us, and I am sure these days which hold many memories for you, will be bringing warm wishes from family and friends that will be cherished in the years ahead.

Kind personal regards and best wishes.

Sincerely,

William G. Milliken

to
Mr. Charles Raymond Happy on Monday, December the twenty fifth nineteen hundred and fifty
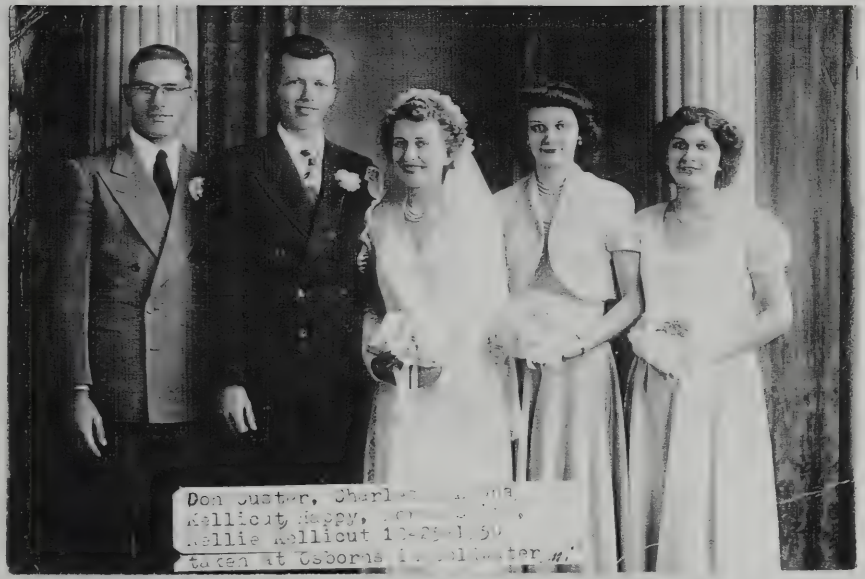
South Litchfield, Michigan



Before the wedding-Leona Kellicut-Charles R. Happy & his mother Matilda Happy-12-25-1950

HOLIDAY BRIDE — The white lace and taffeta wedding gown worn by Leona Kellicut when she became the bride of Charles R. Happy was made by the bride. With it she wore a net veil edged with lace and carried a circle bouquet of carnations and roses. The bouquet was carried over a white Bible.

Leona Kellicut Married On Parents' Anniversary

LITCHFIELD — A handkerchief more than 100-years-old was carried by Leona E. Kellicut of Quincy when she exchanged wedding vows Christmas day with Charles R. Happy of Monroe.

The wedding day also marked the 26th anniversary of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Kellicut of Quincy, and what would have been the anniversary of the bride's great grandmother's wedding.

Attended By Two

Mrs. R. O. Thompson performed the double-ring ceremony at the South Litchfield Baptist church amidst a setting of yellow bebe mums. Pines were placed in each church window.

The bride made her own wedding dress which was styled of white taffeta with a lace bodice and flounce over the skirt. She carried a bouquet of white carnations encircled by roses. This was carried on a White Bible. Her net veil, edged in lace, was attached to a crown of carnations.

Her attendants were Miss Norma May Smith of Coldwater and Nellie A. Kellicut, her sister. Miss Smith wore a a yellow taffeta gown made with a white lace jacket. She carried aqua carnations encircled by white carnations. Miss Kellicut wore a pink taffeta gown with white ruffles and carried pink carnations encircled by white carnations.

The bridegroom's best man was Don Cluster of Benton Harbor.

Before the wedding processional started, Mrs. Guy Young of Quincy played "Because" and "Forever and Ever."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's sister, Nellie, cut the wedding cake which was served by another sister, Irene, and Iva Thompson and Nancy Woodliff. Guests were present from Jackson, Battle Creek, Litchfield, Auburn, Ind., Monroe, Benton Harbor Coldwater and Hillsdale.

To Live Near Monroe

The couple left the reception for a 10-day honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and Washington, D. C. For traveling, Mrs. Happy wore a white corduroy suit with green accessories. They will be at home on a farm near Monroe after their trip.

Mrs. Happy was graduated from Quincy High School in 1948- was active in 4-H club work and in the South Litchfield church. Her husband, son of Mrs. Matilda Happy and the late George Happy of Monroe, was graduated from Monroe High School in 1946 and is a farmer. Both have taken courses in agriculture at Michigan State College.

THE STORY ON THE ABOVE CRADLE

It is believed that the frame was purchased like it is, by Delle E. Kellicut. Then he made the rest of it to be a cradle for his grandchildren, that is why it has the fasteners on each end in the middle. It was not to be a buggy but a cradle. He made it for his son and daughter-in-law, Lionel D. & Harriet Kellicut and it was used for their four children, Floyd L., Leona E., Nellie A., & Irene J. Kellicut. Made in 1929 for the cradle. The above information given by Ruth (Kellicut) DuBois 1993.

CLASS SONG

HOW FAST TIME PASSES
(Tune: "Where Have All The Flowers Gone?")

Looking back at things we've done,
Long time passing;
Looking back at the course we've run,
Long time ago;
Looking back at the setting sun
That will never rise again,
And we will miss it so--
And we will miss it so.

Where have all the good times gone,
How fast time passes;
Where have all the memories gone,
Long time ago;
Where have all the old friends gone
Gone to new worlds everyone--
Each to find his own way,
Each to find his own way.

Army bunks or college dorms
May be your future
Factories or newly weds
Could this be you?
A new day is dawning new Lighting new horizons
Which one will be your own--
Which one will be your own?

Charles R. Happy

Charles R. (Hap) Happy, 60, of 7469 Stadler Road, Maybee, Mich., died of a pulmonary embolism Saturday morning, Oct. 15, 1988, in the Mercy Memorial Hospital in Monroe.

He was born to George and Matilda (Kull) Happy on June 3, 1928 in Maybee and his mother survives.

Mr. Happy attended Maybee public schools and graduated in 1946 from Monroe High School. In 1949 he graduated from Michigan State University, East Lansing.

He married Leona Kellicut on Dec. 25, 1950 in the South Litchfield Baptist Church, Litchfield.

He was a member and past board member of the Maybee Congregational Church; a member of the Monroe County Farm Bureau, and had been a 4-H leader for the Farm Trotters group for 25 years. He had been an employee of Tecumseh Products for 25 years.

Survivors include his wife, and his mother, both of Maybee; five sons, Charles L. of Litchfield, Keith of Maybee, Dale of Monroe, and Gale and Dennis, both at home; a sister, Mrs. Robert (Lucille) Barnsdale of Ann Arbor; and six grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his father and a sister, Ivah Colf.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Oct. 18, 1988 in the Maybee Congregational Church with the Rev. Don A. Brown officiating and burial was in North Side Cemetery, Maybee.

The Liedel Funeral Home, of Maybee, was in charge of arrangements.

County 4-H program salutes three longtime leaders

By DEAN COUSINO
Evening News staff writer

Three longtime community leaders who have helped establish the Monroe County 4-H program as one of the most successful in the state have been honored as part of the 100th anniversary celebration.

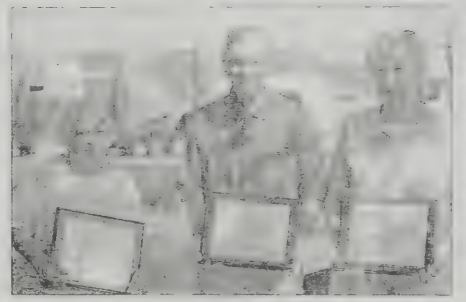
Otto Schmidt, Marie Siebarth and Leona Happy were feted by the 4-H program during the annual awards program Wednesday at the Monroe County Fair. Making the presentations at the New Odyssey tent were Kyle Happy and Renee Hancz, the 2001 prince and princess, respectively.

Mr. Schmidt, 91, is the oldest county 4-H member. The Frenchtown Township resident joined the program as a youngster in 1922, five years after the first club was established in Monroe. He can recall his first years in 1-H and the River Raisin 4-H Club that he and his wife, the former Leona Fix, founded to give their own children the same opportunity to learn as they did.

Club Week, demonstrations and tractor safety are just a few of the memories he shared with local 4-H leaders recently. In the fair kickoff parade Sunday, he drove a tractor that he once owned and had restored.

"He has not only shared his 4-H memories, but has cared enough to make 4-H memories for those whom he has touched," Judy See, county 4-H youth agent, said.

Mrs. Siebarth, 88, is the oldest county 4-H leader still working with area youths and the longest-serving superintendent. In 4-H, the volunteer leader is the one who shapes the program and makes a difference in the lives of children, Mrs. See said.



Marie Siebarth, Otto Schmidt and Leona Happy were honored this week at the fair for their years of volunteer service as leaders in the Monroe County 4-H youth program.

"Marie has many claims to fame throughout her career, but perhaps her biggest contribution is that of raising a

MONROE — A former resident of Branch County recently received Monroe County's Longest Tenured Leader Award for 45 years of service to 4-H.

Leona (Kellicut) Happy began her 4-H career in Hillsdale County, starting in 1940 in sewing, dairy and other projects. She won numerous first place ribbons and in 1949 won with her sewing and went on to the state sewing competition.

She was a leader in Hillsdale County for five years, married in 1950, moved to Monroe and was out of 4-H until her oldest son reached 4-H age. At that time, she and her husband, Charles, went into the leadership and have been involved ever since.

Among the other honors she has garnered are the Meritorious Service to 4-H award to her and husband in 1983 and the Leadership Award in 1994.

Farmer's daughters

Dale Happy's brother, Keith, runs the combine at the Happy farm during harvest. The new combine, purchased a year ago, has an enclosed glass dome equipped with a stereo and air conditioning. "My father would have enjoyed driving a combine like this one," said Mr. Happy. "Back in his days, he had to sit out in the sun and would be covered with dust. This machine makes farming easier."

Life on Happy farm offers glimpse of what might have been ■ Photographer's journey from native Thailand to father's family farm in Wisconsin stopped short in Hawaii. But at a Maybee farm this year, she found the life she never lived.

For Jennifer and Sarah Happy, each day on the family farm is hectic but predictable.

It's getting up early, going to school, heading off to activities such as 4-H and basketball, and coming home to do chores on the family's 700-acre farm.

Their family has been farming in Monroe County for three generations. For them, this is life. It is the way it always has been. They know they belong.

The Happy farm in Maybee came into being in 1899 when Charles Happy bought a farm and built the house where Jennifer and Sarah's father, Dale, was born. It's less than a mile from their present house and just 11 miles from the Dundee farm where their mother, Connie, grew up.

"When I got married and had to move from Dundee to Maybee I cried. I thought it was so far away," said Mrs. Happy.

Eleven miles or 11,000, my life has been a series of moves. When someone asks me where I'm from I have many answers. Over the years, it has been Thailand, Hawaii, Las Vegas ... the list goes on.

When I moved to Monroe last May, I was struck

Jennifer Happy, 14, of Maybee, washes her steer at the Monroe County Fair in August. Jennifer and her 13-year-old sister, Sarah, are the fourth generation of their family to show animals and crafts at the fair.

Sarah helps her grandmother, Leona Happy, with the canning inside Mrs. Happy's garage. Mrs. Happy's steel rack, used for sealing and preserving tomato juice, is an heirloom piece that's been passed from one generation to another. Canning is one of the family's summer rituals.

by the open landscape of red barns dotting the green and golden fields of corn and wheat stretching into the horizon. It opened doors into childhood memories and dreams long ago surrendered to reality.

I was supposed to grow up in a secure home. It was supposed to be easy. But that changed with the year. My father's death, the choices my mother had to make as a single parent and fate changed the course of my life.

During the Vietnam War, my father, Wesley Albert Wilson and mother, Noonan Pimrat, met in Thailand. He was American, she was Thai. They married and planned to move to my father's family farm in Lake Superior, Wis. But the scars of my father's war ran too deep; he committed suicide in 1973. I was 5 years old.

Growing up, I was certain that someday I would move to be with my uncle, Dennis Wilson. Of my father's four brothers, he was the closest.

As a young girl, I couldn't want to move to my father's homeland, but my mother wanted me to stay in Thailand until I was old enough to retain the Thai language and culture.

Meeting a family like the Happys takes me back to when I was 14 years old. My mother and I were planning to move from my mother's farm in Thailand to America. For the first in my life, here in Monroe, it feels like I'm home.

The Happys are crop farmers. Together with Mr. Happy's two brothers, Gale and Dennis, they grow wheat, soybeans and corn. They also have some livestock, such as chicken, hogs and steers.

"Raising animals and caring for them are part of the girl's responsibilities on the farm," said Mrs. Happy. Unlike their counterparts in the city, Jennifer and Sarah have farm chores everyday.

"Sarah usually waters and I put out the feed," said Jennifer, a freshman at Monroe High School.

Through their kitchen window, Jennifer and Sarah can see the their grandmother's house across the field. Leona Happy is the leader of the Farm Trotter 4-H Club and both girls see her regularly. Belonging to 4-H has been a part of life as long as the family has been farming.

"Jennifer and Sarah are the fourth generation to show animals at the Monroe County Fair," said the girls' grandmother said. "Being in 4-H is part of our life. The activities we learn through showing crafts and showing animals teaches them about important life skills."

My mother's family farmed 110 acres of rice and raised animals for food. Including my extended family, 12 of us lived one large house in town. Thai farmers don't live on their farms like Westerners do. They live in towns or villages, go to work in the fields in the morning

"Because of our hectic schedule, our family never really has time to spend with each other, except on Sunday. When Dale is not working extra hours on that day, we usually have a big dinner together."

—Connie Happy, mother

A maintenance cleaner at Visteon Automotive Systems' Ford factory in Milan for 21 years, Mr. Happy plans to put in another 10 years before retiring. "I look forward to retiring because it would be nice to farm and read the paper in the afternoon. I would get to see more of the kids then," he said.

Mr. Happy encourages Jennifer before she shows her steer at the Monroe County Fair. She was nervous and scared. "It was my first time showing such a big animal. I was afraid that it might break loose and get away from me," she said.

Janet Reuhs, the girls' grandmother, sits with the Happy sisters in their room and discusses Jennifer's family tree project for school as Sarah (left) packs clothes for the girls' weekend trip to Canton for a sewing workshop with their other grandmother, Leona Happy. Because the family's home only has two bedrooms, Jennifer and Sarah must share the same room and bed. Their room is filled with ribbons and trophies from showing crafts and animals at fairs.

and come home at night.

During my childhood, it was my grandmother whom I adored the most. She made my favorite snacks of green papaya salads and told me tales of ancient legends.

In our house, there was always someone coming and going, whether it was to school or extracurricular activities. Our hectic life was safe and secure.

Although my mother is Thai, I didn't belong in Thailand — I was half American. I was a war baby and at that time they were considered outcasts. Growing up to be a full member of the Thai society would be a challenge. Every time a neighborhood kid bullied me because of the color of my skin, every time an adult made reference to the circumstance of my birth, I always imagined that it wouldn't happen to me in America because I am an American.

I believed when I moved to America at 14, it was where I would settle for good. Instead, it became the first destination of many moves. On that trip, my mother and I were headed for St. Louis Park, Minn., to live with my Uncle Dennis, not to my father's family farm in Wisconsin. It had been sold.

We made a stop in Hawaii and ended up staying for eight years. My mother found friends and support to begin our new lives in a tropical setting that was similar to Thailand.

It was a hard time for me. I had assumed the move was going to be smooth, from one family to another. But the stop in Hawaii was jolting. I didn't know a word of English and I missed my large family in Thailand. I felt uprooted, isolated. I didn't have anyone there to help me understand my new world. My mother who had limited conversational English had to work and I was left alone to pioneer my own way.

I learned how to speak English from watching Sesame Street on TV. Reading and writing came later in English as a Second Language classes (ESL) for a year in high school. I often wonder, now, how my life would have turned out if things had been different.

"When I was little, I used to wish that I lived in the city," said Jennifer. "But now I don't want to live anywhere else. On a farm you get a lot of privacy and a lot of space to be outside," she said.

For Sarah and Jennifer, living on the farm means getting up with their mother before the sun rises every day. Their father, Dale, gets up 45 minutes later, after five or six hours of sleep after his night shift as a maintenance worker at Visteon Automotive Systems in Milan. He's worked there for nearly 21 years. Mrs. Happy also works part time on the factory line at the plant.

By the time he starts his breakfast, the girls are off to school. When they return, he has finished a morning of farming and has already left for work at the plant.

During the school year, Jennifer and Sarah don't see much of their father, except Fridays and Saturdays, which are his days off. Their weekdays are spent with their mother who usually works on the weekends. Sunday is the only day the family spends together.

"Because of our hectic schedule, our family never really has time to spend with each other, except on Sunday. When Dale is not working extra hours on that day, we usually have a big dinner together," said Mrs. Happy.

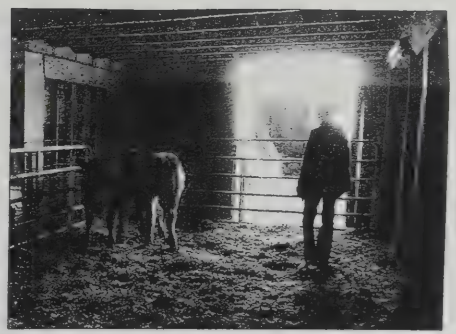
Like many area farmers, the Happys have to work other jobs to help pay the bills. "Working at Ford helps me get everything I need," said Mr. Happy. "But to keep the money coming, I got to keep putting in the time. Farming is in my blood, that's why I keep doing it."

It has been years now since both sides of my family worked their farms. My mother lost hers to the bank. My father's brothers didn't want to keep up with the demands of the life of their father who used to drive a truck and farm. The family now is scattered across Wisconsin, Minnesota and other parts of the country. We all keep in touch and make visits during the holidays.

Although Jennifer appreciates and understands a lot about farming [illegible] nifer sees a different path for herself.

"Farming is too hectic. I don't want to do it," said Jennifer. "I want to be in the medical field, like being nurse or something similar." Although farming is not for her, she still wants to live in Monroe.

Sarah, on the other hand, wants to continue on the family tradition. "Yep, I'm a farmer's daughter and when I grow up, I want to farm," she said.



Jennifer takes a look at her two new young calves. She will spend the next 10 months caring for them until they are shown next year at the fair. This is part of the ritual of her daily life living on the farm.

Out of the need to know where a part of me came from, I ended up becoming a photojournalist. In photojournalism, the camera can be used to record amazing moments in ordinary lives that reflect our commonality more than differences.

Here in Monroe, as I took photographs of the Happys' daily routine and heard their story, I came to realize that they could have been my family.

If my father had lived, would I be the person I am now? I will never know. But out of my oddssey from Thailand to Monroe, I came to realize that I belong to the human race. Out of each encounter made on this journey, each person has taught me how to be a better human being.

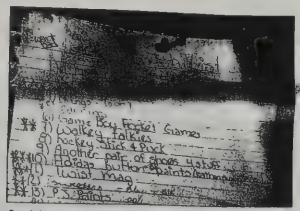
Vasna Wilson, 30, came to The Evening News in May as a photojournalism intern. A student at the University of Missouri, Columbia, her six-month assignment here ended Friday. She will return to finish her last semester at school.

Just a week before starting her freshman year at Monroe High School, Jennifer got a new haircut and as well as contact lenses. Jennifer and Sarah, 18 months apart in age, like to look at teen fashion magazines. Sarah attends seventh grade at Cantrick Middle School.



Sarah keeps an ongoing wish list on a bulletin board in the family's study.

Mr. Happy and Jennifer watch John Horns, a butcher from Ida, as he prepares to skin a calf at the Happy farm. Mr. Horns is a long-time family friend who has 50 years of butchering experience. The animal was shown at the fair by Jennifer. "I learned early on not to think of these animal as pets," she said. "But Sarah has a hard time with it, she even stopped eating meat."

Sew stylin'

Sewing not a lost art for younger generation.

mswartz@monroenews.com

Emily Van Wasshenova wears clothes to school that no other girl is sporting.

That's because the young seamstress makes some of her own clothes.

"I like to do it because I can make exactly what I want in a skirt or a top," said Emily, a junior at Monroe High School. "I like making things that I can't find in a store. If I want a skirt to look a certain way, I can just make it myself."

Emily, 16, has been sewing since she was in the eighth grade. Her grandmother helped her learn the basics of the craft but she admits she has a long way to go before she perfects it.

"I never use patterns so I just play around with it until I get it right. It's fun to do. It's like any other hobby I have," she said. "It's frustrating at times because I'll work on something for hours to get it right. But I like it. It's fun for me."

She mainly makes skirts and alters shirts. The first skirt she ever made was a pleated, polka-dot skirt.

"I like putting my own twist on things. I look at skirts at stores for ideas and then I put my own twist on it," she said. "A lot of people at school know that I make my own skirts. I'm surprised at how many offers I get to make skirts for them."

Emily, who is currently working on a silk skirt, is looking to fine-tune her skill.

"My grandma taught me a lot but I still need to learn a lot. I'm taking an introduction sewing class at school right now so I can get a little better," she said.

Sewing is not a lost art among the younger generation. Other teenagers, such as 15-year-old Katy Younglove of Monroe, also enjoy making clothes.

"My grandma taught me when I was 8 or 9 years old. I've made skirts, a jean jacket, dresses and pants," said Katy, who is also a 4-H member and makes clothes for 4-H competitions.

A sophomore at Monroe High School, Katy's ultimate goal is to make her own prom dress.

"I'm thinking of making a fluffy two-piece dress for prom," she said. "I think it would be a lot of fun and it would be different from the other prom dresses."

Emily Chandonnet, another local teen seamstress, advises beginners not to get down when learning how to sew.

"I started sewing in about fifth grade. I used a lot of books to learn. It was really hard at first but after a few times it was so easy," the Monroe High School sophomore said.

A longtime 4-H member, She has made skirts, jackets and dress suits in the past.

"It was hard at first to make the suits because I would either bring it in too much or too little," the 16-year-old said. "Skirts are easier because you don't have to worry about fitting the shoulders. That can be hard."

Standing at 5-foot-10, she uses her sewing skills to her advantage.

"It's impossible to find suits because of my height, so knowing how to sew helps," she said. "I can never find any pajama pants because of my height, so I just make my own. It's easy to do."

Depending on the cost of fabric, purchasing clothes at the store can be cheaper.

"It's usually cheaper to buy clothes at the store because some fabrics are really expensive," said Emily Van Wasshenova. "But it's cheaper to sew in my mind. I think people consider the labor of it, too, because it does take a while to make clothes."

Leona Happy, a Monroe County 4-H leader for 47 years, finds it refreshing that the younger generation is still taking sewing seriously.

"When I was a kid, I had to learn how to sew and make my own clothes for school because we didn't have any money," she said. "I go to sewing seminars and I'm always amazed by the large number of people there. I also teach kids, girls and some boys, how to sew. It's nice to see that they want to learn."

Mrs. Happy has been a seamstress for most of her life. Even though she never had her own business, she has been doing alterations for people for years, including wedding dresses. With no formal training, she used educational books and magazines to learn how to sew when she was a child.

She offers sound advice for beginner seamstresses.

"There are a lot of great sewing magazines and books out there today. I recommend Sew News (magazine)," she said. "If you know someone who sews, get some tips from them, too."

Emily Van Wasshenova, who also runs on the school's track and cross country team, enjoys sewing as one of her hobbies.

"I'm still learning so I'll be able to make more things when I get better at it," she said. "I don't mind putting the time into it because it's neat to say that I made it myself."

Janine Wonders, Charles Happy Married In Double Ring Ceremony

LITCHFIELD — Janine L. Wonders, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Clyude L. Wonders of Litchfield, and Charles L. Happy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Happy of Monroe, were married in the South Litchfield Baptist Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by the father of the bride. Mrs. Patricia Shepherd was pianist and Mrs. Nellie Cronk, aunt of the bridegroom, was organist. Robert Pratt, uncle of the bride, was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore a gown of white sheer organza fashioned with a high ruffled neckline, long sleeves, and Empire styled waistline. The bodice was trimmed with Cluny lace and pearls to form a bib-effect. The floor length skirt was accented with rows of lace ruffles. Her chapel-length veil of illusion was trimmed with Cluny lace and was secured by a Camelot headpiece.

Gayle Wonders, sister of the bride, was maid of honmor. She wore a light blue gown. Bridesmaids were Cheryl Lason and Marilyn Wilkie in maize and pink respectively.

Dale Happy was his brother's best man, and attendants were Gale Happy and David Biniecki. Keith and Dennis Happy were ushers, and Daniel Wonders was ring bearer.

The reception was held in the church fellowship hall immediately following the ceremony.

The bride graduated from Litchfield High School in 1972 and from Grand Rapids School of the Bible and Music in 1975. She is employed by the First National Bank, Quincy. The bridegroom graduated from Dundee High School in 1971 and attended Michigan State University. He is a farmer.

They took a wedding trip to Northern Michigan and are now at home at 659 Squires Road, Quincy.

Litchfield High celebrates homecoming

LITCHFIELD — Hollywood has arrived at Litchfield High School this week in the form of homecoming festivities.

"Movies" is the theme for Litchfield's Homecoming week, with each day focusing on a style of dress related to a movie.

Monday was "Tombstone" Day, with students donning western/cowboy style clothing.

The 1960s and '70s returned Tuesday with "Stayin' Alive" Day. Today is "The Three Amigos Day," with students encouraged to join in trios wearing the same clothing.

"The Program" Day is Thursday, when favorite teams' apparel will be worn, and then all the Terriers' favorite team gets the spotlight on Friday, when Litchfield red and white clothes will be worn on Spirit Day.

Students will build their class floats, participate in various games and activities, and take part in a pep rally on Friday.

The Homecoming parade, featuring the Litchfield band, floats, the homecoming court, sports team members and other students, steps off at 6:30 p.m. Friday from the parking lots near the post office and fire station and proceeds down M-99.

Litchfield's football team brings a five-game winning streak and the SCAA lead into its game at 7:30 p.m. against Edon. Homecoming king and queen wil be announced at halftime. It's also Parents Night, with parents of the athletes announced before the game.

The dance for high school students will be held in the cafeteria after the game until 12:30 a.m.

Candidates for homecoming queen are seniors Carly Packer, Katie Burns, Kammy Bills and Karme Van Nieuwenhuyzen. King candidates are seniors Randy Bills, Brian Bohner, Ben Thomas and Ryan Omo.

Class representatives are juniors Katie Ziegler and Joe Crater, sophomores Krissy Happy and J.J. Pinter and freshmen Jamie Hasbrook and Corey Bills.

1 Corinthians 13:4-8&13

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects and always trusts, always hopes, always perseverexs. And now these three remain: faith, hope, and love. But the greatest of these is love.

CLAWSON — Kristina Lynn Happy, Clawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Happy, Litchfield, was united in marriage with Todd Matthew Wilkins, Clawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilkins, Tecumseh, Oct. 20, at El Bethel Church, Hillsdale.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Clyde Wonders, grandfather of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a princess style gown with drop waist, and with sequin and lace accents, made by a friend of the family, Beth Brenner. The bridal headdress was a tiara with pearl drop, that held a veil of illusion. The bridal bouquet was comprised of white roses and daisies, with accents of babies breath and navy blue ribbon.

The matron of honor was Cherie Swirles. The bridesmaids were Elizabeth Happy, sister of the bride, Missy Nienhuis, and Lisa Garn. The junior bridesmaid was Lyndee Wonders, cousin of the bride. All of the bride's attendants wore navy blue gowns. They carried long stemmed white roses, tied together with navy blue tulle and silver ribbon.

The flower girl was Erin Wonders, cousin of the bride, and the daughter of Dan and Pam Wonders. She wore a silver gown.

The best man was Alger Baker. The bridegroom's attendants were Matt DeCormier, Matt Happy, brother of the bride, and Andy Rivers. The junior bridegroom's attendant was Travis McCarty, nephew of the bridegroom.

Ushers were Nathan Happy, brother of the bride, and Evan Allen, cousin of the bride.

The ring bearer was Chase Wagner, nephew of the bridegroom, and the son of Mark and Shelly Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. Todd Wilkins

A reception for the bridal couple took place at the Allen Antique Convention Center, Allen.

The bride earned a bachelor of business administration in human resources from Western Michigan University. She is currently employed as human resources coordinator at Meridian Inc., Troy.

The bridegroom earned a bachelor of business administration in management information systems from Tri-State University. He is an information associate for EDS in Flint.

Following a wedding trip to Daytona Beach, Fla., the couple is residing in Clawson.

To thank you for the baby gift
And then to tell you, too,
Somehow it's even nicer
Because it came from you.

Thank you so much for all the wonderful items. The plate, bowl, silverware, Q-tips + powder were so nice, but I especially loved the blanket + bonnet. They will be very special to me + Nicole! Thanks again for coming to the shower. I hope you had a nice time!

Newly crowned 4-H Prince Andrew Clark, 12, juggles a plaque, trophy and a bouquet of roses moments after receiving his title Thursday night. Andrew, of Carleton, was first runner-up 4-H Prince for the past two Monroe County Fairs. "I finally did it," the young man said proudly.

Jennifer Happy, 18, of Monroe and Adam Miller, 18, of Blissfield were crowned the new Monroe County 4-H queen and king at the fair Thursday night.

4-H crowns Miller, Happy as king, queen

By DEAN COUSINO
Evening News staff writer

The new Monroe County 4-H queen can remember trying on the crown of a 4-H queen when she was younger and yearning to win a title some day.

Today Jennifer Happy finally has her own crown.

And the new 4-H King Adam Miller showed that patience and persistence does pay off after winning a royalty crown for the first time in 10 years of competing.

The two were crowned Thursday night before a capacity crowd in the noisy show arena along with Andrew Clark and Sarah Bredeson, the 2002 4-H Prince and Princess. All four made it to the top and will be key ambassadors in the coming year for the biggest county 4-H program (2,400 members) in the state.

For Jennifer, 18, it was a dream come true from her childhood. She's come close before with two runner-up finishes in the queen contest, including last year, and was princess before. But she still had jitters as the nearly 200 royalty candidates filed into the arena.

"I was so nervous before hand," the 18-year-old daughter of Dale and Connie Happy of Monroe said afterward. "I do a lot in 4-H and this is the highest honor you can get. It's the epitome of 4-H."

Indeed, she has achieved many goals in 4-H, but the title of queen had eluded her. She has shown animals and crafts in 4-H since she was eight and has taken numerous trips in 4-H to Atlanta, St. Louis and Washington, D.C., and twice to Toronto. She also rode a bike to Lansing for Exploration Days, taught classes at the Kettunen Center and earned a State Award in crops. She treasures each experience.

"4-H is such a great program to be involved in," the tall Farm Trotters 4-H Club representative said. "There are so many opportunities and trips to (take advantage of). Some kids don't even leave Monroe County."

A 2002 graduate of Monroe High School, she raises pigs, steers and rabbits on her family's 1,000-acre farm. Teen Ambassadors, 4-H Council, New Horizons and Terra Quest are just a few of the organizations she has joined. She also has served on both the Junior Livestock Association (JLA) and the Small Animal Association (SAA). She has one sister, Sarah, 16, who was a queen candidate, too. Jenn, as her friends call her, has enrolled at Monroe County Community College where she plans to study for a career as an orthopedic surgeon.

Adam, who just turned 18 Monday, made it a rare feat Thursday when he also garnered the Mr. Congeniality award voted on by the candidates. He has competed for prince and king ever since he joined 4-H 10 years ago. His highest finish until this year was second runner-up last year.

"If you work at it, you'll achieve it," he said in advising future contestants.

SARAH BREDESON, 4-H PRINCESS

ANDREW CLARK, 4-H PRINCE

Like Jenn, he is used to a busy fair week preparing animals for show. They rise early in the morning to go to the fairgrounds and sometimes don't leave the barns until midnight. By the end of the week, he is emotionally spent and drained of energy.

"Showing and raising animals keeps you busy," the red haired St. Mary Catholic Central High School senior said. "I don't have time for anything else. But there's such a rush during fair week – you don't get tired."

The son of Ron and Ruth Miller, Adam has one sister, Amy, 15, and represented the SAA in the contest. He is a member of Whiteford Workers 4-H Club and "9 to 10" other 4-H clubs. He showed ducks, lambs, geese and rabbits at the fair, with both of his lambs taking firsts. He has served on the 4-H Council and is active in Teen Ambassadors, Slow Spokes, Terra Quest and JLA Board. He also was a delegate to the National 4-H Congress.

He has no particular favorite club or project area in 4-H.

"I just like the fair in general," the Michigan Centennial 4-H Ambassador said. "You get to see all the people you haven't seen in a year."

Both Sarah, 12, and Andrew, 12, represented the Blue Ribbon Riders 4-H Club. Sarah didn't even hear her name called and her best friend, Jessica Pershing, a queen candidate, had to nudge her forward to accept.

"She said 'they called your name – go up there,' " Sarah recalled.

A Newport resident all her life, she is the daughter of Richard and Elizabeth Bredeson and has one sister, Samantha, 9. In her fourth year in 4-H, she earned an "All-Star" Award. At the fair, she showed chickens, rabbits, sheep and her favorite project and cat, Mulan. She also shows an 8-year-old Appaloosa on the circuit. She said it's exciting when the animals are young and she has to begin training them for show.

"We show a lot of animals," she said.

Last fall, she enrolled at Holy Ghost Lutheran School in Monroe and will enter the sixth grade this fall. What she likes most about school and 4-H is "meeting new people."

Andrew succeeds Kyle Happy on the throne room and finally won prince after being a first runnerup the past two years. He was the Horse and Pony Board prince in 2000.

The horse project is Andrew's favorite. He showed a registered Appaloosa that is three-fourths a quarterhorse. The horse took three firsts, a second, a third and a fourth for his handler. He credits his club leader, Judi Pershing, with helping him achieve his goals in 4-H.

"Without her, I wouldn't be in 4-H," he said.

He also has attended Clown College and showed glass etching, metal punch and T-shirts at the fair. A 4-H "All-Star," he likes 4-H because "I learn a lot and can be with my friends and make new ones."

The son of William and Kay Clark of Carleton, he has one brother, Matthew, 15. Andrew will be a sixth-grader at Wagar Middle School and enjoys playing hockey in the spring and fall. His Pee Wee team won a state championship two years ago.

Other finalists

Tiffany Martin and Chanel Williams, both of Temperance, were named first and second runners-up for queen and Joe Borawski and Michael Bodine, both of Monroe, took the same honors for king. Andrea Calkins of Newport and Amanda Linger of Temperance were first and second runners-up for princess and Joshua Pershing of Carleton and Brock Koppeiman of Blissfield took the same titles, respectively, for prince.

Kyla Masserant of South Rockwood was voted Miss Congeniality. She is the daughter of Rollin and Brenda Masserant.

Hi! Thanks so much for the B&B gift certificate. I'm sure will enjoy it as it gives us a good excuse to do some traveling. We were hit by a pretty nasty storm late afternoon yesterday. It left us with no electricity and no telephone. I think there was a lightening strike on the electrical pole behind the house because our neighbors all have power. We're using Leona's generator for the freezer & refrigerator.

Don't hesitate to call when you're ready to move. We'll do whatever we can to help! 734-587-2876.

See you soon!

On a sunny and warm day, kids of all ages blasted model rockets into a nearly cloudless sky all Saturday afternoon from John and Rebecca Tibai's E. Newport Rd. back yard.

Monroe Evening News Paper Tue May 22 2001

Rocket launchers

Area kids and adults send their projects to the sky

By RICHARD KHAVKINE
Evening News staff writer

A back yard in Newport turned into Monroe County's version of Cape Canaveral for a few hours Saturday.

On a day with temperatures in the low 80s, about 40 people, mostly kids and teen-agers, took a walk in the early afternoon to John Tibai's vast back yard armed with bucket loads of rockets and pop and launched balsa wood and plastic contraptions of all shapes, sizes and colors into the nearly cloudless sky.

In five years, the event has grown from 12 people to a dozen families. This year, Joe Meyer, appointed self-titled "safety dude" for the last three years, directed the action from the center circle. All afternoon about 15 kids and teen-agers tweaked rocket cones into shape, or bent "launching pads" – thin wire rods atop a platform – to straight up 180 degrees to prepare for liftoff.

Kids launched their rockets only after Mr. Meyer gave the okay. His daughter was one of the first up.

"It was a lot taller but it crashed so I had to cut some of it off," said Melissa Meyer of her black three-stage rocket. Sparkled with glitter, this recycled model nevertheless is handsome enough to have earned her second place in the best-looking rocket contest that followed a lunch of hot dogs and cheeseburgers.

"It took me a day to make it," said the Jefferson eighth-grader.

"Five, four, three, two, one ..." Melissa counted. With a hissing blast and a waft of smoke, the rocket took off and arced backward toward the tall hay-colored grasses at the rear of Mr. Tibai's property. A second, smaller explosion popped out a parachute and it glided to the ground.

"The search and rescue is the fun part," said Debra Meyer, Melissa's mom. "In fact, this is a good day to chase rockets: wind-speed is low and constant, which means the drifting projectiles don't stray past the treelines bordering Mr. Tibai's property, most of which is a former corn and soybean farm.

A rocket's performance depends on a lot of factors, not the least of which is the "engine's" size. Not a motor at all, the engine is something akin to a large firecracker. Thickness, then, equals thrust and power.

"I think she'll go this time," 12-year-old Kyle Happy said.

And with the push of a button that sends current along to an igniter at the launcher's base, a small explosion launches his foot-high model on a fairly straight course a few hundred feet up in the air.

"It got some wind," he said a few seconds after the parachute busted out.

It drifted a few dozen feet on the way down and in a minute or so settled softly in the tall grasses.

"Tell me when the Highest Rocket starts," Kyle said, referring to the contest later in the afternoon. "I'm going to win that fair and square."

One look at his contraption and you understand that Kyle isn't bragging. The stealthy, blue machine is the best looking rocket, judges decide. With a deep blue body and cone and red tails, it looks like a missile and can take up to three engines. Most ready-mades, or kit rockets, take one.

"It's just fun for the kids. And it's an extensive hobby," said Mr. Meyer. "You got a light, Billy? Okay, the launch pad's yours!"

Like about a third of all planned launches, Billy's doesn't fire. He'll wait 30 seconds before doing a little troubleshooting and prep for his next turn at ignition.

Meanwhile, Melissa, who wants to become a pediatrician, is preparing for her second flight. She's going right from an "A" engine to a "C," "Because," she said, "I think it will fit." And catapult her black rocket about twice as high.

Kyle, who has been spraying rockets skyward first under his father Keith's tutelage and on his own for the last few years, leaves the pride of his arsenal to the side until the big show.

Kyle, who aspires to a career in design or engineering, said the attraction to rocketry is simple. "All my life, I've enjoyed playing with fire," he said. But, he added quickly, it's more than that, too. "Building them is always fun. So is watching them launch and go as high as they can."

He doesn't go for the boxed ready-mades. "You don't get to put any personal touches to it," he said. "The paint job you get is the paint job you get."

And, of course, there's the always that thing about energy, said Keith Happy. "Power, more power," he said. "That's why he's got three engines. You never have too much power."

Power, though, doesn't always count for much.

Come highest rocket time, Kyle's blue rocket, armed with three engines, arcs too quickly and disappears toward and over the line of trees to the east. Later, he'll settle for most accurate when another rocket lands just 13 feet from the target.

Jeremy Cieslinski's almost pocket size rocket takes to about 1,650 feet. He's the clear winner. "It's fun to build 'em, shoot 'em and chase 'em," he said.

Jonathon Jackson, who is launching for the first time, has had a good day. He takes second place in highest launch to go along with his third place in the best looking contest. Jonathon, who plays golf and soccer as a freshman at Airport High School, said, "This is one sport you could do until you're really, really old."

Kyle Happy Valedictorian Speech from 8th Grade Holy Ghost Lutheran School June 8, 2003

I would like to take a moment to thank the Board of Education and the teachers for a great educational experience, and to thank all the dedicated people here at Holy Ghost who have made this School function behind the scenes and, in particular, Mrs Kitts, pastor Loree, and vicar Kate. I would also like to thank the dedicated parents who donated their time to the hot lunch program, recess patrols and the many other school activities.

My fellow graduates, Paul writes in Ephesians, "for we are his workmanship created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them." God has a plan and a purpose for each of us. We have a destiny. But we must be prepared. Our teachers through classroom work as well as by example have laid the foundation for our success and have prepared us for the next step in our journey through life.

So now as we step foot into the next segment of our lives we graduates must use the knowledge and experience gained here at Holy Ghost to advance toward maturity and become productive members of society.

Fellow classmates I challenge you to take heed to the lessons you have learned. Serve God with all your heart and soul. . . . Believe in yourselves because you are capable of great things. . . . Complete the good works that the Lord Jesus has prepared for you and fulfill your destiny.

So may God's blessings be with you and I wish to all of you a long and prosperous life

Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop – 2 services, 1 great place

Theresa Bumpus
Reporter

Feb. 21, 2005

Stop In And See Us … Lisa and Dennis Happy of Happy's Tanning and Barber Shop offers customer service not found at other places. Come in for a tan, a haircut, or both!

The first thing you notice when you enter Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop on Secor Road in Lambertville is how light and cheery the place is. The colorful, tropical murals make you wish you were tanned and heading for warmer climes.

You've come to the right place for that tan.

Don't worry if you've never been to a tanning salon before. Owners Lisa and Dennis Happy and the friendly staff at Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop will show you around and explain their services and products. That's unusual in the industry but standard procedure at this place.

Customer service in general at Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop is above average. When selecting the types of equipment to use in their new business, the Happys chose one level – the top of the line. They also decided to offer only one level of pricing, to eliminate confusing upgrades and options.

There are two mega Solaris tanning beds at Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop and eight Sundome booths. What's the difference? Tanning time in a bed, where you're prone, is 15 minutes. You're standing in a booth, get tanned all around, and a session is 10 minutes because of the hotter environment.

Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop is a member of the International Smart Tan Network. All the staff underwent training and classes in areas of safety, sanitation, health, skin, heat lamps and other important topics relevant to the tanning business.

Bottled water and soft drinks may be purchased, to ensure proper hydration.

All your tanning products are also available at Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop. They offer the popular brands of Swedish Beauty, Australian Gold, Emerald Bay, and the Attitude line. Prices range from $10 to $65 a bottle and $1.50 to $8 for a sample package. Prices vary by manufacturer, of course, but also by ingredients. They're not just moisturizers. Lotions also come in different scents. Some have bronzers which affect the color and duration of a tan. Others have an anti-aging formula. One special lotion for the more advanced tanner has "tingle" which opens the pores and gives a tingly sensation.

The staff will explain the products in order for you to achieve your maximum results.

Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop offers monthly specials and a "50% Basket" of discounted products from the previous year. Still perfectly good, these lotions may just have a scent or packaging that's been discontinued.

The New Client Special features the first three visits for $10. A single visit is $7, and there are packages for multiple visits.

The busiest time is from December to June, with people getting ready for swimsuit season. Clients range in age from 15 to 50 on average, mostly teens, and about 25% are males. Older men claim the heat is good for arthritis.

People needn't be concerned about tanning, assures Lisa. Tanning beds are more controlled than being in the sunlight. Timing is regulated by the computer at the desk, and there is a backup system, so even if you fall asleep while tanning, you will not "fry." The urban myth about getting fried from the inside out is definitely not possible. A tanning bed is not a microwave oven.

Tanning salon hours are Monday through Saturday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Sunday from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. No appointment is necessary, but they are accepted.

Now remember, the name of the business is Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop, and there's even a story behind the name. Dennis and Lisa wanted a business that combined the two services, and they realized how important a name is in attracting clients. Friends were polled and the males preferred the term "barber shop" over options like "styling."

The Happys wanted the barber shop to have a masculine appearance, so as not to discourage patrons unsure about the tanning thing, and that also explains the location. As you walk in the door, the barber shop is to your immediate right, separate and distinct from the tanning area. Two wonderful, comfortably padded chairs await you.

Lisa Happy and Suzi Miller are the barbers, both with over 20 years of experience.

They offer straight razor neck shaves and clipper cuts. Both men and women can get their hair cut here. Crew products for men and the Paul Mitchell line of hair care products are offered.

Lisa is a licensed barber and cosmetologist, having graduated from both the Ohio State Barber College in downtown Toledo and the Toledo Academy of Beauty Culture. She was a barber by trade in Maumee, Ohio before opening Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop. Why a barber? Well, she has two sons who needed haircuts as they were growing up, and cosmetology school doesn't address that need. Besides, she really enjoys cutting hair. "It's not a repetitious job," Lisa explains. "Every head is different."

Haircuts are $12, men's cut and shampoo is $15, a beard trim is $6, and women's cut and style is $22. There is a senior rate of $9 (excluding $3 coupon) on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday before 2 p.m.

Barber shop hours are Monday from noon to 6 p.m., Tuesday and Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., Thursday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Saturday from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. No appointment is needed for barber shop services either.

The business itself is still fairly new; Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop will be two years old in October. Much research was done prior to that. Lisa and Dennis visited distributors, sales reps and tanning salons "all over the place" to gain the knowledge of what was needed in the business they envisioned.

An artist from California, Mike Provenza, created the colorful murals.

The Happys have their business computerized on the helios program, a database common to the industry. It conveniently tracks clients' records, including tanning time spent and booth used. They also use a fingertip ID system which prevents unauthorized use of a client's tanning time, among other benefits.

Checks, MasterCard and Visa are accepted.

Dennis and Lisa Happy live on a farm in Maybee, and Lisa had lived in Bedford for over 10 years, so she was pleased to find a Bedford location for the business. She hopes the business continues to grow and remain strong so they can stay here.

The Happys have been married for only two and a half years. Dennis works for Consumers Energy and helps out wherever he's needed at Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop. They enjoy travelling, tent camping, canoeing and gardening. They have two dogs. Lisa has two grown sons who live in Oregon, Ohio, the oldest son helped setup the shop's security system, and the youngest son did the paint system.

A member of the Bedford Business Association Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop won last prize for their booth display at last year's BBA Trade Fair. They look forward to attending this year.

In addition to Lisa and Suzi who cut hair, employees include front counter keepers. These busy people answer the phone, schedule any appointments, provide a towel and eyewear to tanning clients, maintain client records in the computer's database, and keep the place clean and tidy.

Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop used to employ someone to give manicures and pedicures, something women and men enjoyed. The service was quite popular, and Lisa would be willing to offer it again if the right technician were found.

"You have to be a people person to be in this business," says Lisa, and she certainly exemplifies that requirement.

Bedford High School will soon be staging "Joseph and The Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat," a musical taken from the Old Testament story of Joseph and his coat of many colors. Lisa Happy is involved with the drama department, and when the director decided to go with the "authentic" look of darker skin, Lisa offered free tanning for the main characters to achieve the desired effect. She then offered discounted tanning for the rest of the cast.

That's commitment and service above and beyond, and that's what Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop offers. The Happys put every time they can into their venture, and it's a good place for people to do business. "Overall I'm satisfied with where our business is for the amount of time we've been open," says Lisa. What more is there to say? "Stop in and try us!"

Happy's Tanning & Barber Shop is located at 8124 Secor Rd., just north of Summerfield in Lambertville. Call them at (734) 856-1888.

Litchfield Newlywed Couple Leave For Yellowstone National Park

LITCHFIELD — The South Litchfield Baptist church was the scene of the ceremony uniting Nellie Arlene Kellicut, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Kellicut of Quincy, and C. J. Cronk, son of Mr. and Mrs Claude Cronk of Litchfield.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. O. E. Ames of Okemos before an altar decorated with gladioli, majestic daisies, chrysanthemums, backed by ferns. The altar was balanced by bouquets of mock orange, and peonies, and candelabra. Each window contained a bouquet of cedar boughs from the Upper Peninsula and roses.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, and given in marriage by her father and mother. She was attired in a floor length gown of french handclipped rose lace and tulle. Scallops trimmed the square neckline and hemline in front. The skirt back terminated into a chapel train. The bride wore a double strand of pearls, gift of the groom. She made her own wedding gown.

Headdress of lace formed on a tear drop style with pearls and sequins which held the fingertip veil of imported illusion. She carried an arrangement of orchids and streamers of ivy and rose buds formed on a white Bible. The handkerchief she carried was carried by her sister, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother.

Traditional wedding selections were played by Mrs. Ralph Marshall preceding the ceremony. John Hettinger sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The maid of honor was Irene Kellicut, sister of the bride, who wore powder blue taffeta covered with matching blue chiffon in a floor length gown with fitted bodice. Blending color chiffon fashioned a draped cowl neckline with matching mitts.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Leona Happy of Monroe, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Patricia Trail of Litchfield, who wore matching gowns of the maid of honor. The maid of honor made her own gown and the bridesmaids gowns were made by the bride and her mother. The flowers were shades of pink and white carnations.

Best man was Donald Earl of Fort Wayne, Ind., classmate of he groom. Ushers were Charles Happy of Monroe and William Dolph of Tekonsha.

Ring bearer was Charles Happy of Monroe. Flower girl was Dale Happy of Monroe.

The four tiered pedestal cake, topped by the traditional bride and groom, was made by the bride's mother. Mrs. Lillie Young, of Linn Creek, Mo. cut the bride's cake and was assisted by Mrs. Ruth Hoff of South Bend, Ind. Mrs. Clair Chamberlin of Homer, cut the groom's cake assisted by Mrs. Eunice Cummins. Mrs. Lloyd Fowler of Marshall served the punch. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Emmett Marsh of Litchfield, and Nancy Winslow of Auburn, Ind. Assisting in the opening of the gifts was Mrs. Rodney Wright of Hillsdale. Mrs. Ed Putman of Homer had charge of the guest book.

Approximately 163 guest attended a lawn reception immediately following the ceremony, held at the bride's home.

For her going away dress, the new Mrs. Cronk chose a white dress with white accessories. Her hat was the headdress with the veil removed. The corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Guests were from Allen, Battle Creek, Coldwater, Detroit, Hillsdale, Homer, Jackson, Jonesville, Litchfield, Marshall, Moscow, Monroe, Okemos, and Three Rivers, and from Linn Creek, Mo.; Auburn, and Fort Wayne, Ind.

After a wedding trip to northern Michigan and Yellowstone National Park, the newlyweds will be at their new home, 752 Squires Road, Litchfield.

The bride was a 1952 graduate of Quincy High School and is employed as a teller at the First National Bank, Quincy. The groom is a 1952 graduate of Litchfield High School, served three years in the military forces. He is now employed as an I.B.M. Operator at Federal-Mogul Service in Coldwater.

Rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents.

Bridal showers were given by Mrs. John Kasperski of Coldwater for the bride's classmates, Mrs. Rodney Wright of Hillsdale, and Mrs. Patricia Trail of Litchfield, gave a bridal shower for the neighbors.

Hillsdale County 4-H Council Elected Briggs President

HILLSDALE, MICHIGAN — The Hillsdale County 4-H Council held their annual meeting and banquet at the 4-H Community recently. Top business for the evening was the election of officers, which resulted as follows: President; Dean Briggs, Wheatland Township; Vice - President; Max Walkup, Litchfield Township; Secretary; Mrs. Ted Bunce, - Amboy Township; Treasurer, Mrs. C.J. Cronk, Allen Township. For the first time teens were elected to represent their respective Townships, along with two adults from each township. According to Lynn Harvey, Extension 4-H Youth Agent, the 4-H Council decided to secure teens for the Council to aid in planning, developing and promoting 4-H in Hillsdale County. Harvey states that if we believe in planning programs, which meet the needs of our Youth, then we must have Youth in the planning and developing states of development, Also, the addition of teens to the Council should improve the feedback to the Council.

Mrs. C.J. Cronk, Treasurer of the 4-H Council served as Toastmistress for the evening. The evening entertainment was provided by Groergis and Sandy Girdham of Reading who sang and played numerous selections.

Debbie Teubert of Allen gave a brief account of a trip to Chicage in which she and 5 other 4-H teens and 2 adults participated over the Thanksgiving weekend.

Marvin Daglow, of Camden, brought the council up todate on the 4-H Livestock Judging team

Parents, Teens To Plan Year

The Hillsdale County 4-H Council held its annual banquet meeting at the 4-H Community Building. The evening was highlighted by the election of officers for the 1970-71 program year. Officers elected were president, Dean Briggs of Wheatland; Max Walkup of Litchfield, vice president; Mrs. Janet Bunce of Amboy, secretary and Mrs. Nellie Cronk of Allen, treasurer.

For the first time 17 teens were elected to represent their respective townships along with two adults per township. According to Lynn Harvey, Extension 4-H Youth Agent, the 4-H Council decided to secure teens for the council to aid in planning, developing and promoting the 4-H program in Hillsdale County. Harvey states that if clubs want planning programs which meet the needs and interest of the youth, then the youth have to be involved in the planning and developing stages of program development.

Mrs. C. J. Cronk of Allen, treasurer of the 4-H Council, served as toastmistress for the evening. In addition to the election of officers, the evening featured entertainment provided by Georgia and Sandy Girdham of Reading who sang and played several selections. Debbie Teubert of Allen gave a brief account of a trip to Chicago which she participated in along with five other 4-H teens and two adults. Marvin Daglow of Camden, brought the council up to date on the Hillsdale County's 4-H Livestock Judging Team activities and its performance in the National Livestock Judging Contest held during November at Harrisburg, Pa.

A Hagaman Fund Board was elected at the annual meeting. They are: C. C. Buchanan of Hillsdale, Carl Dawson of Litchfield and Mrs. LaVern Kramer of Reading.

NEW COUNCIL — New officers were elected to lead the Hillsdale County 4-H Council recently at its annual banquet. From left to right are Max Walkup of Litchfield, vice president; Dean Briggs of Wheatland, president; Mrs. C. J. Cronk of Allen, treasurer and Mrs. Ted Bunce of Camden, secretary. 1970

The purpose of the board is to administer the fund which the late Clarence Hagaman left to the 4-H program.

The following members are 4-H Council representatives from the 17 townships. The representatives were elected by the local township 4-H members and families at the fall achievement banquet.

From Cambria Township, Gene McColley, Mrs. Norman Masters and Brenda Stuchell; from Camden Township, Mrs. Robert Miller, William Hayes and Patience Miller; from Fayette Township, Wayne Smith, Mrs. Marian Scott and Ellen Goodwin.

From Moscow Township, Mrs. Robert Longbrake, Mrs. Robert Petrie and Linda Vaughn; from Pittsford Township, Mrs. Jean Durling, Mrs. Patricia Sword and Susan Sallows; from Ransom Township, Mrs. Bernadine Schaedler, Voyle Smith and Melvin Schaedler.

From Reading Township, Mrs. Esther Wigent, Tom Bildner and Carol French; from Scipio Township, John Osborne, Jerry Reed and Joel Williams; from Somerset Township, Mrs. Joyce Weatherwax, Daniel Raber and Jill Weatherwax.

From Wheatland Township, Dean Briggs, Mrs. Reva Cooch and Robert Lange; from Woodbridge Township, Mrs. Jim Crow, Gene Lennard and Dena Draggoo.

Quincy Bank Stages A Dual 'Celebration'

QUINCY — The First National Bank of Quincy and North Adams, directors, officers, and staff had dinner at Schulers in Marshall celebrating their 10th million in assets and the promotion and advancements of five employes.

Each time the assets of the bank reach the next million dollars a dinner is scheduled. In the last four years the bank has held seven such occasions.

Douglas Orton, Robert Phelps, Tom Barrett, Jim Spurlock and Mrs. Nellie Cronk have received promotions which served as a dual purpose for the dinner.

Orton, who has been serving as the branch manager and assistant vice president in the North Adams office, has been upped to full vice president of the bank. Orton and his family will be moving to Quincy as soon as their new home is completed in Quincy Heights, probably in August of this year.

Phelps, presently the bank's cashier, has been elected secretary of the board of directors. He has been with the bank nine years. Phelps came to The First National Bank from the Peoples State Bank of Bronson in 1956 where he was assistant cashier.

Barrett was promoted to assistant cashier and is a loan officer in the Quincy office. He joined the staff at the First National in December of 1961 and spent his first year as a teller. From there he worked in collections for another year and moved into the loan department as the demand required additional help in this area.

Spurlock joined the staff of the bank in 1964 and served as assistant manager at North Adams. He has been boosted to assistant casheir and branch manager of the North Adams office. Spurlock and his family are presently living at South Sand lake and are planning to take residence in the North Adams area as soon as suitable housing is located.

Mrs. Cronk has also become an officer of the bank, her new position being assistant cashier and head teller in the Quincy office. She has been with the First National for nine years, serving as head teller. She has always been very active in 4-H work.

REPORT 29 PERCENT GROWTH

First National Has Its Annual Meeting

QUINCY — The annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Quincy-North Adams, was held in the main office Wednesday with 16,680 shares represented. Directors elected to serve through the year 1965 were Elmer Anderson, Lindsey Baker, L. A. Barron, Fred Boley, Clay Brockman, John Holcomb, George Houghtaling, Clifford Perry, Kenneth Snyder and Eber J. Williams.

Highlights for the year were read by President John K. Holcomb who pointed out that the bank had grown in 1964 by $2,171,227.62, which was the greatest growth of any year to date, making total resources at years end of $9,660,333.39. This is a 29 percent increase over 1963.

A complete remodeling of the North Adams office, doubling the size, was accomplished in 1964 with a grand opening date set for Saturday.

The net earnings for 1964 were up considerably over 1963 making it the best year to date, Holcomb reported.

Clifford A. Perry of Jonesville was elected as a new director. "Perry will be a great asset to the bank, especially in the new oil department that was established in 1964," said Holcomb, "He is well known in the North Adams - Jonesville area and has been successful in oil drilling and investments.

After the stockholders meeting adjourned the new board met and officers were elected to serve for 1965. They were: Holcomb, president and chairman of the board; Snyder, vice president and secretary of the board; Houghtaling, vice president; Douglas Orton, assistant vice president and branch manager; Robert M. Phelps, cashier; Helen Ream, assistant cashier; Thomas Barrett, assistant cashier; James Spurlock, assistant branch manager; and Nellie Cronk, head teller.

Spurlock was made assistant branch manager at North Adams. He came to the bank in 1964 from the Hillsdale area and was formerly employed as sales manager for Crandall Pontiac and Cadillac. Spurlock is married and has two children.

Barrett, assistant cashier, graduated from Quincy high school in 1959 and attended Michigan State. He came to work at the bank in 1961 and has been in the loan department two years. Barrett is married to the former Susan Wibel and they have one child.

Mrs. Cronk, head teller, graduated from Quincy high school in 1952. She was employed by the school before coming to work at the bank and has been with the bank nine years. Mrs. Cronk and her husband, C. J. live on a farm north of Quincy.

MR. AND MRS. DWIGHT D. ONLEY

Olney-Kellicut Wedding Event of Sunday at Litchfield Church

The S. Litchfield Baptist church was the scene of a wedding ceremony on Sunday afternoon which united in marriage Miss Irene Janice Kellicut, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel D. Kellicut, and Dwight Lee Olney, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Olney, Sr., all of Quincy.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. O. E. Ames of Okemos. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Ralph Marshall of Allen at the organ. James Gross, classmate of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because". The "Lord's Prayer" was sung during the ceremony.

As the bride approached the altar on her father's arm, she was wearing a white full-length gown of hand-clipped French lace over net and taffeta. The fitted bodice featured long lace sleeves and a scalloped neckline. The bouffant skirt, worn over a hoop, had an apron effect of tier upon tier of scalloped lace. The plain back skirt fell into a chapel train with scalloped edging. Her elbow length nylon net veil was held by a tiered crown of crystals. She carried a cascading bouquet of lavender orchid with lilly of the valleys and streamers of ivy on a white Bible.

Maid of honor was Mrs. Nellie Cronk, sister of the bride. Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Leona H[illegible] of Monroe, sister of the bride; Miss Jeanette Fish of Ypsilanti, classmate of the bride; and the Jr. bridesmaid was Karen Olney, neice of the bridegroom, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Olney, Jr.

The bride's attendants all wore identical gowns of ice blue taffeta covered with matching blue chiffon in floor-length with fitted bodices. Their flowers were pink and white carnations.

C. J. Cronk, of Litchfield, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man; Junior and Richard Olney, brothers of the bridegroom, were ushers; and Charles L. Happy, of Monroe, nephew of the bride, was Junior usher; Kris Olney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Olney was flower girl; and Dale E. Happy was ring bearer.

Approximately 100 guests attended the reception in the church parlor, decorated for the event by Mrs. Richard Olney. The prettily decorated main table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake, baked by the bride's mother and decorated by Mrs. Ridley of Reading.

Guests were present from Quincy, Allen, Coldwater, Homer, Monroe, Union City, Litchfield, Three Rivers, Niles, Ypsilanti, Concord, Battle Creek, Eagle, Jackson, Moscow and Auburn, Ind.

For her going away dress the bride selected a white wool sheath dress with black accessories. The newly-

The bride is a 1963 graduate of Quincy high school and a 1967 graduate of South Bend College of Commerce. She is presently employed at the Coldwater branch of the Federal Mogul corporation as a secretary.

The bridegroom graduated from Quincy high school in 1963 and is engaged in farming with his father and brothers. He is an Airman 1/C in the Air Force National Guard.

Upon returning from their wedding trip the newlyweds will reside on their farm at 755 Daybury road, Rt. 3, Quincy.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents and a pre-nuptial shower was given by the bride's classmate, Miss Jeanette Fish, and Mrs. Christine Pickard.

LTCHFIELD — The South Litchfield Baptist church was the scene of the recent Sunday afternoon wedding ceremony that united Miss Ireue Janice Kellicut and Dwight Lee Olney in marriage. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. O. E. Ames of Okemos.

Preceding the ceremony, organ music was played by Mrs. Ralph Marshall of Allen and she accompanied James Gross, of Quincy, a former classmate of the bride, who sang, "I Love You Truly," and "Because." The "Lord's Prayer" was sung during the ceremony.

Baskets of white gladioli, white and pink daisies with candelabra, adorned the altar of the church. Boughs of pine centered with a yellow rose were placed in each window of the church. Each pew was set off with a white bow with streamers which were draped from pew to pew. The candles were lighted before the ceremony by Charles R. Happy of Monroe, brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel D. Kellicut and Mr. and Mrs. William Olney Sr., are the parents of the groom. Both parents are from rural Quincy blue flowers also caught up the streamers in hoops at various points.

The tables were covered with blue tissue paper and with ivory-white lace cloths. White spiral tapers and the bouquets of the bride and her attendants graced the bridal table. Behind the tables, streamers were draped along the wall and were held in place at the center by a pair of large white bells centered with blue flowers. The baskets of flowers used during the ceremony were arranged between the tables.

The four-tiered pedestal cake was topped by a miniature bride and groom in front of a heart and edged with lace. The cake was baked by the bride's mother and decorated by Mrs. Ridley of Reading. The groom's cake was also baked by the bride's mother and was decorated by Mrs. Richard Olney, who served the bride's cake. Mrs. Ruth Hoff of Niles served the groom's cake.

Nancy Winslow of Auburn, Ind. cousin of the bride, served the coffee; punch was served by Mrs. Mary Miller of Quincy, classmate of the bride, assisted by Mrs. Paul Holmes of Jackson, cousin of the bride

For a two-week honeymoon to California, the bride wore a white wool sheath dress with black accessories. Her corsage was the orchid removed from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Quincy high school, class of 1955 and a graduate of South Bend College of Commerce in 1956 and is employed at Federal-Mogul service in Coldwater.

The groom is a graduate of Quincy High School, class of 1953. He is also an Airman 1/C in the U.S. Air Force National Guard and is engaged in farming with his father and brothers.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Olney, Sr.

A pre-nuptial shower was given by Miss Jeanette Fish and Mrs. Christine Pickard.

The bride, given in marriage by her father and mother, wore a white floor length gown of hand clipped French lace over net and taffeta fashioned by her mother. The fitted bodice featured long lace sleeves and a scalloped neckline. The bouffant skirt worn over a hoop had an effect of tier upon tier of scalloped lace and the plain back skirt fell into a chapel train with scalloped edging.

Her elbow length nylon net veil was held in place by a tiered crown of crystals. She carried a cascade bouquet of a lavender orchid with lilies of the valley and streamers of ivy atop a white Bible. The ivy was grown from streamers which her sister had carried at her wedding.

The bride carried an off white handkerchief which her great grandmother had carried and has been carried by each generation. She also carried a white linen handkerchief edged with lace which was inscribed with her married name and date, a gift from her aunt and uncle. Her only jewelry was a single strand of crystal and matching earrings, a gift of the groom.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Nellie Cronk, sister of the bride, wearing an ice blue taffeta floor-length gown topped with a matching blue chiffon overskirt. The fitted bodice was accented with a blending blue chiffon draped cowl neckline with matching mitts.

Mrs. Leona Happy of Monroe, sister of the bride and Miss Jeanette Fish of Ypsilanti, classmate of the bride were the bridesmaids. The junior bridesmaid was Karen Olney, niece of the groom and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Olney Jr., of Quincy. All wore matching gowns to that of the matron of honor and all were made by the bride and her mother. The bridesmaids flowers were pink and white carnations with streamers of ivy.

C. J. Cronk, of Litchfield, brother-in-law of the bride, was the best man. Junior Olney and Richard Olney, brothers of the groom, were ushers and Charles L. Happy was the junior usher. He is the nephew of the bride and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Happy of Monroe.

Kris Olney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Olney was the flower girl and she was dressed identical to the bridesmaids. Dale E. Happy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Happy was the ring bearer.

The bride's mother donned a beige lace dress over taffeta with a scalloped neckline and white accessories. She chose a corsage of a white orchid with a yellow throat. The mother of the groom was attired in a navy blue sheath jacket-dress. Her corsage was identical to the bride's mother.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors for the 100 guests. Mrs. Richard Olney decorated the room with rows of white paper streamers originating from a decorated post in the center to the corners of the room. Pairs of white paper bells topped with clusters of light blue tissue paper flowers held the streamers in place. Nosegays of

The bride and groom opened the gifts, assisted by the bridesmaids and Kay Lampman, niece of the groom. Mrs. Ruth King, sister of the groom of Quincy, attended the guest book.

Guests were present from Quincy, Allen, Coldwater, Homer, Monroe, Union City, Litchfield, Three Rivers, Niles, Ypsilanti, Concord, Battle Creek, Jackson, Moscow, Mich. and Auburn, Ind.

Before leaving on a two week honeymoon to California, the bride donned a white wool sheath dress with black shoes and purse with a white hat and gloves. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The orchids for the wedding were a gift from the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Holmes of Jackson.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL - 1985

Hello once again from our house to your house whether it be near or far.

We didn't have any snow for Christmas last year, in fact, no snow to speak of till the middle of January, then we really had winter for a month, wind, snow and cold temperatures, but winter left us as fast as it come. In February, we got rain and it took the snow off in just a few days.

Dwight took down our big barn last winter, in fact he started in December with the help of his nephew, Bill Raymond, who took some of the old wooden siding and most of the old beams. One beam in particular was a 20" square by 35'. Bill had a plan to build an antique shop and wanted the beams and siding for it. We are glad they will be used and not destroyed. So with the good weather in Dec. & Jan. Dwight got it cleaned up pretty good, it was really a job. He pulled the old silo down too and buried it. We believe the barn was built around 1900, it was really getting in bad shape, he rebuilt on the same spot a 40 x 51 pole barn to house his semi and sheller in. So when it was too cold to work outside he worked in his other tool shed-building all his roof trusses and marking all his lumber for his new building. He put up his new building all by Himself, he only had help to put the steel on the roof by his two brothers the week of Decoration.

March come along with its damp winds. We had a surprise visit from our friends, the Wilker's from Minnesota who we met when we went on our Europe tour. We had a lovely evening with them and the next forenoon.

We went to the U.S. Virgin Islands the end of March and spent one week on the island of St. Thomas. We also went over to the island of St. John while there, it was a most enjoyable week of warm sunshine.

April was a beautiful month, we had a very early spring, which was welcome, even mowed lawn the middle of April and temperatures in the 80's for a week. My flowers were all out so early, Lilacs were gone by Mother's Day and the Iris were out on Mother's Day and Peony's on Decoration Day, all about two weeks early for here. We had a very dry spring and summer as the corn was all planted by the 8th of May. We didn't have much rain from Easter to the 27th of May. The crops and gardens didn't come up good as it was so dry.

My dad and I went mushrooming the 13th of May up at my folks cabin in northern Michigan. My mom wasn't up to going so far, as she was sick all winter with heart trouble. We were a little early for them, but we found 67 and they were all nice so we had quite a few to bring home. Dwight was busy working on his building so he didn't go.

Dwight started irrigating on the 3rd of July, much earlier than usual.

We had company from Florida in July, one of my classmates and her husband Crystol and Smith Hersh and Dwight's nephew and wife from Texas, Jim & Terri Olney. How nice to see them and have them take time to stop. One of Dwight's classmates from California was home in July to attend his dear moms funeral, Ray Boyer and wife Frances. Our sympathy goes to them both to see them on such a sad occasion.

We got up north the end of July for a few days and I caught my first walleye keeper. Dwight got a keeper last summer. My dad never got a keeper but he got some nice Bass keepers.

August 1, was Dwight's 50th birthday and when we got up that morn their was a sign in front of house that read "Look who is 50" Happy Birthday Dwight. That was his birthday card from my sister and husband Mell & U. U. I had a surprise picnic dinner for him at the lake with 16 of us there, family and neighbors. That was our highlight for August. We was cementing on his new shed and running the irrigation most of August.

The rains started coming in September and our yards and flowers were prettier then they had been all summer. We went back to the cabin the first part of Sept. & got in some more fishing. The 12th of September we left for the west coast. We spent the first night with the Wilker's in Minnesota and had a lovely late evening visit and nice visit the next A.M. had intended to stop and visit the Passow's in Wisconsin (more Europe travel friends) but couldn't make connections with them. Maybe next time. We had a lovely 18 day trip with our first stop at Glacier National Park, on across Idaho to Washington and visited the Snoqualmie Falls, on to Seattle where we took a harbor cruise and a bus tour of Seattle, ate at the waterfront a couple times and atop the space needle, went to Olympic National Park, the Boeing Plant, took a car ferry over to Victoria, Canada and spent the night there and visited the famous Butchart Gardens. One morning was spent at the lovely farm home of Bob & Shirley Muller in Redmond, Washington (more friends we met on our Europe tour). They took us on a countryside tour and over past more friends house the Fred & Miriam Keller, which wasn't home. The Muller's have two farms and the second one is over a hundred miles from them. They farm in the lush green valley, how different from Michigan, but so interesting to visit and see. After leaving Seattle we went to Mount Rainier National Park and to Mount St. Helens. Mount St. Helens had to be the highlight of our trip. One just can't believe the sights even standing on them. It has been five years and life is coming back, here and there a little pine tree is growing. From there on to Oregon and visited the Multnomah Falls and on to Yellowstone Park, where we spent a night in the Old Faithful Inn and viewed the great Old Faithful again, then on through Grand Teton National Park and home with a total of 6,372 miles traveled.

October brought the harvest of corn once again and it turned out real good for as dry as the summer was. Had alot of rain during harvest season and are still getting rain and we had some real nice Indian Summer days too.

Mother Olney is very good for her age, 87 years young. We enjoy her so much. My mother is doing real good for as sick as she was last winter, She took care of her garden produce and they went up north with us both times. We had an 80th birthday party for my dad in November with 30 family and friends here. He does real good too, he helps with the plowing and operates the sheller for the harvest of the corn for my brother-in-law. We will be celebrating my folks 61st wedding anniversary, my sister and brother-in-laws 35th wedding anniversary and my mothers 84th birthday on Christmas Day.

I enjoy my sewing and crafts items in the cold weather, at present my biggest project is a bedspread out of quilt blocks. I still do my garden and lawn in the summer time.

We also visted the Raymond Reiser's this fall (more travel friends). They were both fine and planning on spending the winter months in Florida.

Dwight's oldest brother and oldest sister retired this year. I can't believe how fast our life is going and how old we are getting.

This has been our year, the Lord has really been good to us giving us good health and a good year. Thanks to any of you who sent pictures last year and for all the nice letters and notes. I think I enjoy our cards and letters the most of anything. We will look forward to this years letters and your activities you have had the past year.

The year 1960 they purchased the 240 acre farm where they live.

1961 they traveled to California in eleven days for their honeymoon. Dwight was in farming parternship with his father and two brothers, they milked cows and raised hogs also. Irene was a steno clerk at Federal-Mogul. Dwight was still serving in the Air National Guard. He received his honorable discharge in 1963.

Dates of interest and highlights of their first 25 years:

They suffered the loss of Dwights' father in January 1968. This same year Dwight put up a 40x100 tool shed. May of 1969 Irene quit her job at Federal-Mogul. 1971 a 6 weeks old English Shepard came to live with them and they named her Snippie The year 1974 Dwight put up storage bins and a dryer for his corn crop. They enjoy traveling and this led to a trip with Irenes' parents to Hawaii. 1975 they traveled to Mexico. The milk cows were sold in 1976 & the farming is now crops. They purchased 35 acres of work ground, and a trip back to Hawaii. Then in 1977 a trip to California with her parents to visit relatives. They liked it so well they were back in 1980. 1978 Dwight put in an irrigation system for his corn. Another enjoyable trip was in 1979 which was a 21 day tour to Hawaii, New Zealand and Australia. From 1982 thru 1986 they traveled to Europe and London, Grand Cayman in the Caribbean the U. S. Virgin Islands of St. Thomas and St. John and Aruba in the Caribbean. A pet is like a member of the family and they lost their dear Snippie in 1984.

Dwights' 50th birthday in 1985 called for a surprise picnic with family and friends at the lake, planned by Irene. Dwight put up a new tool shed 40x51 which took the place of his big barn that was built around 1900. The old barn he removed during the winter of 1984-85. These first 25 years of married life has given them many enjoyable vacations and trips to Florida with his parents and to the upper peninsula of Michigan to her parents cabin. They both enjoy fishing and being outside in the warm weather.

Dwight does about all of his building and repairs including the remolding of their home. Irene enjoys sewing and crocheting. She does her hobbies in the winter and has her gardening in the summer. Their vacations have taken them to all the states now but Alaska. Irene belongs to the Dayburg Birthday Club and they attend the Dayburg Baptist Church.

We are happy to have this occasion today and happy to be able to say Mother Kellicut baked the Anniversary cake. Mr.& Mrs. Jack Nutt and Jason are attending the quest book. Sharing in this 25th Anniversary Party are the parents, Mr. & Mrs. L. D. Kellicut and Mary Olney. The sisters and families, Mr. & Mrs. C. J. Cronk and Mr. & Mrs. Charles R. Happy & families. Connie and Becky Happy are at the punch bowl and assisting mother with the cake and ice cream. Assisting with details is Ila McNall and Wanda Farwell, neighbors of the couple.

We thank you each and everyone for joining them this day.
You've added to their happiness in a very special way.
And as the years shall come and go, their dreams will give them pleasure and bring you back to them again.

THESE WERE HANDED OUT TO EACH COUPLE AS THEY LEFT!

Quilt Depicts State Fair History

PRIZE-WINNING EFFORT

By CAROLE DICKEY
cdickey@mediageneral.com

Irene Olney is a winter resident in Zephyrhills, and in the 15 years she has been leaving Michigan snow to enjoy southern sunshine, she has developed quite an affinity for Florida. So when she realized the Florida State Fair would be celebrating its 100th anniversary in 2004, Olney decided to make a quilted wall hanging to commemorate the occasion.

She began her project cutting out the shape of Florida, then added all the counties, and wrote the county names on using her computerized sewing machine. To incorporate the history theme, she researched in the library and found pictures from the fair over the last 100 years, had them printed on cloth and appliquéd them to the design.

"Roy Rogers went to the fair one year and I've got his picture on it," Olney said.

When she was finished, she entered it as a state fair exhibit last year and earned a blue ribbon. Then she donated the quilt to the fair, and it was put on display during the fair this year.

Irene Duffey, coordinator of the family living department for the Florida State Fair, called the wall hanging "fantastic."

Irene Olney stands beside her Florida wall hanging, which was created in 2004 to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Florida State Fair.

The Florida wall hanging was not Olney's first state-themed quilt. In 2000, she made a similar quilt for Michigan, which won a best of show at the Michigan State Fair and another best of show in a second fair.

Following that, the Michigan quilt went on tour.

"I had it on exhibit nearly all of that year in welcome centers – Mackinaw City, St. Ignace, Dundee – and in Lansing in the Capitol building," Olney said.

Olney has been sewing since she was 7, a tradition handed down from generation to generation.

"My mother made all of our clothes way back then. And of course, her mother and grandmother all sewed, so I've always sewed," Olney said.

She sewed on a Damascus by Montgomery Ward, which she still has.

"In fact, I've got doll dresses under the presser foot," Olney said.

While the treadle machine occupies an honored position in the house and in her memory, these days Olney turns to her computerized model. Not all of her quilt making is done by machine, however.

"I have machine-quilted two, but they are much nicer with hand quilting," she said.

Apparently the judges agree. 2005

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou are with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

LESTER WINSLOW OF AUBURN DIES

Lifelong Resident and Native of DeKalb County Passes Away after being Admitted to Hospital

Lester J. Winslow, 64, who had lived at Rt. 3, Auburn, Union township, all his life, passed away at 11:40 p.m. Sunday in the DeKalb Memorial hospital two hours after he was admitted. Death was attributed to an apparent heart attack.

Final rites will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Graffis funeral home in Waterloo, with Rev. C. Samuel Overmyer, pastor of the Waterloo First United Methodist church, officiating. Burial will be in the Roselawn cemetery near Auburn.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Mr. Winslow was a lathe operator at the Rieke Corporation in Auburn.

He was born June 3, 1904, in Union township, the son of the late Justus A. and Nellie Shoemaker Winslow. He was married March 31, 1934 in Madison, Ind., to Edith Warstler, who survives.

Others surviving include two sons, Elmer Winslow of 211 West Liberty street, Butler and Lionel Winslow, Rt. 3, Auburn; a daughter, Mrs. Nancy Ware of 110 West 15th street, Auburn; a sister, Mrs. Lionel Kellicut of Quincy, Michigan, and five grandchildren.

He was a member of the Auburn Moose lodge.

Dear friends.

Sorry to hear she's not near that you lost your brother. Sorrow comes when least expected. Two years ago in August I lost one of my three brothers, so I can feel for you and yours at this time. Life must go on and we must lend our hopes and look to Him who gives strength in all our needs. Our thoughts are with you all.

Love, Estrid.

THE GREETING

Friends, we have gathered here to praise God and to witness to our faith as we celebrate the life of Elmer Winslow.

THE GATHERING

We come together in grief, acknowledging our human loss. May God grant that in pain we may find comfort, in sorrow, hope, in death, resurrection.

SERMON

COMMENDATION

O God, all that you have given us is yours,
As fruit you gave Elmer to us,
so now we give Elmer back to you.
Raise Elmer up with all your people.
Receive us also, and raise us into a new life.
Help us so to love and serve you in this world that we may enter into your joy in the world to come.

THE BENEDICTION

LIFE'S WEAVING

My life is but a weaving
Between my God and me;
I may not choose the colors,
He knows what they should be
For He can view the pattern
Upon the upper side,
While I can see it only
On this, the under side.

Sometimes He weaveth sorrow,
Which seemeth strange to me;
But I will trust His judgement,
And work on faithfully
'Tis He who fills the shuttle,
He knows just what is best;
So I shall weave in earnest
And leave with Him the rest.

At last, when life is ended,
With Him I shall abide,
Then I may view the pattern
Upon the upper side;
Then I shall know the reason
Why pain with joy entwined,
Was woven in the fabric
Of life that God designed.

Young Couple Married in an Auburn Church

MR. AND MRS. LIONEL EDWARD WINSLOW

Miss Frances Eileen Wyne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wyne of Rt. 2, Auburn, became the bride of Lionel Edward Winslow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Winslow of Rt. 3, Auburn at the First Presbyterian church in Auburn on Saturday afternoon, June 22.

A fifteen-minute musicale preceded the ceremony with Mrs. Gailard Cramer at the organ. John Smith sang "O Perfect Love," "O Love Divine," and "Entreat Me not to Leave Thee."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, walked down the white carpeted aisle dressed in a gown of white Chantilly lace. It featured a fitted lace bodice and sabrina neckline, with long tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt featured a lace overskirt and alternating ruffles of Chantilly lace and pleated tulle with a scalloped bottom and chapel train.

A fingertip length veil of pure silk illusion was secured by a crown of lilies of the valley and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Walker, sister of the bride, selected a dress of mint green chiffon with a bouffant skirt and lace jacket, she wore white lace gloves, white net hat trimmed with bows and carried a hand bouquet of yellow carnations.

The bridesmaids, Misses Nancy Winslow, sister of the groom and Nancy George, friend of the bride, of Auburn, wore dresses of yellow [illegible] with matching [illegible] wore white lace gloves, white net hats trimmed with bows and carried hand bouquets of green carnations.

Serving as best man was Elmer Winslow, brother of the groom. Ushers were Robert Walker, brother-in-law of the bride, and Duaine Healy, friend of the groom, both of Auburn. They wore white jackets and black trousers.

Janet Walker, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was white dacron trimmed with satin bows and lace with a cummerbund of mint green taffeta. Her headpiece was of mint green taffeta trimmed with white net and flowers. She wore white gloves and carried a basket of white daisies.

Larry Carper of Auburn carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Mrs. Wyne chose a dress of light blue net with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Winslow chose a beige dress of woven ribbon with beige and brown accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's grandmother, Mrs. Anna Coak of Garrett, wore black and white with a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. Serving were Mrs. Norman Coak of Monroeville, aunt of the groom; Mrs. Duaine Healy, Joan Drerup, and Sherry Steffen all of Auburn.

Following a wedding trip south the couple are now at home at 3842 Nansemond Circle, Norfolk, Virginia.

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep
I am a thousand winds that blow
I am the diamond glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain, when you wake in morning hush.
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circling flight
I am the soft starlight at night
Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep

AUBURN — Services for Jack Ware, 61, will be Thursday at 11 a.m. in McComb, Dilgard & Cline Funeral Home, Auburn.

Friends may call Wednesday from 4-8 p.m. in the funeral home.

Mr. Ware died Monday at 8:30 a.m. in DeKalb Memorial Hospital, Auburn.

A lifetime resident of Auburn, he was former owner of Allen Electric Co. in Auburn. He most recently had been a salesman for Builders Square. He was a veteran of the Korean conflict.

He was born Sept. 9, 1933, in Auburn. His mother and stepfather, Helen A. (Sleatz) and Gale C. Allen, survive and his father, Cash Ware, is deceased.

He married Nancy Winslow on Aug. 21, 1965, in Auburn, and she survives.

Also surviving are two daughters, Susan A. Robinett of Auburn and Jennifer E. Ware, at home; one brother, Ronald Ware of Fort Wayne; and one sister, Jacqueline Smith of Fort Wayne.

The Rev. Tim Powers, associate pastor of the First United Methodist Church, Auburn, will officiate at the funeral. Burial will be in Roselawn Cemetery, Auburn.

Memorial contributions may be given to the DeKalb Central Music Association or the First United Methodist Church, Auburn.

Thank you for the beautiful flowers. We appreciated them.

Obituary.

Henry T. Shoemaker was born August 7, 1853, near Waterloo, Indiana, and departed this life last Friday evening, August 17, 1897, at the age of 44 years and 20 days. He was united in christian marriage December 25, 1873 to Miss Harriet Miser. To this happy union were born four children, all of whom survive him. Fourteen years ago last April Mr. Shoemaker with his family moved to Auburn, where they have since lived. During the time that he lived here he was employed by both the Kiblinger and Zimmerman manufactories as painter. He was a skilled workman and was held in high esteem by his employer and fellow-workmen. He was in the employ of the Zimmerman Carriage Factory when he took sick, nine weeks ago. Since that time he has been a great sufferer, yet he bore his afflictions in patience, and toward the last he longed for death to come. He said to his beloved companion a short time before his death that he was not afraid to die, that God had forgiven his sins. There was one thing however that inclined him to cling to life as long as possible, and that was the love he had for his family. He was deeply concerned about their welfare, as any affectionate and thoughtful father would be. Mr. S. was a man who loved his family and was devoted to their interests. He did all within his power to make home pleasant and life happy, and by so doing he endeared himself to his wife and children and will never fade from their memories. His seat being empty will always be missed. Mr. Shoemaker was a man of excellent social qualities, and anyone could enjoy being in his company; he was a genial, good-natured, whole-souled man. He was not a member of any church in Auburn, yet he was a firm believer in the mission of the church, and in doing what is right. He was a loyal citizen, a good neighbor, a loving companion and an affectionate father. He leaves to mourn his death a wife, four children, a half-sister and half-brother, besides many other friends.

A husband dear has gone to rest,
His sufferings now are o'er;
The Saviour always does the right,
He's trod the way before.

Dearest Henry, thou hast left us,
And we deeply mourn our loss;
But our sorrow brings us nearer
To the foot of Jesus' cross.

Dearest papa, we shall never See your smiling face again;
But we hope thou'rt with the angels,
Far beyond this world of pain.

Let us live for Christ, our Saviour,
That when we shall come to die,
We shall meet with friends departed,
Ne'er to part in Heaven on high.

The funeral services were conducted from the house, Sabbath afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Interment in Woodlawn cemetery, Rev. J. D. Brosy officiating. *

I believe the death date should read Aug. 27.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Harriet C. Shoemaker was born August 11, 1853, and died at her home on South VanBuren street, last Wednesday, February 14, 1900, at the age of 46 years, 6 months and 3 days. On the 25th of December, 1873, she was united in marriage to Henry Shoemaker. To them were born four children, three daughters and one son, all of whom are still living. They moved to Auburn about 17 years ago, where they have since lived. Two years ago last August Mr. Shoemaker died, leaving his wife to carry on the affairs of the home life, which she did with credit to herself. Mrs. Shoemaker was a hard working woman, but never complained about her lot in life. She was a tender and loving mother, and a faithful wife. In her former life she was a member of the Evangelical church in Waterloo, Ind., but since living in Auburn was a member of no church. During her last illness, which was one of intense suffering, she renewed her love for her Master and confessed Christ, and said, "I am ready and willing to go." Just before death came she gave a final admonition to her children whom she loved so much, saying to each, "be good and live right." Mrs. Shoemaker leaves to mourn her death four children, two grandchildren, five sisters and two brothers besides many other friends. The funeral service was conducted from the Lutheran church Friday at 2 p. m. Interment took place in Woodlawn cemetery, J. D. Brosy officiating

FROM HONOLULU.

The following letter from corporal Alex McDonald, of Battery A, Sixth Artillery has been received by Mrs. Henry Shoemaker:

HONOLULU, H. I., Oct. 22, '99.

Dear Mrs. Shoemaker:—It has been so long since I heard from you, or written to you, I feel that I would like to hear from you, so I hope you will not think me forward, since I take it upon myself to write.

I wrote to you when I was on the train, going from St. Augustine to San Francisco, and waited a long time after I got here, expecting an answer from that letter. But I suppose you thought I would write again after I arrived here, and when I come to think of it, I believe I should have written to you from here if I wanted an answer.

I have corresponded with several people of Auburn since I have been here in the Sandwich Islands—Capt. Lahnum, Mr. and Mrs. Lane, and some of my old comrades. I have inquired after you a couple of times. I have been informed that Nellie is married and has been for some time. Good luck and a long and happy life for Nellie. She is truly a woman who deserves blessing and prosperity. Though I was only with you six months, and it has been more than thirteen months since I was last at your house. Still I cannot think of you or any of the family only as very near and intimate friends.

I trust you will not fail to write to me sometime in the near future, and and when you do, I wish you would tell me of Belle, of Goldie,, and all, for I would be pleased to hear from them. But much more pleased to hear from them if they would care to write. I often think of the old saying, "Should old acquaintances be forgotten?" Now I shall try not to write too long a letter this time. It is a failing of mine to write long letters; but I shall only tell you a few things about myself, and how I have fared since I left my native shores.

Truly, if I never expected to get back again, I would regret the day I ever passed out the Golden Gate. I did regret it any way, shortly after I got out to sea, for I got so severely seasick that I did not know what to do. I did not care whether I was living or dead, I felt so bad. I did not eat anything until the fifth day out. I can not express to you how glad I was to see these Islands, and to get my feet on mother earth again. But that is all over now and I am very glad that I am here.

I truly believe this is the finest country in the world. There are birds and flowers and sunshine the year round. The trees are always green and the tropical fruits grow in abundance. It is said that the pineapples and bananas grown here are the finest flavored in the world. Among other fruits, there is the pomegranate, dates, figs, cocoanuts, Guavas, mountain-apples, limes and many others which I cannot name.

The first three months here I was stationed at camp McKinley which is about three miles from town. It is near the seacoast; the quarters are good and there is an excellent place to bathe. The battery which I belong to is now in the city, guarding the palace and judiciary building, and are quartered in the barracks formerly occupied by the royal army. I have been promoted since I came here, have been appointed corporal. I think I am becoming well instructed in the school of a soldier. I understand the U. S. army and navy signal code and have had some practice at signaling. I also know the hospital, light artillery, and infantry drill. It is my desire to be thoroughly schooled in the art of war. The first opportunity I have I shall go to post school or artillery school where I can learn of the construction of dynamite bombs, time and percussion fuses, etc.

Well I have written a big letter so I will close, with love and regards to all, hoping to hear from you in the near future I remain—ever the same,

A MACDONALD, Corp.

Battery A, 6th Art'y. U.S.A., Honolulu, H. I.

This letter was written in 1899 to Mrs. Henry(Harriet) Shoemaker. She was the mother to Nellie (Shoemaker) Winslow and the grandmother to Harriet (Winslow) Kellicut. This was written Oct. 22, 1899 and Mrs. Harriet Shoemaker died Feb. 14, 1900. He talks in the letter about [Nellie, Belle & Goldie], they are all daughters of Mrs. Harriet Shoemaker. Don't know who the man was that wrote the letter.

Aged Man Dies Of Heart Attack In Business District

Frank T. Shoemaker, 75, of 112 North Indiana avenue, retired cigar maker, died suddenly in a heart attack in the stairway leading to the I. O. O. F. lodge rooms in the 100 block of East Lincoln avenue at 4:15 p. m. Friday.

Mr. Shoemaker, a native of Waterloo, Ind., who came to Goshen from Auburn 38 years ago, had been suffering from a heart condition for the past two and a half years.

Born March 5, 1877, Mr. Shoemaker was a son of Henry T. and Harriet (Miser) Shoemaker. His wife, the former Cora M. Stringfellow, died in 1931. Mr. Shoemaker was a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. James B. Stringfellow, with whom he resided; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Friends will be received at the sister's home until 11:00 a. m. Monday and funeral services will be held at the Stiver funeral home Monday at 1:00 p. m. The Rev. Ward Unverrich, of Elkhart, and the Rev. Robert McBrier, of Bremen, will officiate and burial will be in Woodlawn cemetery, Auburn.

MRS. FRANK SHOEMAKER BURIED IN AUBURN

Mrs. J. A. Winslow of northeast of Auburn, received word of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Shoemaker of Goshen, which occurred very suddenly Sunday night at 9 o'clock from a heart attack.

Mrs. Shoemaker, who was 55 years of age, buried her mother, Mrs. Anna Stringfellow, just four weeks ago. Mrs. Stringfellow was making her home with Mrs. Shoemaker at the time of her death.

Funeral services were held at the late home at Goshen Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock after which the body was brought to Auburn between 3:30 and 4 o'clock for burial in Woodlawn cemetery.

Surviving are the husband; three sisters, Mrs. Fred Wilson of Goshen, Mrs. Will Kemple of Toledo, O., and Mrs. Ida Good of Ohio and three brothers, Will and James of Goshen and John of Albion.

Mrs. Frank Shoemaker of Goshen, formerly Miss Cora Stringfellow of Auburn, was buried in Woodlawn cemetery in Auburn Wednesday afternoon following funeral services at the late residence at Goshen at 1 o'clock.

Frank Thornton Shoemaker & Cora May Stringfellow-This is their wedding picture, married January 8, 1894. Frank was born March 5, 1877, died January 31, 1952. Cora was born Nov. 27, 1875 and died April 19, 1931. They are both buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Auburn, Indiana, beside his parents -Henry Thomas & Harriet Cordelia (Miser) Shoemaker. They had two children and they are buried beside Frank & Cora, Frank never put markers on for the children, why no one knows. So the three Kellicut Sisters-Leona Happy, Nellie Cronk & Irene Olney, put stones on the two children's graves in 1994. They have gone to the graves for years with their mother, Harriet C. (Winslow) Kellicut. Frank was an Uncle to Harriet and a brother to Nellie V. Winslow, Nellie was the mother of Harriet (Winslow) Kellicut. The flower beside this picture was from Frank Shoemakers funeral in 1952, it was saved by Irene (Kellicut) Olney. Frank used to come to the Kellicut home and stay and bring the kids things and always buy them an ice cream cone in Quincy, Mi. when Harriet Kellicut would go pick him up from the bus. He come by bus from Goshen Ind. He was a cigar maker, enjoyed hunting and fishing. He went on hunting trips to northern Michigan with Lionel & Harriet Kellicut and Lester Winslow. He also lived to see Lionel & Harriet Kellicut's cabin they built in northern Michigan in 1950.

SCALD WAS FATAL

DEATH OF LITTLE THELMAR SHOEMAKER.

SAD AFFAIR IN A BUCHANAN STREET HOME.

PARENTS WERE BOTH ABSENT

LITTLE ONE LINGERS IN HOURS OF SUFFERING.

Thelmar, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shoemaker, of 314 Buchanan street, died at 1 o'clock this morning as the result of a distressing accident at the home just before noon on Tuesday. The mother was absent at the time, having gone to the depot to meet a sister, who was coming to make her a visit. Left at home was the little daughter, three years of age, in charge of the grandmother.

The little one was in a room adjoining the kitchen when the grandmother lifted a wash boiler of nearly boiling water from the stove and placed it upon the floor. She left the room for a moment, but was soon recalled by the screams of the little one, who had scampered across the room and fallen into the boiler of steaming hot water. The grandmother dragged the little one from the water, and a physician was hurriedly summoned.

It was found that the entire right side of the little girl, from her foot to her shoulder, had been scalded in a frightful manner, so deeply that the skin dropped in great patches from the flesh. The burn was so extensive that medical skill was powerless to avert fatal consequences, and the babe died after more than twelve hours of suffering, retaining consciousness until within a few minutes of her death. The father of the little one, Frank Shoemaker, is a cigarmaker and is employed at Kendallville.

The remains will be shipped to Auburn, the former home of the family, at noon tomorrow. 1901

So long.

Frank T. Shoemaker cigar maker- 5 March 1877 Born- 18 Jan 1952 died
Leona Kellicut always thought U. Frank worked in Chicago, Ill. in the Cigar factory, she always heard them say in Chicago. She was born in 1930 and used to go stay with her Grandmother Nellie(Shoemaker)Winslow, which was a sister to Frank.
Donnie Stringfellow born 1931, said U. Frank lived with them every since he could remember and he was always retired and he never knew he worked in a cigar factory anywhere, but he said if he did, it must of been in Goshen, but he remembered that U. Frank sent after tobacco to Ky. or Tenn. and he had a table up in attic where he rolled his cigars. Donnie was 18 when his father died and 20 when his mom and U. Frank died.
Diana Stringfellow just remembers him setting in a shed out back of Aunt Goldies and he would have a big bowl of pop corn on his lap.

Edith Winslow, wife of Lester Winslow, they were married in 1934 and she said the cigar factory closed that U. Frank worked in and he never had any money and stayed with his sister Nellie Winslow at times also She thought he worked in Goshen at the cigar factory when he worked.

The picture of U. Frank working in the Cigar Factory in Chicago, Ill. was 1911 so he was 34 years old His wife died in 1931, he was 54 & living in Goshen then.

Harriett(Winslow)Kellicut always told her kids (Irene(Kellicut)Olney that U. Frank felt so bad when his wife died that he never wanted to marry again and he lost both of his children, don't know when he went to live with his sisters, must be shortly after his wife died. He always come and stayed at Harriet Kellicut's alot too in the 1940's and went hunting with them so up until he died in 1952.

DONELDIA HARRIET LOUISE HIPP daughter of Nora Belle Shoemaker and Fredrick Hipp (b) April 15, 1901, Auburn, Ind. The family moved to Toledo, Ohio. She worked down town and had to take the trolley to and from work. When getting off the trolley one evening she was hit by a dept. store truck and dragged several feet in the cindars that were spread along the track. Her knees were injured causing her to be under doctor's care for several months. She enjoyed singing in the choir at Redeemer Lutheran Church and taught Sunday School. She married ARTHUR FRANKLIN STALLBAUM at Redeemer Lutheran Church at noon Sunday June 23, 1923. After Arthur's death she moved to Covina, Ca. to be near her daughter, Vaneta, and family. She was a very loving wife, mother and grandmother.... always wanted to be independent so lived in a small apartment nearby. In Dec. of 1982 she had caratoid artery surgery and mini strokes occured (d) Maroh 30, 1982. She wanted to be buried next to Arthur in Toledo Memorial Park so arrangements were made to fly her on the same plane with family back home. However, the flight was delayed several hours in Denver, Colo. due to a snow storm. the family had to wait for a plane going to Detroit, Mi, then on another plane to Toledo. After the family finally arrived at Toledo Airport, they were told Doneldia was not transferred to plane going to Toledo. The mortuary came to pick up her body and was told about the problem, so thoughtfully made the decision to drive to Detroit to bring her body back. The services went well April 6, even tho' all the mixup

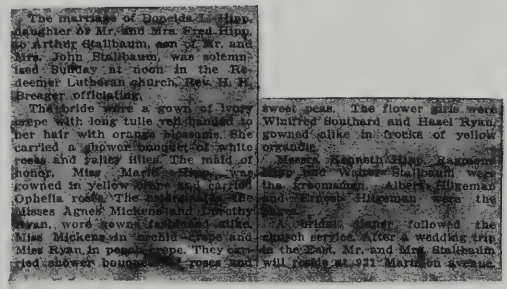
A WW1 veteran, at Chillicothe, Ohio in medical ward. Worked at Tiedktes, was a foreman in the testing lab. at Plaskon Div. of Libbey Glass, they produced raw materials of plastic products to be molded into many different items such as dishes, appliance handles, etc. Enjoyed hunting, fishing at his uncle August Harder's farm in Oak Harbor, Ohio. (d) of pneumonia after a heart attack Feb. 11, 1976 at Toledo, Ohio. buried Toledo Memorial Park, Sylvania, Ohio

Arthur's father, Joseph J. F. (?) Stallbaum, (b) Feb. 12, 1862 in Germany (d) Jan. 24, 1940. Loved to garden and made various wines for family. Married Marie Christine Harder (b) Nov. 8, 1870 in Genoa, Ohio (d) Oct. 23, 1923 in Toledo, both buried in Forest Lawn Cemetary. Toledo.



The marriage of Doneida L. Hipp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hipp, to Arthur Stallbaum, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stallbaum, was solemnized Sunday at noon in the Redeemer Lutheran church, Rev. H. F. Dreager officiating.

The bride wore a gown of ivory crepe with long tulle veil caught in her hair with orange blossoms. She carried a flower bouquet of white roses and baby lilies. The maid of honor, Miss Marie Hipp, was gowned in yellow crepe and carried Ophelia roses. The bridesmaids, the Misses Agnes Mickens and Dorothy Ryan, wore gowns fashioned alike. Miss Mickens in orchid crepe and Miss Ryan in peach crepe. They carried bouquets of roses and sweet peas. The flower girls were Whitfred Southard and Hazel Ryan, gowned alike in frocks of yellow organdie.

Messrs. Kenneth Hipp, Raymond and Walter Stallbaum were the groomsmen. Albert Hilgeman and Ernest Hilgeman were the ushers.

A bridal dinner followed the church service. After a wedding trip the bride and groom will reside at 921 Marmon avenue.

With sadness in my heart I wanted to let you know that Mom passed away on June 30.

She went into the hospital with an infection, which could never be defined, and edema. After five days, the Doctors suddenly decided she needed gall bladder surgery, but unfortunately she never recovered from the surgery. She passed away one week later.

She enjoyed the many memories, cards, letters, and phone calls she exchanged with you, and truly treasured your friendship. She had a special place in her heart for you.

Her gracious heart was like a glowing star, but her spirit will brighten up another place now to be always watching over you.

Love to you,
Pam Baldwin (Vaneta's Daughter)

Son of Otto George Kenneth + Leona Hipp
To announce the arrival of Name Kenneth Hipp Jr.
Date May 27th 1931
Weight 7lb. 6oz.
Jackson, Mich.

I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly
Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.

And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's Will.

There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth-
You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!

Raymond F. Hipp

Raymond F. Hipp, 44, of 809 Denton Dr., collapsed and died last night after he shoveled snow from the sidewalk in front of his home. Fire Capt. William Reichard said death apparently was caused by heart attack from overexertion.

Born in Cardington, O., Mr. Hipp lived 42 years here. He was employed 21 years by the Plaskon Division of Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Co. For the last several years he operated a hardware at Tremainsville, Douglas and Laskey Rds. He was a member of Bay View Yacht Club and Redeemer Lutheran Church.

Surviving are his wife, Eunice; daughter, Marilyn Jo; father, Frederick, and sister, Mrs. Doneldia Stallbaum, all of Toledo, and brother, Kenneth G. Hipp, Jackson, Mich.

The body is in the H. H. Birkenkamp Mortuary, where services will be Tuesday at 1:30 p.m.

"God is Love!"
How sweet this sentence
To our listening ear;
Telling us He shares each burden
And each cross severe;
Bidding us to trust His promise
Till we realize
That the love of our dear Father
Never, never dies!

Diane & Robert Stringfellow-April 24, 1997-Diane, daughter of Robert: Robert told us of their visits to Aunt Nellie's when he was a child; We always had to take extra axles for the car & When we would get there Aunt Nellie would go to the cellar and get a ham out & it would all be covered with green mold and we would have a feast. The only time they would see Uncle Justus was at meal time, after they completed the meal, Justus would disappear, never knew where he went. When they went to visit Aunt Belle, in Toledo, Uncle Fred had beer & german food. Dad (Which was James B. Stringfellow) and Uncle Fred always hung out in the basement.[Aunt Nellie & Aunt Belle were sisters to Robert's mother]

James & Betty Stringfellow-Middlebury, Ind.
April 21, 1995

When we visited James & Betty Stringfellow in 1995, he recalled of their family trips with his parents, Goldie & Jim, to go see Aunt Nellie and Uncle Justus Winslow in Auburn, Ind. (Nellie & Goldie were sisters) It was a long trip from Goshen to Auburn, Ind. and they would always take an extra axle for the car and they always had to change it going or coming. He thought Uncle Justus was odd, they always all ate dinner together then Uncle Justus would always disappear and they never saw him again before they left. This was probably in the 1930's.

April 21, 1995-James, son of Goldie (Shoemaker) Stringfellow-Nellie, Irene & James 2nd cousins

THE LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil; for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

HOW FRANK YOUNG IS RELATED TO LEONA, NELLIE & IRENE KELLICUT.

We go to his grave every year in Waterloo, Ind.

Henry Thomas Shoemaker & Jennie Bell Young were 1st cousins, so that makes Henry Thomas Shoemaker's children(Nellie, Frank, Nora Belle & Goldie) and Jennie Bell Young's children (Frank Carleton, & Kathryn Francis) 2nd cousins; So Frank Young was a third cousin to Harriet (Winslow) Kellicut [daughter of Nellie Shoemaker] and Frank Young was a 4th cousin to Leona, Nellie & Irene Kellicut.

Frank and Lillian Young are in alot of the Winslow pictures. They come to Nellie & Justus Winslows alot for week-ends as they lived in Chicago, Ill. Frank took alot of the pictures. When he retired he & Lilly moved to Linn Creek, No. & he died shortly after with Cancer. Irene Kellicut stopped on honeymoon to see Lilly in 1961.

PLEASE SEE PAGE 541 AND 548 FOR MORE DETAILS OF EMANUEL R. SHOEMAKER.

Emanuel R. Shoemaker.

BORN APRIL 15 1832—DIED SEPTEMBER 13 1903.

Throughout this country the Pennsylvania Germans are known for their honesty, frugality and industry. Among the descendants of this people were Henry Shoemaker and Mary Wagoner his wife, parents of a large family. Emanuel R. Shoemaker, the third child of the family, was born on April 15, 1832 at Stoyestown, Somerset county, Pennsylvania, the family home. The father was a tailor by trade, and plodded along at his bench to earn a living for his wife and children, which at this time numbered six. To the parents life was a struggle for existence. Stories came to them of the lands of the new West and they turned their attention in that direction with the hope that they might there found a new home.

In a sketch written by himself, Emanuel R. Shoemaker gives a graphic description of the journey of the Shoemaker family, by wagon, from Pennsylvania to DeKalb County Ind., in 1840. When the family arrived in Auburn, the father left them and went out to Smithfield township to select the land now known as the Shoemaker homestead. It was not an inviting place to which the pioneer brought his family. It was reached through an almost trackless forest. The wagon, enclosed, provided a place to sleep, and the water supply was obtained from the swamps. A log house was finally built, and the first crop planted among the roots of the trees. Then came the dread fever which brought down the whole family. Many were the hardships endured and vivid scenes to the subject of this sketch were the journeys to the mills at Orland and Flint and later at Hamilton. In the midst of poverty, the people of that region never closed their doors to the stranger, and perhaps in those early days Emanuel Shoemaker cultivated that spirit of hospitality that always made his home free to all his friends.

In the early fifties, fabulous stories of the wonderful gold discoveries in California came to him. At the age of twenty accompanied by his father and sister Catherine, they traveled overland, the journey occupying five months and six days. The life in California was a hard struggle. In 1854 the father and sister returned to Indiana, and the next year he gathered what money he had made and for which he had endured so many hardships in order to obtain a start in life, and returned home by the way of Panama and New York.

After the death of his father, which occurred in March, 1856, he took charge of the farm. When on a journey to Pennsylvania with his mother they stopped in Stark county, Ohio, and there he met Harriet J. Miller, to whom he was married on September 16 1857, and to them were born three children, Henry D. Shoemaker, May Shoemaker Dilla and Scott S Shoemaker, who died June 10, 1898. Five grand children have been added to the family, Harriette and Princess Dilla, Rheua, Russell and Maud Shoemaker. On their return home he purchased from the heirs of his father their interest in the farm and became its sole owner. Here the husband and wife toiled for years, and deprived themselves of many comforts of life that others enjoyed. To industry they added business methods and new acres were acquired, forests were felled, fields drained and buildings erected and today the Shoemaker farm in Smithfield stands as a monument to their labors. In 1895 they gave to their two sons the active management of the farm, built and moved into their present home in Waterloo. From that time, he assisted on the farm and also became engaged in County duties, always working harder than the condition of his health warranted. On Tuesday June the 16, while thus engaged he was suddenly taken with hemorrhage of the stomach, followed later on by more severe attacks. These left him in such a weakened condition that he was unable to withstand other complications which developed in his case making recovery impossible. All summer his life hung by a thread which death peacefully severed in the early morning hours of Sunday September 13. 1903

He was a public man. For six years he filled the position of County Commissioner, and so well were the public pleased with his services that after a term of three years he was re-elected. He was a candidate on the democratic ticket, but it must not be understood that he was a partisan, he was more of a reformer. In his public life he never settled a question on party lines. To him, public interests were always paramount to individual interests. He represented the entire people and not a political division. His private business had been conducted along methodical and economical lines, and he reasoned well when he said that public affairs could, and should be treated in the same way. When he took his seat as Commissioner, DeKalb county was bending under a heavy burden. With the active cooperation of his associates on the board the work of reorganization was commenced, strict business principles were applied in the conduct of county matters, and it was not long before their efforts bore good fruit. Where there had been a wanton waste of money a halt was called; the pruning knife was used deliberately and fearlessly. No bill was ever permitted to pass without he personally knew that the county had received a valuable consideration for the money appropriated. When the interests of friends and acquaintances clashed with the interests of the people he remained faithful to his trust, although it frequently cost him the friendship of years. No sacrifice was too great for him, and no detail too minute to inquire into. Along with these excellent qualifications he was a keen observer, and his fund of information on township and county matters was widespread and varied. His knowledge of ditches, roads, and bridges was practical. In his entire public life he was actuated by but one motive, and that was to serve faithfully the people who honored him with their confidence. When the public service called for the selection of a capable man he never paused to ask what party the man should come from; could he do the work well was the only credential required. Like every other faithful and conscientious servant, he won the applause of men of all political parties, and DeKalb county mourns the loss of an official whose place cannot be easily filled. The mistakes he may have made in his public life were not selfish ones, and when he erred it was never to the detriment of his constituents

In his religious theories, he may have differed from the majority of his neighbors and friends, but in every step in the evolution of his belief he was consistent. He formed his early religious ideas from attending the country services, and in those early days the preacher and revivalist were looked upon as oracles of learning, and the church was the spiritual, intellectual and social center of the community. In his early manhood he was a believer in the orthodox faith, and united with the United Brethren Church. Later on family worship was held in his home, and the Bible was read and studied. It was when he had reached the prime of manhood along in the early seventies, that his faith began to waver through reading the sermons of Henry Ward Beecher. Throughout his life he held that each man must work out his own religious faith. That the teachings of another should never be accepted until the intellect was satisfied that the doctrines were true. He was an earnest and conscientious investigator for the truth, and after much reading and study of the liberal and scientific writers he was led to accept the doctrines of Materialism The deistic writings of Thomas Paine attracted him, and he frequently stated that he believed in the Golded Rule of Paine -"The world is my country -To do good my Religion." Among the modern writers he was especially pleased with the crisp sentences and ready wit of Robert G. Ingersoll. But Materialism, or the doctrine that "Death ends all" failed to satisfy his religious wants. During the last twentyfive years he has been investigating Spiritualism and it can be said that this beautiful faith of a survival of the conditions of death and eternal spiritual evolution appealed stronger to his reason and his longings than any thing he had ever investigated. For his nature combined the strongest of rationalistic proclivities, and the most intense love for his wife, children and friends. The two extremes met in him, the daring thinker whom adverse criticism could not daunt, the strong emotional nature, capable of the supreme pangs of pain at the bare suspicion of a failure to continue the great Feast of Love, in a kingdom where no useless waste of human agony and tears can exist.

Thus out of the web of environment, the early privations and the stern law of necessity that commanded him to study the economic laws governing the material affairs of men and nations was evolved the strength and ability to manage successfully the finances of the individual and the county. Early adversity did for Emanuel R. Shoemaker that which a life of luxury could not have done. It gave him an indomitable will, thoroughly educated to use its own latent powers in every domain of life. To him "Honesty was not the best policy—it was the only avenue to reach the workshop where the sculptor, Destiny could make of his mental and spiritual aggregation An Honest Man. He was deeply pained, and his tender heart fought against the stern law of Principle, when he was forced at its behest to antagonize a friend. Few knew or realized how deeply the arrows of envy and falsehood sank into its warm and vulnerable tissues. Doubtless the only motto that he would wish his friends to remember as symbolizing his motives all through life is—He did Right for Right's sake.

A . COPY OF A LETTER WRITTEN BY E. R. SHOEMAKER AT DOWNIEVILLE? CAL. OCT.8.I854 TO HIS SISTER AND BROTHER-IN-LAW MR. & MRS. FRANCIS IN IND.

DOWNIEVILLE, CAL. OCT. 8, I854.

Dearly Beloved Friends, all of you are not absent from my mind but a short space of time at once.

Mr. Francis & Dear Sister, I now shall endeavor to give you a short sentence of my composition on paper, which is not as pleasant as it would be, to be where I could speak as formely. I will just tell you how and where I have been since you departed.I should first state that my health is tolerable good; hoping that these lines will find you in good health and perfectly happy and friends plenty.

Well to return to my story, after I bid you farewell I made my way out of the croud and got on to a pile of cord wood there I set untill your Boat put out and firedthe connon, then I concluded to not stay long in that place, so I went and got abord of a Steamer that was going up to Sacramento. I went to bed soon but could sleep but little.

My passage on the boat was $950.00. In the morning which was Sunday, I was in Sacremento, I thought that I would go and get a ticket on the stage, so I put for the office and got my ticket for Marysville, the stage was all ready and I got in, I sat there a minute, so here come a person to get in, I thought I knew him and I called him Ben Shamel he said that was his name, but he did not know me, I told him who I was. Then we were all right, so we came up to Marysville. We put up at the Bee Hive Hotel and I found the blankets where you left them. After supper we went to church. In the morning we left for Foster's Bar, arived there all right, on tuesday we came up to the old home. I swept the house and then I went and got the Dauguerreotypes of yourselves and it looked so well that I felt as though all was gone.

The next day I looked about and went up to the Hardy Flume, I told them that I would be there to work tomorrow, so I went, but we did not make but a very little; that night it rained and filled up the diggins, so we worked a half day on Friday to get the pumps a going and Saturday I went over to Jack Taylor. Jack is a picking away slowly, yet this morning I gotup and had breakfast and fixed things up, then I got a paper and set down and read until Israll Mcenterfer came in and we had a long chat.

This is now monday, it is raining. I have been to work in the Hardy Flume and we have finished working out the crevace above the bridge and it has paid nothing, so I think we will dry up on the flume buisness. Dr. Webber has sold the mill to George Webber & Bill for $8,000, $3,000 in hand and the remainder I can not say on what conditions they pay. He sold about the time we were in San Francisco.

I saw Harvey in town, he wished to know who you have left your business with, I told him I was authorized to settle the business, so he said that he only borrowed $30 of you so I did not know, but I was mistaken, so then I went to Dr. Webber and he said that he thought you told him $40 so I told Harvey that he should pay me $30 and the interest and for the time & mule that you spent going down to see him, before you left, then I would write to you and get a correct answer from you and if you said it was more he should pay it; he agreed to do so, but left and did not pay it. So when you write just state the amount, but I will have the $30 in course of a couple weeks, then if it is more I will give him a few words of my mind.

George Hardy never has asked a word about how you got along or any thing about you, all of the rest of the people are very anxious to hear how you are getting along.

Joseph Levet says; to tell you that he is well and has a new boss. I want you to tell Father to have his eyes examined, to see if there are wild hairs in the eye lids. There was a man told me that there were wild hair in most all sore eyes, he says that he has taken a thousand out of one mans eyes, then they got well.
I did not get any letters in the last mail.
I believe I will close this letter. I shall write every mail. I will also send you the paper. Please except my most sincere love.
My respects to all, I can not mention all the names, but you may feel asured that I have forgotten none.

I would like to have a line from all, Mother also.

Go thou which will be expected, seek and find the way, until you shall arive in the hands of my
Dear Friends.

E. R. Shoemaker is Emanuel Rogers Schumacher (B) 15 April 1832 (D) 13 Sept. 1903 son of Johann Heinrich Schumacher. Johann had 11 children.
This letter was written to Catharine Marguerette Schumacher(and her husband) and she was a sister to Emanuel. Catharine married Franklin Carlton Francis.
Catharine & Franklin had five children-one was Jennie Bell who married William Seward Young.
Jennie Bell & William Young had two children: One was Frank Carleton Young who married Lillian Mae Stocks. So this letter was written to Frank Youngs grandparents.
SCHUMACHER was changed to SHOEMAKER around 1843.

How Winslow got related to Shoemaker:
David Alexander Schumacher(one of 11 children of Johann Heinrich Schumacher) married and had three children; one was Henry Thomas Shoemaker and he married Harriet Cordelia Miser.
Henry & Harriet had four children Nellie V., Frank T., Nora Bell and Harriet Goldie. Nellie V. married Justus A. Winslow: Justus & Nellie had three children, Elmer, Harriet & Lester. Harriet married Lionel D. Kellicut. Harriet & Lionel had four children: Floyd L., Leona E., Nellie A., and Irene J. Mrs. May S. Dilla, in a letter from Paris, France, to Mrs. N. T. Jackman tells of Miss Princess Dilla being ready to start on a tour on March 18, taking a party of American friends including Mrs. Dilla to parts of Europe they have not yet visited. The itinerary of the trip is to visit Southern France and Spain, see the largest cities in Spain, then to Portugal, then by boat to Tangier, in Africa, then by boat to Algiers and Tunis in Northern Africa, then by land to Sicily and Greece, where they expect to meet Miss Maude Shoemaker, then through Italy, through Austria, then through Denmark and back to Paris.

May S. Dilla was a daughter of Emanuel Roger Shoemaker. She was born 10-21-1860 at Waterloo, Ind. She married Frank Dilla. May had two girls born in Jackson, Mi.
Harriette May(b) 1886-(d)1933
Geraldine Princess(B) 1890
Maude Shoemaker(Maud Scott) (B) 10-3-1896 in Waterloo, Ind. her father was Scott Shoemaker a brother to May Dilla.
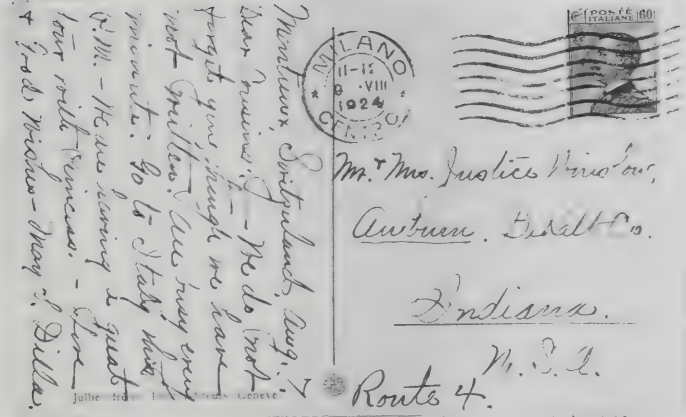
So this Maude Shoemaker was a niece of May Dilla & a cousin of Princess Dilla.
Emanuel was a brother to Catharine Marguerette Francis. Catharine was the mother of Jennie Bell Young. So May was a first cousin to Jennie Bell YOung. Jennie Bell is Frank Youngs mother. So I think this would make May a second cousin to Frank Young. Was probably in 1920's.



This post card was sent by the lady(May S. Dilla) while she was on the trip described in paper clipping. Card sent to her cousins Mr.&Mrs. Justus Winslow. Cousins through Mrs. Justus Winslow who was Nellie V. (Shoemaker) Winslow, card dated 1924

OBITUARY.

Franklin Carlton Francis was born Aug. 13, 1822; died July 28, 1898, aged 75 years, 11 months and 15 days.

Deceased was the son of Peter and Nancy Hubbard Francis, who resided at the time of his birth at Metz, Germany-then France. He was the third child of a family of four sons and three daughters, none of whom are now living except a brother, Peter Francis, who resides at Sparta, Wis. The father emigrated with the four younger children and reached Lowville, N. Y., about the year 1836, where they resided for three years, then moved to Milwaukee and later to Watertown, Wis. In the spring of 1849, deceased journeyed by water to California, arriving at San Francisco. He made his way to Downieville, just north of Sacramento, where he began the life of a miner and soon became a contractor and builder, having rapidly acquired several mines of his own and was engaged in all the whirl and hurry of a new western town. He was very successful and accumulated what, at that time and place, was considered a fortune.

One Sabbath in church, for he had been an active factor in the building of a church in the new town, he was attracted by a new face in a sun-bonnet-the young woman of a party who had made the journey overland, helping her father and brother. He soon became enamored and on Sept. 4, 1853, he married her. She was Catharine M. Shoemaker. After about 2 years he, with his wife and their young child, embarked upon the ill-fated "Yankee Blade," a vessel bound for the States. They had set out upon a visit home. They met with shipwreck and were landed upon an uninhabited headland, destitute, having barely escaped with their lives. A fortune swallowed up by the sea. They were rescued at length and returned to the city of San Francisco, where Mr. Francis left his wife and child and returned to Downsville, where, drawing upon his resourses, they were soon re-embarked and reached DeKalb county and friends in the month of Nov. 1855. Within the year they decided to settle down and remain, becoming possessed of the tract of land where he has for all these forty two years been found an honorable and properous citizen. He was the father of five children Orcelia, Wm. F., Cyrus V., Mary J., Jennie B. The faithful wife, Wm. F. Jennie B. and two grandchildren survive to mourn their great loss, cherishing the memory of a tender husband, a kind father and a companionable grandfather.

His life in Waterloo has been one of sterling manhood, tireless industry, strict probity and generous hospitality. For years he was an active, consistent and reliable member of the church of the United Brethern in Christ. For reasons satisfactory to himself he severed his relations with the church, but was firm in his faith in the reality of the Christian Religion to the end. Cottage services were held at 10 a. m. Saturday, at which a large percentage of many people present were silvered over with the marks of time. They had "neighbored" with Frank Francis for over forty years. They came to join in the last funeral rites, which were conducted by Revs. Yager and Butler, aided by Elder Tedrow. The body rests in the Waterloo cemetery.

Dear Hattie & Ada

just received a letter from Ed the letter is about 1 week old having had a short attack. I do hope he is improving now I know you are all worried and have so much to do right now If I can be of any help will gladly do it, otherwise no. As far as Tom & Kent are concerned they do not know a thing different. They invited Ruth and family down for their anniversary in August I have been waiting for weeks for a letter, got a post card yesterday. Doubt if they will be here now until September. 555

I do not expect you Hattie to write as Edith can keep me informed as to kind I am sure worry for all of you. So glad C.J. Hap and Dwight are so good in helping, also the girls

We had days of rain here and now it is pretty warm. May have rain again today.

Have not disposed of place yet but am not going to let it worry me. I do have a roof over my head at least Wish I could be closer to your folks. Terribly lonesome here. I keep busy and that helps me.

Please ask Edith to write me often. I know your folks love us here

Love to all and a prayer for kind
